Second Mineral Board Member Resigns Post

Davis Leaves State After Collins Quits

By SAM HANNA
World Legislative Writer

BATON ROUGE — Gov. Jimmie H. Davis flew to Hot Springs, Ark., Friday fresh from a legislative victory to take over the tidelands, but another member of the State Mineral Board resigned.

The governor went to Hot Springs to address the Arkansas Peace Officers.

Shortly after the Senate voted 34-5 to remove Atty. Gen. Jack P. F. Gremillion and the mineral board in the tidelands negotiations, Davis received a resignation from O. Gordon Collins of Shreveport.

Collins said to Davis in a telegram:

"BUNGLING, INEPT"

"I'm very disappointed in the bungling and inept way you have handled your administration so far, to say the least. I'm sure as a senior member of the State Mineral Board any help I could give is at an end."

Collins became the second board member to resign in the wake of the administration's drive for control of the state's negotiations with the federal government in the tidelands issue.

Chairman William G. Helis of New Orleans quit Thursday.

Another member, A. H. Stall of New Orleans, said he might resign also.

"I am seriously considering resigning myself," Stall said. "There is something going on that doesn't look good to me. I'm afraid of what may happen with this new gang in. I don't want to be in something I may be sorry for later."

STREAKS FROM SPACE

X15 Plane Makes Most Dangerous Descent To Date

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — X15 pilot Bob White streaked into space Friday, then plunged back in the rocket plane's most dangerous descent yet.

Zooming at 3,750 miles an hour to a height of 129,000 feet, White started his long dive near the California-Nevada border 200 miles northeast of here.

Operating small steam jets like those on Mercury astronauts' capsules, White forced the X15 bullet-shaped nose upward into the highest "angle of attack" the space dart has yet attempted.

RE-ENTRY ANGLE

Angle of attack means the angle at which the X15 re-enters the atmosphere. Friday's angle was 20 degrees above the horizontal, exposing much of the X15 undersurface to searing heat during its plunge through the resisting air. The highest angle previously attempted was 18 degrees.

Although such maneuvers are dangerous and could tear the wings off conventional planes, they will be necessary to brake the descent of future space craft.

The 37-year-old Air Force major, who flew the X15 a record 4,093 m.p.h. last Nov. 8, began Friday's flight by dropping away from the wing of the B52 mother ship 45,000 feet above Delamar Dry Lake, 60 miles north of Las Vegas, Nev.

Shooting upward, he held the engine wide open for more than a minute, then cut back to 30 per cent thrust in a test of a new and more sensitive throttle. The X15 heretofore has been unable to throttle back to more than 50 per cent thrust.

On the way up, at 98,000 feet, and again at 80,000 feet on the way down, White performed another critical test of the craft's maneuverability.

He deliberatedly switched off the electronic brain which supervises this control system and briefly let an emergency system take over. The emergency system, designed to function only in case the main system should fail, worked perfectly.

Farm Family Slain, Youth Is Arrested

Three Are Found Shot Late Friday In Yard Of Home

CHESTERFIELD, Va. (UPI) — A farmer, his wife and their teen-age daughter were shot down Friday outside their home and police arrested a 16-year-old handyman a few hours later in connection with the triple slaying.

The bodies of Fred Hofer, 52, his wife, Lucille, 49, and their daughter, Sue, 16, were found in the yard of their dairy farm.

IN FAMILY CAR

Several hours later police arrested the family handyman, Hubie Templeman, about 150 miles away after a screaming chase over the Blue Ridge Parkway. Police said Templeman was driving the Hofer family car.

Templeman had lived and worked with the Hofer family, police said.

The daughter, Sue, was to have appeared in a high school band concert Friday night. Authorities said members of the family apparently were shot to death as they walked to the house after parking their car late in the afternoon. The home is about a quarter mile off a rural highway.

Officers said the girl's body was found beside the barn, about 60 yards from the house. A trail of blood led from the house to the barn. The bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Hofer were found side by side about 15 yards from the two-story white farm house.

The murder weapon apparently was a .22 caliber pistol or rifle, police said. A rifle and a .45 caliber pistol were believed taken from the Hofer home, they said.

Hofer was shot once. His wife and daughter were each shot at least twice, according to Dr. Geoffrey T. Mann, state chief medical examiner.

Doors of the farm house were open and there were indications someone had rummaged through the family's possessions.

The bodies were found by Garland Maxey, a neighboring farmer who had gone to the Hofer dairy farm to inoculate some cattle.

Treasurer Delivers May Funds

BATON ROUGE (Staff Special) —State Treasurer A. P. Tugwell said Friday he delivered a check to the Department of Education representing half of the funds that Louisiana school boards were due to get in May.

That left about $19½-million still owed to school boards for the current school year.

"We plan to liquidate this balance at the earliest possible date, certainly by or before August 31st from proceeds of the bond issue authorized by the present Legislature or from revenues of the next ensuing fiscal year," Tugwell said.

In a letter to school superintendents, Tugwell said, "If, however, it should become necessary to do so, you may borrow against the revenues of next year in an amount not to exceed the unpaid portion of the allotment authorized for the current year."

He pointed out that the Legislature adopted a resolution authorizing boards to borrow money.

Here is a parish list of funds the state owes to northeast Louisiana boards after the mid-May payment:

Ouachita — $459,795.91. City of Monroe — $235,139.09. Caldwell—$92,801.72. Catahoula — $121,061.77. Concordia — $149,690.57. East Carroll — $114,168.60. Franklin—$271,792.78. Jackson — $161,891.12. LaSalle — $105,765.21. Lincoln — $204,716.72. Madison—$131,512.58. Morehouse — $270,903.03. Richland — $237,897.87. Tensas—$100,562.12. Union — $831,216.80. West Carroll — $154,641.16. Winn — $150,108.05.

Test Shot May Ground Planes

HONOLULU (AP) — The first high altitude nuclear bomb test planned for Johnson Island early Saturday may cause a communications blackout that could ground commercial air travel west of Honolulu for up to 21 hours.

Gilbert McCoy, regional public affairs officer for the Federal Aviation Agency, said the agency will have no alternative but to cancel flights if communications are disrupted as expected.

McCoy said that if communications do fail, flights will be grounded to and from Honolulu in the direction of Wake Island, Sydney, Canton Island and Nandi, Fiji.

Dennis Lee Marchman of Monroe is a candidate for graduation at the 68th annual commencement exercises of Culver Military Academy June 5. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Marchman, 1919 Pargoud Blvd.

Dennis was on the varsity golf team and participated in intramural football, basketball, boxing, and track. He was a member of the Philosophy club and was a lieutenant in the military organization.

Ike Accuses Kennedy Of Control Try

Asserts Planned Economy Would Cost Freedoms

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Former President Eisenhower accused President Kennedy Friday of promoting "reckless spending programs" and seeking "too much control in the central government."

Eisenhower made these comments to a news conference after presiding at a three-and-one-half-hour lunch attended by Republican congressional leaders, cabinet members during his administration, other former Eisenhower aides and business leaders who have supported the GOP.

VOICES CONCERN

The ex-President said the session dealt only with domestic issues, except for some references to foreign trade.

"We are deeply concerned about the direction the economy seems to be going," Eisenhower said.

He said that the group of about 50 Republicans voiced belief there was too much control by the federal government and that too many people were losing the faith needed to keep the economy strong.

He added that his advisers felt that no group could direct "a planned economy" and keep it strong while protecting American freedoms.

Eisenhower said his group was not proposing any cures except to elect a House of Representatives under Republican control next November.

"This they expect to do," he said.

Eisenhower said that the GOP leaders believed that the Kennedy administration's "farm bill and every other kind of bill" would interfere with freedom and that the administration's "reckless spending programs" make it more difficult to maintain a sound dollar and a sound economy.

Asked how he regarded the stock market's ups and downs this week, the former President said government policy might have affected the market but that he would not attempt to answer the question

'Beeping' Satellite Is Orbited

SUNNYVALE, Calif. (AP)—OSCAR II, a beeping amateur radio satellite, was put into orbit successfully Friday by the Air Force for the American Radio Relay League.

M. C. Towns of Saratoga, Calif., chairman of the Project OSCAR Association with headquarters here, said OSCAR II was launched at 5:32 p.m. and that amateur tracking data indicated the 10-pound satellite was following its own orbit about the earth.

It has an inclination of approximately 82 degrees, an orbital period of approximately 92 minutes and should broadcast for a month or more.

Towns said OSCAR II peeps out "Hi" at regular intervals on the radio frequency of 144.993 megacycles. In the international radio code "Hi" is four dots followed by two dots.

OSCAR II, Towns said, has an improved keying circuit and greater transmitter efficiency than OSCAR I, which was launched last Dec. 12 from Vandenberg Air Force Base in Southern California and transmitted for 20½ days.

SERVED 4 PRESIDENTS

White House Fires Veteran Employee

WASHINGTON (AP)—Jack Romagna, who has taken down the words of four presidents, was fired Friday as official White House reporter.

To replace him in turning out stenographic transcripts, the White House hired a Washington commercial service, the Alderson Reporting Co.

Press Secretary Pierre Salinger, announcing the change, said Alderson would be able to provide more than one reporter to record the variety of events that occur in the White House every day.

The official reporter records and transcribes presidential news conferences, speeches by the chief executive—to small groups at the White House as well as his major addresses—and the press secretary's twice-a-day meetings with correspondents.

There have been signs of cooling relations between the White House press office and Romagna in recent months.

The staff obviously was disturbed several weeks ago when Romagna transcribed remarks Kennedy delivered by telephone to a conference of mayors in Miami Beach and noted in the heading that the President spoke from the White House swimming pool.

Copies remaining after the initial distribution to newsmen were thrown away and a new supply prepared with a brief heading that omitted reference to the swimming pool.

Aides explained that because of a change in timing, Kennedy happened to be in the pool at the

Welfare Aid To Children Change OK'd

Law 'Compatible' To Government Is Passed In Senate

BATON ROUGE (Staff Special) — A change in the Louisiana welfare program for dependent children that is "compatible with the federal government" was passed by the Senate Friday, 33-6.

Sen. Jamar Adcock of Monroe and Sen. Howard M. Jones of St. Joseph voted against it.

But Sen. W. T. Carpenter of Bastrop handled the bill on the floor, explaining, "We have tried to come up with a bill that would be compatible with the federal government."

STRONGER BILL

Carpenter, who sponsored the original suitable homes legislation in 1960, said the bill was stronger, pointing out that it keeps intact the provision that parents must provide suitable homes or lose welfare checks.

"This bill would take the money away from the parents and not the children," the Bastrop Senator stated.

Local welfare boards will declare whether homes are suitable or unsuitable and will have authority to go to court to prove cases of delinquent parents.

With the support of Gov. Jimmie H. Davis, the bill is designed to curtail welfare benefits for parents of illegitimate children.

The U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare gave Louisiana until Sept. 1 to change the law to meet federal regulations. Carpenter's original bill resulted in about 26,000 persons, mostly Negroes, being removed from the welfare rolls.

"That money will be turned over to a blood relative or an interested third party," Carpenter said.

He said the federal government put up $22.3 million and the state $6 million. If federal funds were eliminated, it would reduce the checks to $25 per month.

High Explosive Is Found Near Kennedy House

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP)—A 55-gallon drum containing a high explosive was discovered Thursday night on the beach a few yards from the Joseph P. Kennedy estate, the naval ordnance test facility here said Friday.

Lt. Cmdr. Elmer A. Schumacher, officer in charge of the facility, said the explosive, if detonated would have wiped out the estate and some of the surrounding area.

"When we were notified by the Palm Beach Police Department, the barrel was 15 yards from the Kennedy house, on the beach," the officer said.

Schumacher said the barrel apparently had been opened by a curiosity-seeker.

"We had to reseal the barrel to bring it to our test facility," Schumacher said. "If water had come in contact with the material, it would have exploded."

Schumacher said the barrel could have floated ashore from a ship. He said the test facility detonated the explosive after taking samples for laboratory analysis.

Showers, Cool Expected Today

Scattered showers and thunderstorms are forecast today for the Twin Cities, cooled and dampened by .92 inches of afternoon rain Friday.

Highest temperature seen for today is 83, the same spot the mercury reached Friday. The weatherman says Friday's 67 will also be duplicated.

Skies will be partly cloudy. Winds will be blowing out of the southeast at about 8-18 miles per hour, except during thunderstorm gusts.

TWO UNIDENTIFIED plainclothes policemen close in on a hospital office window in Pittsburgh Friday a few minutes before officers broke into the office and found a doctor shot to death. Berserk Man Kills Doctor, Wounds Cop

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A mental patient killed a psychiatrist and wounded a policeman at a Veterans' Administration hospital Friday, then held off some 60 officers for nearly two hours before being felled by tear gas.

Captured unconscious was William Pola, 27, of nearby Wilmerding, a former Marine corporal who was a voluntary patient at the sprawling Leech Farm Hospital in the past.

FOUND SLAIN

Dr. Daniel Thaw, 61, was found fatally shot in an office adjoining the one where Pola was captured.

Police found two pistols—a 38 automatic and a 45 automatic—near Pola when they finally unlocked the door to the two offices on the first floor. It was not barricaded.

Pola had done most of the shooting in the gun battle with police. He was not hit.

Pola steadfastly ignored pleas by a nurse to surrender. Standing a few feet away from the office and around a corner, Mrs. Alta Houser pleaded:

"Bill, don't just sit there biting your lip. Just open the door, kick the gun out and get rid of it. Please, Bill, come out now. I'm out here waiting for you. They don't want to have to shoot you.

"We can help you once you're out, but we can't do anything while you're in there."

Hospital officials said Pola had been discharged from the hospital against medical advice last April 19. That was the latest of several stays he had made there since being discharged from the Marine Corps early in 1955.

Pola's half-sister, Mrs. Jane Fillar of Wilmerding, said Pola had gone for an appointment at the V.A.'s regional office in downtown Pittsburgh.

"I really don't know how he wound up at the hospital," she said.

GOVERNOR'S RACE

Texans To Vote In Runoff Today

The candidates are John B. Connally Jr. 45, President Kennedy's first secretary of the Navy; and Don Yarborough, 36, Houston attorney.

Neither has held elective office. Both candidates resorted to personal attacks in the final days of the campaign.

TRADE CHARGES

Yarborough charged Conally is a representative of oil and gas monopolies and wants to impose a state income tax to ease the Texas taxes of Eastern business interests.

Connally claimed labor leaders have been sent into the state to support Yarborough and that Americans for Democratic Action is backing his opponent. He, like Yarborough, charged that his opponent wants a state income tax.

Connally declared, "The most vicious, dangerous undercover political campaign in Texas history has been launched against me. Architect of the diabolical plan is the left-wing, radical Americans for Democratic Action and their cohorts, carried out by an elite corps of henchmen sent into Texas."

His opponent claimed a plan to increase the sales tax "is already on the drawing board—with the Eastern lobbyists as the architects and my opponent as their chosen construction foreman."

'Sun-Snooping' Satellite Loses Sending Ability

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States' special sun-snooping satellite has run into tough luck after doing a real bang-up job for almost three months, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration reported Friday.

The satellite — officially known as the "orbiting solar observatory," or OSO for short—is still whirling around the earth all right but it has lost its ability to send down useful scientific information by radio.

Seems that a control system that was supposed to keep the scientific instruments and solar cells pointed toward the sun developed a malfunction.

But NASA said the satellite has turned in an excellent account of doings aloft since it was launched March 7 from Cape Canaveral, Fla.

More than 100 miles of magnetic tape has been used to record all the celestial gossip sent down by the satellite, including:

Measurements of more than 75 solar flares and subflares, mapping of gamma radiation in the sky; examination of particles in the lower Van Allen radiation region; data on the erosion effect of space flight or various kinds of materials.

'SLEEPING BEAUTIES'

Mother Sentenced To Jail Weekends

CLEVELAND (AP)—Mrs. Lilian Fratantonio, attractive, 30-year-old mother of the "Sleeping beauties," will spend Saturdays and Sundays in the City Workhouse this summer under a Juvenile Court ruling issued Friday.

The diminutive brunette appeared visibly upset as she sat beside her husband, Vincent, and heard the order from Judge Albert A. Woldman.

The judge had heard arguments in support of a motion that he lift altogether her year's prison sentence and fine of $500 and costs which exceed $1,200. Judge Woldman said he would rule on the motion to mitigate sentence after Mrs. Fratantonio had served a total of 30 Saturdays and Sundays in the workhouse.

The strange case of the sleeping beauties attracted widespread attention and mystified medical men for several months in 1960. That was before it was discovered that Mrs. Fratantonio had been feeding her two small daughters Venita, now 7, and Bernadette, now 5, barbiturates which sent them into prolonged comas. Both recovered.

An affidavit filed in support of them mitigation motion stated that the sleeping beauty daughters and the couple's three other children are "at a tender age and require her (the mother's) presence at home without interruption."

Judge Woldman said the court found it "ironic that the defendant, who is guilty of mistreating her children, says she would not be separated from them because they need her.

"The court still believes that the sentence imposed was warranted by evidence presented at the trial, but juvenile court is a family court and its purpose is to strengthen families," he added.

Reds Lure Two Girls, One Shot

BERLIN (AP) — East German border guards shot and wounded a teen-age West Berlin girl on the border Friday night, West police reported.

Another girl with her was dragged through the barbed wire barricade into East Germany, police added.

Both girls approached the wire believing an East German friend was trying to escape, the wounded girl told police.

Police said the girls are 17 years old. They were identified only as Ursula and Karin.

American Military Police were rushed to the spot in the borough of Lichterfelde in the American sector.

West police said the two girls went to the barbed wire in darkness.

"Come up to the wire," the guards were quoted. "Your girl friend is waiting for you."

At this point the barbed wire is some yards back from the actual demarcation line. So when the girls went up to the wire they were on Communist territory.

The invitation apparently was a trap.

The Vopos (East German guards) suddenly reached out for the girls. They grabbed Karen and dragged her through the wire.

Ursula turned and fled. As she ran back to the west the Vopos fired on her with tommyguns.

She was hit in the hip. But she gathered enough strength to stagger to the nearest West police post and tell of the shooting.

By SAM HANNA

BATON ROUGE — Gov. Jimmie H. Davis flew to Hot Springs, Ark., Friday fresh from a legislative victory to take over the tidelands, but another member of the State Mineral Board resigned.

The governor went to Hot Springs to address the Arkansas Peace Officers.

Shortly after the Senate voted 34-5 to remove Atty. Gen. Jack P. F. Gremillion and the mineral board in the tidelands negotiations, Davis received a resignation from O. Gordon Collins of Shreveport.

Collins said to Davis in a telegram:

Berserk Man Kills Doctor, Wounds Cop

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A mental patient killed a psychiatrist and wounded a policeman at a Veterans' Administration hospital Friday, then held off some 60 officers for nearly two hours before being felled by tear gas.

Captured unconscious was William Pola, 27, of nearby Wilmerding, a former Marine corporal who was a voluntary patient at the sprawling Leech Farm Hospital in the past.

FOUND SLAIN

Dr. Daniel Thaw, 61, was found fatally shot in an office adjoining the one where Pola was captured.

Police found two pistols—a 38 automatic and a 45 automatic—near Pola when they finally unlocked the door to the two offices on the first floor. It was not barricaded.

Pola had done most of the shooting in the gun battle with police. He was not hit.

Pola steadfastly ignored pleas by a nurse to surrender. Standing a few feet away from the office and around a corner, Mrs. Alta Houser pleaded:

"Bill, don't just sit there biting your lip. Just open the door, kick the gun out and get rid of it. Please, Bill, come out now. I'm out here waiting for you. They don't want to have to shoot you.

"We can help you once you're out, but we can't do anything while you're in there."

Hospital officials said Pola had been discharged from the hospital against medical advice last April 19. That was the latest of several stays he had made there since being discharged from the Marine Corps early in 1955.

Pola's half-sister, Mrs. Jane Fillar of Wilmerding, said Pola had gone for an appointment at the V.A.'s regional office in downtown Pittsburgh.

"I really don't know how he wound up at the hospital," she said.

GOVERNOR'S RACE

Texans To Vote In Runoff Today

The candidates are John B. Connally Jr. 45, President Kennedy's first secretary of the Navy; and Don Yarborough, 36, Houston attorney.

Neither has held elective office. Both candidates resorted to personal attacks in the final days of the campaign.

TRADE CHARGES

Yarborough charged Conally is a representative of oil and gas monopolies and wants to impose a state income tax to ease the Texas taxes of Eastern business interests.

Connally claimed labor leaders have been sent into the state to support Yarborough and that Americans for Democratic Action is backing his opponent. He, like Yarborough, charged that his opponent wants a state income tax.

Connally declared, "The most vicious, dangerous undercover political campaign in Texas history has been launched against me. Architect of the diabolical plan is the left-wing, radical Americans for Democratic Action and their cohorts, carried out by an elite corps of henchmen sent into Texas."

His opponent claimed a plan to increase the sales tax "is already on the drawing board—with the Eastern lobbyists as the architects and my opponent as their chosen construction foreman."

'Sun-Snooping' Satellite Loses Sending Ability

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States' special sun-snooping satellite has run into tough luck after doing a real bang - up job for almost three months, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration reported Friday.

The satellite — officially known as the "orbiting solar observatory," or OSO for short—is still whirling around the earth all right but it has lost its ability to send down useful scientific information by radio.

Seems that a control system that was supposed to keep the scientific instruments and solar cells pointed toward the sun developed a malfunction.

But NASA said the satellite has turned in an excellent account of doings aloft since it was launched March 7 from Cape Canaveral, Fla.

More than 100 miles of magnetic tape has been used to record all the celestial gossip sent down by the satellite, including:

Measurements of more than 75 solar flares and subflares; mapping of gamma radiation in the sky; examination of particles in the lower Van Allen radiation region; data on the erosion effect of space flight or various kinds of materials.

Treasurer Delivers May Funds

BATON ROUGE (Staff Special) —State Treasurer A. P. Tugwell said Friday he delivered a check to the Department of Education representing half of the funds that Louisiana school boards were due to get in May.

"We plan to liquidate this balance at the earliest possible date, certainly by or before August 31st from proceeds of the bond issue authorized by the present Legislature or from revenues of the next ensuing fiscal year," Tugwell said.

In a letter to school superintendents, Tugwell said, "If, however, it should become necessary to do so, you may borrow against the revenues of next year in an amount not to exceed the unpaid portion of the allotment authorized for the current year."

He pointed out that the Legislature adopted a resolution authorizing boards to borrow money.

Here is a parish list of funds the state owes to northeast Louisiana boards after the mid-May payment:

Ouachita — $459,795.91. City of Monroe — $235,139.09. Caldwell—$92,801.72. Catahoula — $121,061.77. Concordia — $149,690.57. East Carroll — $114,168.60. Franklin—$271,792.78. Jackson — $161,891.12. LaSalle — $105,765.21. Lincoln — $204,716.72. Madison—$131,512.58. Morehouse — $270,903.03. Richland — $237,897.87. Tensas—$100,562.12. Union — $831,216.80. West Carroll — $154,641.16. Winn — $150,108.05.

'Beeping' Satellite Is Orbited

SUNNYVALE, Calif. (AP)—OSCAR II, a beeping amateur radio satellite, was put into orbit successfully Friday by the Air Force for the American Radio Relay League.

M. C. Towns of Saratoga, Calif., chairman of the Project OSCAR Association with headquarters here, said OSCAR II was launched at 5:32 p.m. and that amateur tracking data indicated the 10-pound satellite was following its own orbit about the earth.

It has an inclination of approximately 82 degrees, an orbital period of approximately 92 minutes and should broadcast for a month or more.

Towns said OSCAR II peeps out "Hi" at regular intervals on the radio frequency of 144.993 megacycles. In the international radio code "Hi" is four dots followed by two dots.

OSCAR II, Towns said, has an improved keying circuit and greater transmitter efficiency than OSCAR I, which was launched last Dec. 12 from Vandenberg Air Force Base in Southern California and transmitted for 20½ days.

High Explosive Is Found Near Kennedy House

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP)—A 55-gallon drum containing a high explosive was discovered Thursday night on the beach a few yards from the Joseph P. Kennedy estate, the naval ordnance test facility here said Friday.

Lt. Cmdr. Elmer A. Schumacher, officer in charge of the facility, said the explosive, if detonated would have wiped out the estate and some of the surrounding area.

"When we were notified by the Palm Beach Police Department, the barrel was 15 yards from the Kennedy house, on the beach," the officer said.

Schumacher said the barrel apparently had been opened by a curiosity-seeker.

"We had to reseal the barrel to bring it to our test facility," Schumacher said. "If water had come in contact with the material, it would have exploded."

Schumacher said the barrel could have floated ashore from a ship. He said the test facility detonated the explosive after taking samples for laboratory analysis.

Reds Lure Two Girls, One Shot

BERLIN (AP) — East German border guards shot and wounded a teen-age West Berlin girl on the border Friday night, West police reported.

Another girl with her was dragged through the barbed wire barricade into East Germany, police added.

Both girls approached the wire believing an East German friend was trying to escape, the wounded girl told police.

Police said the girls are 17 years old. They were identified only as Ursula and Karin.

American Military Police were rushed to the spot in the borough of Lichterfelde in the American sector.

West police said the two girls went to the barbed wire in darkness.

"Come up to the wire," the guards were quoted. "Your girl friend is waiting for you."

At this point the barbed wire is some yards back from the actual demarcation line. So when the girls went up to the wire they were on Communist territory.

The invitation apparently was a trap.

The Vopos (East German guards) suddenly reached out for the girls. They grabbed Karen and dragged her through the wire.

Ursula turned and fled. As she ran back to the west the Vopos fired on her with tommyguns.

She was hit in the hip. But she gathered enough strength to stagger to the nearest West police post and tell of the shooting.

SERVED 4 PRESIDENTS

White House Fires Veteran Employee

WASHINGTON (AP)—Jack Romagna, who has taken down the words of four presidents, was fired Friday as official White House reporter.

To replace him in turning out stenographic transcripts, the White House hired a Washington commercial service, the Alderson Reporting Co.

Press Secretary Pierre Salinger, announcing the change, said Alderson would be able to provide more than one reporter to record the variety of events that occur in the White House every day.

The official reporter records and transcribes presidential news conferences, speeches by the chief executive—to small groups at the White House as well as his major addresses—and the press secretary's twice-a-day meetings with correspondents.

There have been signs of cooling relations between the White House press office and Romagna in recent months.

The staff obviously was disturbed several weeks ago when Romagna transcribed remarks Kennedy delivered by telephone to a conference of mayors in Miami Beach and noted in the heading that the President spoke from the White House swimming pool.

Copies remaining after the initial distribution to newsmen were thrown away and a new supply prepared with a brief heading that omitted reference to the swimming pool.

Aides explained that because of a change in timing, Kennedy happened to be in the pool at the

Test Shot May Ground Planes

HONOLULU (AP) — The first high altitude nuclear bomb test planned for Johnson Island early Saturday may cause a communications blackout that could ground commercial air travel west of Honolulu for up to 21 hours.

Gilbert McCoy, regional public affairs officer for the Federal Aviation Agency, said the agency will have no alternative but to cancel flights if communications are disrupted as expected.

McCoy said that if communications do fail, flights will be grounded to and from Honolulu in the direction of Wake Island, Sydney, Canton Island and Nandi, Fiji.

Showers, Cool Expected Today

Scattered showers and thunderstorms are forecast today for the Twin Cities, cooled and dampened by .92 inches of afternoon rain Friday

Highest temperature seen for today is 83, the same spot the mercury reached Friday. The weatherman says Friday's 67 will also be duplicated.

Skies will be partly cloudy. Winds will be blowing out of the southeast at about 8-18 miles per hour, except during thunderstorm gusts.

'SLEEPING BEAUTIES'

Mother Sentenced To Jail Weekends

CLEVELAND (AP)—Mrs. Lilian Fratantonio, attractive, 30-year-old mother of the "sleeping beauties," will spend Saturdays and Sundays in the City Workhouse this summer under a Juvenile Court ruling issued Friday.

The diminutive brunette appeared visibly upset as she sat beside her husband, Vincent, and heard the order from Judge Albert A. Woldman.

The judge had heard arguments in support of a motion that he lift altogether her year's prison sentence and fine of $500 and costs which exceed $1,200. Judge Woldman said he would rule on the motion to mitigate sentence after Mrs. Fratantonio had served a total of 30 Saturdays and Sundays in the workhouse.

The strange case of the sleeping beauties attracted widespread attention and mystified medical men for several months in 1960. That was before it was discovered that Mrs. Fratantonio had been feeding her two small daughters Venita, now 7, and Bernadette, now 5, barbiturates which sent them into prolonged comas. Both recovered.

An affidavit filed in support of them mitgation motion stated that the sleepng beauty daughters and the couple's three other children are "at a tender age and require her (the mother's) presence at home without interruption."

Judge Woldman said the court found it "ironic that the defendant, who is guilty of mistreating her children, says she would not be separated from them because they need her.

"The court still believes that the sentence imposed was warranted by evidence presented at the trial, but juvenile court is a family court and its purpose is to strengthen families," he added.

INDIVIDUAL AMERICAN

Chance Of Bone Cancer Is Set At One-In-300

WASHINGTON (AP) — Individual Americans have at worst — a one-in-300,000 risk of developing bone cancer and a one-in-100,000 hazard of developing leukemia from the fallout of all nuclear tests through 1961, a government study reported Friday.

Indeed, said the report by the Federal Radiation Council, there's even a possibility that no cancerous or other physical ills will occur due to exposure to fallout.

However, the report said some hereditary effects on the next and succeeding generations could be expected.

But, here again the individual risk is rated low in terms of the total population — specifically, at one in a million for an individual of the next generation.

Genetic risks would include the hazard of developing such ailments as congenital malformations, blindness, deafness, feeblemindedness, muscular dystrophy, hemophilia and mental incapacity.

The estimated extent of risk is set forth in a document rounding up what federation spokesman said is the best available scientific information from both national and international groups concerned with the fallout situation.

The long report represents the first presentation by a government agency of actual estimates on the number of cases of specific ills and hereditary ills that might be expected in the American population for many years to come.

As regards physical ills that might occur among people directly exposed to the fallout the numbers cover a period of the next 70 years.

As regards genetic effects the figures cover "all future generations" in the United States.

At a backgrounding session for reporters in connection with issuance of the report, some top government fallout experts though declining attribution by name reported:

1. The fallout from last fall's Soviet tests has not been coming to earth in the quantities expected even as recently as 3½ months ago. At least half of the original amount is still in the stratosphere.

This suggests three possibilities:

a—The Soviet devices were not as dirty from the radioactive standpoint as American experts even now still presume they were.

b—Many of the Soviet blasts were at such high altitudes that much of the fallout would take longer than expected to come to earth—meanwhile losing some of its radioactive punch.

c—Meteorological conditions may have slowed descent of the fallout—which also would lessen the radioactive perils.

2. The current American series will contribute substantially less to the potential radiation dose than did the Soviet series of last fall.

The general conclusion of the report:

"We cannot say with certainty what health hazards are caused by fallout from nuclear testing. We expect there will be some genetic effects, other effects such as leukemia and cancer are more speculative and may not occur at all.

"We can observe that, compared to the number of these same adverse biological effects occurring wholly apart from testing, the additional cases that might be caused by testing are a very small quantity."

The report said testing through 1961 will, over the next 30 years, increase radiation exposures above natural background radiation—such as from radium in the earth and cosmic rays—by less than 5 per cent.

Average doses delivered over the period of the next 70 years will represent an increase of less than 10 per cent over natural background doses.

Here are the estimated figures on the number of cases of leukemia and bone cancer that might be expected in the next 70 years in the United States:

Leukemia: Anywhere from zero cases to 2,000—compared with a total of 840,000 cases from all causes during such a span.

Bone cancer: Anywhere from zero cases to 700 over the 70-year span due to fallout, compared with 140,000 such cases from fallout among children of persons now alive, plus between two and 50 cases among the same group from radioactive carbon-14. The latter is not a component of fallout, but is produced in the atmosphere by the effects of nuclear rays from detonated nuclear devices.

The figures compare with an estimate of between four million and six million cases of gross physical or mental defects due to all causes which can be expected to occur in children of persons now living.

Ruston Paper Sold; Kelly Is New Head

Clarence Faulk Announces Sale Of Daily Leader

RUSTON (Special) — Sale of the Ruston Daily Leader to Tom Kelly and Associates was announced Friday by Clarence Faulk, publisher since 1931.

Kelly, born and reared in north Louisiana, has served as editor and assistant to the publisher of the Jennings Daily News for the past two and one-half years.

A native of Winn Parish, Kelly graduated from high school at Dodson and is a graduate of Northwestern State College at Natchitoches.

He has newspapered in his home parish at Winnfield and at Sevierville, Tenn., Gladewater, Tex., and Natchitoches, in addition to Jennings, holding positions in both advertising and news departments.

As a reporter and editor, he has won awards in news, editorial, photography and column-writing competition.

Control of the Lincoln Parish daily and the allied weekly newspaper and commercial printing plant passed to the new owners, known as Ruston Publishers, Inc., Friday.

Faulk, who has published the 67-year-old daily newspaper since 1931, purchased a minor interest in the new company which will direct future publication.

Kelly also announced his other associates as Robert D. Miller, publisher of the Jennings Daily News and present president of the Louisiana Daily Press Association; Jay E. Steinberg, publisher of the Erwin, Tenn., Record and Robert H. Fackleman, Panama City, Fla., president of Gulf Coast Newspaper Service Co., Inc.

FRIDAY CONVOCATION

Northeast State Honors Namesakes, Legislators

Pascal Norris, prominent Monroe attorney, spoke at a convocation at Northeast Louisiana State College on Friday afternoon as the College honored persons for whom buildings and drives have been named and authors and co-authors of legislation effecting the development of Northeast.

Norris asked his audience to preserve and cultivate Western civilization based on belief in God, spiritual and other freedoms, the free enterprise system, and the greatness of America. He said that the future lies in the hands of teachers and charged teachers everywhere to stand fast in upholding strict rules of scholarship. He said that the purpose of education is intellectual cultivation of the mind — that education is the one element which will preserve and cultivate Western civilization.

RECOGNIZE SOLONS

Dr. George T. Walker, president of NLSC, recognized the authors and co-authors of legislation effecting the development of Northeast. Specifically cited with special certificates were Senator W. C. Boone, Senator (later Governor) James A. Noe, Rep. T. J. Coenen Sr. (deceased), Senator John F. McCormick, Senator Ralph King, Senator Brooks Oliver, Rep. Lawrence Gibbs, Rep. Mike John Jr., and Senator Jamar W. Adcock.

Mrs. Adcock accepted the certificate on behalf of her husband, who was in Baton Rouge in a meeting of the Senate. William Robert Coenen, son of the late T. J. Coenen, accepted the certificate posthumously. Senator Boone was not in attendance due to poor health.

Also honored were persons for whom buuildings and drives have been named. They were Joseph Augustus Biedenharn, John Louis Alexender de Breard, Henry Bry, Stephen Adolphus Caldwell, Anna Gray Cosper, Don Juan Filhiol, Franklin Garrett, Andrew Augustus Gunby, Susan West Harris, Henry Flood Madison Sr., William Rufus Mitchell, James Wil-Percy Sandel Sr., and Francis Peter Stubbs.

T. O. Brown Hall and Brown Stadium had been dedicated in earlier ceremonies.

Rabbi Martin I. Silverman, Temple B'Nai Israel, gave the invocation and benediction. Larry Wilson, NLSC student, gave a reading of Stephen Spender's "I Think Continually of Those Who Were Truly Great."

The Northeast Choir, directed by Davis Bingham, rendered "Awake, Oh North Wind" and "Set Me As A Seal Upon Thine Heart." Mrs. Florence Z. Allbritton, associate professor of music, played "Commemoration March" on the organ in accompaniment of the academic procession.

DESIGN 'INSTANT SCHOOL'

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (UPI) — Two members of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology architecture department faculty have designed an "instant schoolhouse." The building, made of pre-fabricated fiberglass on plywood panels, can be adapted to any need, expanded, converted, even taken apart and reassembled at a new location. The flexible structure is put together by bolting the panels to four-armed columns, called "trees."

NEXT SATURDAY

Commencement Set At Northeast State

Dr. John A. Hunter, president of Louisiana State University, will make the commencement address in spring exercises Saturday, June 2, at Northeast Louisiana State College.

Commencement exercises will be held on the lawn of the President's Home at 6:30 p.m.

Dr. H. Leo Eddleman, president of the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary of New Orleans, will make the baccalaureate address at 10 a.m. in Brown Hall Auditorium.

Dr. Hunter, who assumed the presidency of LSU in February of this year, is a native Louisianian.

Born in Donner, he is well-known in educational circles, especially among education administrators and teachers. He writes a monthly column on school law and general education information for "The Boardman," the official journal of the Louisiana School Boards Association.

The 48-year-old educator is a graduate of Davidson College, North Carolina. He received a Master of Arts degree at LSU in 1947 and the Ph. D. degree in 1949 following an exhaustive study of the legal status and social composition of Louisiana Parish School Boards.

MILITARY ACADEMY

Prior to joining LSU, Dr. Hunter served as an instructor and commandant at Gulf Coast Military Academy, worked as a geophysicist at Stanolind Oil and Gas Company, was educational advisor for the Civilian Conservation Corps, served in the U. S. Navy during World War II and as director of classified personnel at LSU. He was supervisor in the Louisiana State Department of Education from 1949 to 1951 and became registrar and associate professor of education at LSU in 1951.

Dr. Hunter was promoted to Dean of the Junior Division in 1956 and in 1959 was named Dean of Student Services and professor of education.

He has served as the chairman of the junior college committee and screening committee for accreditation of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and is now a member of the executive committee, the commission on colleges and universities and chairman of the committee to study standards of personnel services.

While serving as LSU's registrar, he was president of the Southern Association of the Registrars and Admissions Officers and the Louisiana Registrars' Association.

He is also a member of the Louisiana Commission on the Aging Advisory Committee and is a member of the executive committee of the Board of Control for Southern Regional Education.

He aslo has served on the Board's committee on education beyond high school, the Louisiana selection committee on Fulbright Scholarships and numerous other educational organizations.

He is listed in "Who's Who in America," Who's Who in the South and Southwest," and in the "Directory of College Presidents and Deans."

Pankey Named For Acquatics At Scout School

Ouachita Valley Council scout executive Jack E. Pankey of Monroe has been selected to direct this year's aquatic section at the annual Boy Scouts National Camping School at Camp Yocona near Pontotoc, Miss.

Pankey has directed the aquatic school for the past 10 years and has served on its staff each year since 1942. He left early Thursday with his son, Jack H. Pankey, a member of the aquatic staff, to complete preparations and faculty training.

The school will train young scouting leaders from all over 11 south and southeastern states in the development and instruction of swimming skills.

Certificates, valid for five year periods, will be issued each man upon satisfactory completion of the course. Available at the school will be similar certificates in camp management, scoutcraft activities, conservation, handicraft, riflery, archery, fishing, boating, canoeing, lifesaving and aquatic administration.

MARKS GRANT'S MARCH

Ceremonies To Inaugurate Centennial Are Set Today

TALLULAH (Special) — Ceremonies will get under way here at 10 a.m. today as governors of three states and numerous other dignitaries trace the route of U. S. Grant's march on Vicksburg.

Gov. Ross R. Barnett of Mississippi will deliver an address at the Madison Parish Courthouse here at 10 a.m., and Lt. Gov. C. C. Aycock, representing Gov. Jimmie Davis of Louisiana will give a speech at the National Military Park in Vicksburg at 3 p.m.

Also participating in festivities will be Gov. Matthew Welsh of Indiana, who Friday returned a Mississippi Confederate battle flag that had been found in his home state.

At 11 a.m., a motorcade will procede to Milliken's Bend, symbolic of Grant's route of march down the west bank of the Mississippi River.

NOON LUNCHEON

At noon, a luncheon for governors and guests will be held at the Old Southern Tea Room at Vicksburg.

A Louisiana - Mississippi Parade will wind through downtown Vicksburg at 4:30 p.m., featuring Confederate - uniformed marchers.

A fireworks display will be set off at 8 p.m. and at 9:30 p.m. the Confederate Ball will be presented.

Crescent Plantation, the only plantation home not destroyed by Grant's troops, will be open to the public between the hours of 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. The home is located about three miles east of Tallulah.

Dr. T. Harry Williams, LSU history professor, author and vice chairman of the Louisiana Civil War Centennial, will make the principal address at Milliken's Bend.

W. P. Sevier Jr., mayor of Tallulah, will be master of ceremonies at Tallulah and Henry C. Sevier Jr. will be master of ceremonies at Milliken's Bend.

Other participating in activities today will be Gen. W. P. Wilson, adjuntant general of Mississippi, Louisiana Highways chief Ray W. Burgess, Sen. Sylvan Friedman of Red River Parish, chairman of the Lovely Louisiana Association and chairman of the Louisiana Civil War Centennial Commission and Sidney Roebuck, vice chairman of the Mississippi Civil War Centennial Commission.

Band music prior to 10 a.m. at the courthouse at Tallulah will be furnished by Tallulah, Newellton and St. Aloysius of Vicksburg high school bands.

Aycock Slated To Represent Davis At Event

BATON ROUGE (Staff Special)—Lt. Gov. C. C. (Taddy) Aycock will represent Gov. Jimmie H. Davis today at Tallulah and Vicksburg, Miss. at special Civil War commemoration ceremonies.

Davis flew to Hot Springs, Ark., shortly after the Senate adjourned Friday to address the Arkansas Peace Officers. He originally planned to attend the Civil War events at Tallualh.

Aycock will be accompanied by Sen. Sylvan Friedman, president pro-term of the Senate, of Natchez, La.

Governors Ross Barnett of Mississippi and Matthew F. Welsh of Indiana will take part in the activities starting at 10 a.m. at the Madison Parish Courthouse.

Aycock will speak at the Vicksburg National Military Park in afternoon ceremonies in honor of the Confederate soldiers who fought in defense of Vicksburg.

Stocks Close Lower After Profit Taking

Prices declined in the morning, recovered in the afternoon but came a cropper on a round of pre-weekend profit-taking in the final hour.

Tickers, which ran as much as 19 minutes behind floor transactions early in the session, caught up in the third hour to give the exchange its first breather in four days. Trading totaled 5,760,000 shares — well under the 10,710,000 in the previous day.

A broad total of 1,335 issues changed hands of which 556 declined and 554 declined and 554 advanced. Of these 24 hit new 1962 lows and only 3 new highs.

DuPont featured with a gain of 3 after announcing plans for a divesture of 36 per cent of its General Motors stock holdings. For its part, GM slipped fractionally.

Steels were lower with U.S. Steel off 1⅝, Republic 1⅜, and Jones & Laughlin 1⅛. Ford tacked on ⅞ in the motors after reporting its May auto output at the highest since 1955.

Among the blue chips, American Telephone, International Harvester, Owens - Illinois Glass, Procter & Gamble and Johns-Manville slipped 1 or more — the last after a federal grand jury indicted the company on charges of violating the anti-trust laws in efforts to monopolize the manufacture of asbestos cement pipe and coupling.

The D-J rails shed 0.29 partly reflecting a loss of 1 in Norfolk & Western. Utilities, however, rose 0.42 — chiefly on gains of 1 or more in American Electric Power and Detroit Edison.

American Telephone topped the most active list with a turnover of 100,700. This was followed by Brunswick off ¼, U. S. Steel, General Motors, and then General Telephone off ⅜.

Prices on the American Exchange were mixed on a turnover of 1,500,000 shares compared with 2,840,000 in the previous session. Featured on the AMEX were Aerojet General off 1, Reliance Insurance down 1½, and Syntex down 1.

Woman Enters Congress Race

ALEXANDRIA, La. (AP) — A woman Republican candidate, believed the first since Reconstruction, qualified here Friday to run for eighth congressional district representative.

Mrs. Dorothy Lewis, Republican national committeewoman for the state, filed with George Hall, chairman of the district Republican executive committee.

Mrs. Lewis is the wife of Jack Lewis, Alexandria postmaster.

If unopposed in her party, she will face the winner of the Democratic primary which has five hopefuls, incumbent Rep. Harold McSween, James Long of Winnfield, Gillis Long of Alexandria, state Rep. Robert Munson of Cheneyville and William Lambdin, Alexandria commissioner of streets and parks.

VACATION $

NEW YORK (UPI) — American Express says its latest travel poll indicates Americans will spend $23.2 billion on their domestic summer vacations this year.

Last year, the big travel firm said, the expenditure for vacation hotels, motels, food, transporatation, auto upkeep, admission fees and recreation was $22.5 billion.

INDIVIDUAL AMERICAN

Chance Of Bone Cancer Is Set At One-In-300

WASHINGTON (AP) — Individual Americans have at worst — a one-in-300,000 risk of developing bone cancer and a one-in-100,000 hazard of developing leukemia from the fallout of all nuclear tests through 1961, a government study reported Friday.

Indeed, said the report by the Federal Radiation Council, there's even a possibility that no cancerous or other physical ills will occur due to exposure to fallout.

However, the report said some hereditary effects on the next and succeeding generations could be expected.

But, here again, the individual risk is rated low in terms of the total population—specifically, at one in a million for an individual of the next generaton.

Genetic risks would include the hazard of developing such ailments as congenital malformations, blindness, deafness, feeblemindedness, muscular dystrophy, hemophilia and mental incapacity.

The estimated extent of risk is set forth in a document rounding up what federation spokesman said is the best available scientific information from both national and international groups concerned with the fallout situation.

The long report represents the first presentation by a government agency of actual estimates on the number of cases of specific ills and hereditary ills that might be expected in the American population for many years to come.

As regards physical ills that might occur among people directly exposed to the fallout the numbers cover a period of the next 70 years.

As regards genetic effects the figures cover "all future generations" in the United States.

At a backgrounding session for reporters in connection with issuance of the report, some top government fallout experts though declining attribution by name reported:

1. The fallout from last fall's Soviet tests has not been coming to earth in the quantities expected even as recently as 3½ months ago. At least half of the original amount is still in the stratosphere.

This suggests three possibilities:

—The Soviet devices were not as dirty from the radioactive standpoint as American experts even now still presume they were.

b—Many of the Soviet blasts were at such high altitudes that much of the fallout would take longer than expected to come to earth—meanwhile losing some of its radioactive punch.

c—Meteorological conditions may have slowed descent of the fallout—which also would lessen the radioactive perils.

2. The current American series will contribute substantially less to the potential radiation dose than did the Soviet series of last fall.

The general conclusion of the report:

"We cannot say with certainty what health hazards are caused by fallout from nuclear testing. We expect there will be some genetic effects; other effects such as leukemia and cancer are more speculative and may not occur at all.

"We can observe that, compared to the number of these same adverse biological effects occurring wholly apart from testing, the additional cases that might be caused by testing are a very small quantity."

The report said testing through 1961 will, over the next 30 years, increase radiation exposures above natural background radiation—such as from radium in the earth and cosmic rays—by less than 5 per cent.

Average doses delivered over the period of the next 70 years will represent an increase of less than 10 per cent over natural background doses.

Here are the estimated figures on the number of cases of leukemia and bone cancer that might be expected in the next 70 years in the United States:

Leukemia: Anywhere from zero cases to 2,000—compared with a total of 840,000 cases from all causes during such a span.

Bone cancer: Anywhere from zero cases to 700 over the 70-year span due to fallout, compared with 140,000 such cases from fallout among children of persons now alive, plus between two and 50 cases among the same group from radioactive carbon-14. The latter is not a component of fallout, but is produced in the atmosphere by the effects of nuclear rays from detonated nuclear devices.

The figures compare with an estimate of between four million and six million cases of gross physical or mental defects due to all causes which can be expected to occur in children of persons now living.

Clarence Faulk Announces Sale Of Daily Leader

RUSTON (Special)—Sale of the Ruston Daily Leader to Tom Kelly and Associates was announced Friday by Clarence Faulk, publisher since 1931.

Kelly, born and reared in north Louisiana, has served as editor and assistant to the publisher of the Jennings Daily News for the past two and one-half years.

A native of Winn Parish, Kelly graduated from high school at Dodson and is a graduate of Northwestern State College at Natchitoches.

He has newspapered in his home parish at Winnfield and at Sevierville, Tenn., Gladewater, Tex., and Natchitoches, in addition to Jennings, holding positions in both advertising and news departments.

As a reporter and editor, he has won awards in news, editorial, photography and column-writing competition.

Control of the Lincoln Parish daily and the allied weekly newspaper and commercial printing plant passed to the new owners, known as Ruston Publishers, Inc., Friday.

Faulk, who has published the 67-year-old daily newspaper since 1931, purchased a minor interest in the new company which will direct future publication.

Kelly also announced his other associates as Robert D. Miller, publisher of the Jennings Daily News and present president of the Louisiana Daily Press Association; Jay E. Steinberg, publisher of the Erwin, Tenn., Record and Robert H. Fackleman, Panama City, Fla., president of Gulf Coast Newspaper Service Co., Inc.

Walker, president, in the convocation Friday afternoon that honored persons for whom buildings and drives were named and legislators who authored legislation effecting development of the College. Also receiving a special certificate for outstanding contribution for 30 years of service at the College was Dr. William R. Hammond, dean of the division of liberal arts. These special awards came after Dr. Walker had presented certificates of recognition to the legislators. (Staff Photo by John Fogleman)

FRIDAY CONVOCATION

Northeast State Honors Namesakes, Legislators

Pascal Norris, prominent Monroe attorney, spoke at a convocation at Northeast Louisiana State College on Friday afternoon as the College honored persons for whom buildings and drives have been named and authors and co-authors of legislation effecting the development of Northeast.

Norris asked his audience to preserve and cultivate Western civilization based on belief in God, spiritual and other freedoms, the free enterprise system, and the greatness of America. He said that the future lies in the hands of teachers and charged teachers everywhere to stand fast in upholding strict rules of scholarship. He said that the purpose of education is intellectual cultivation of the mind — that education is the one element which will preserve and cultivate Western civilization.

RECOGNIZE SOLONS

Dr. George T. Walker, president of NLSC, recognized the authors and co-authors of legislation effecting the development of Northeast. Specifically cited with special certificates were Senator W. C. Boone, Senator (later Governor) James A. Noe, Rep. T. J. Coenen Sr. (deceased), Senator John F. McCormick, Senator Ralph King, Senator Brooks Oliver, Rep. Lawrence Gibbs, Rep. Mike John Jr., and Senator Jamar W. Adcock.

Mrs. Adcock accepted the certificate on behalf of her husband, who was in Baton Rouge in a meeting of the Senate. William Robert Coenen, son of the late T. J. Coenen, accepted the certificate posthumously. Senator Boone was not in attendance due to poor health.

Also honored were persons for whom buuildings and drives have been named. They were Joseph Augustus Biedenharn, John Louis Alexender de Breard, Henry Bry, Stephen Adolphus Caldwell, Anna Gray Cosper, Don Juan Filhiol, Franklin Garrett, Andrew Augustus Gunby, Susan West Harris, Henry Flood Madison Sr., William Rufus Mitchell, James Wil-Percy Sandel Sr., and Francis Peter Stubbs.

T. O. Brown Hall and Brown Stadium had been dedicated in earlier ceremonies.

Rabbi Martin I. Silverman, Temple B'Nai Israel, gave the invocation and benediction. Larry Wilson, NLSC student, gave a reading of Stephen Spender's "I Think Continually of Those Who Were Truly Great."

The Northeast Choir, directed by Davis Bingham, rendered "Awake, Oh North Wind" and "Set Me As A Seal Upon Thine Heart." Mrs. Florence Z. Allbritton, associate professor of music, played "Commemoration March" on the organ in accompaniment of the academic procession.

DESIGN 'INSTANT SCHOOL'

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (UPK) — Two members of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology architecture department faculty have designed an "instant schoolhouse." The building, made of pre - fabricated fiberglass on plywood panels, can be adapted to any need, expanded, converted, even taken apart and reassembled at a new location. The flexible structure is put together by bolting the panels to four-armed columns, called "trees."

NEXT SATURDAY

Commencement Set At Northeast State

Dr. John A. Hunter, president of Louisiana State University, will make the commencement address in spring exercises Saturday, June 2, at Northeast Louisiana State College.

Commencement exercises will be held on the lawn of the President's Home at 6:30 p.m.

Dr. H. Leo Eddleman, president of the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary of New Orleans, will make the baccalaureate address at 10 a.m. in Brown Hall Auditorium.

Dr. Hunter, who assumed the presidency of LSU in February of this year, is a native Louisianian.

Born in Donner, he is well-known in educational circles, especially among education administrators and teachers. He writes a monthly column on school law and general education information for "The Boardman," the official journal of the Louisiana School Boards Association.

The 48 - year - old educator is a graduate of Davidson College, North Carolina. He received a Master of Arts degree at LSU in 1947 and the Ph. D. degree in 1949 following an exhaustive study of the legal status and social composition of Louisiana Parish School Boards.

MILITARY ACADEMY

Prior to joining LSU, Dr. Hunter served as an instructor and commandant at Gulf Coast Military Academy, worked as a geophysicist at Stanolind Oil and Gas Company, was educational advisor for the Civilian Conservation Corps, served in the U. S. Navy during World War II and as director of classified personnel at LSU. He was supervisor in the Louisiana State Department of Education from 1949 to 1951 and became registrar and associate professor of education at LSU in 1951.

Dr. Hunter was promoted to Dean of the Junior Division in 1956 and in 1959 was named Dean of Student Services and professor of education.

He has served as the chairman of the junior college committee and screening committee for accreditation of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and is now a member of the executive committee, the commission on colleges and universities and chairman of the committee to study standards of personnel services.

While serving as LSU's registrar, he was president of the Southern Association of the Registrars and Admissions Officers and the Louisiana Registrars' Association.

He is also a member of the Louisiana Commission on the Aging Advisory Committee and is a member of the executive committee of the Board of Control for Southern Regional Education.

He aslo has served on the Board's committee on education beyond high school, the Louisiana selection committee on Fulbright Scholarships and numerous other educational organizations.

He is listed in "Who's Who in America," Who's Who in the South and Southwest," and in the "Directory of College Presidents and Deans."

Pankey Named For Acquatics At Scout School

Ouachita Valley Council scout executive Jack E. Pankey of Monroe has been selected to direct this year's aquatic section at the annual Boy Scouts National Camping School at Camp Yocona near Pontotoc, Miss.

Pankey has directed the aquatic school for the past 10 years and has served on its staff each year since 1942. He left early Thursday with his son, Jack H. Pankey, a member of the aquatic staff, to complete preparations and faculty training.

The school will train young scouting leaders from all over 11 south and southeastern states in the development and instruction of swimming skills.

Certificates, valid for five year periods, will be issued each man upon satisfactory completion of the course. Available at the school will be similar certificates in camp management, scoutcraft activities, conservation, handicraft, riflery, archery, fishing, boating, canoeing, lifesaving and aquatic administration.

MARKS GRANT'S MARCH

Ceremonies To Inaugurate Centennial Are Set Today

TALLULAH (Special) — Ceremonies will get under way here at 10 a.m. today as governors of three states and numerous other dignitaries trace the route of U. S. Grant's march on Vicksburg.

Gov. Ross R. Barnett of Mississippi will deliver an address at the Madison Parish Courthouse here at 10 a.m., and Lt. Gov. C. C. Aycock, representing Gov. Jimmie Davis of Louisiana will give a speech at the National Military Park in Vicksburg at 3 p.m.

Also participating in festivities will be Gov. Matthew Welsh of Indiana, who Friday returned a Mississippi Confederate battle flag that had been found in his home state.

At 11 a.m., a motorcade will procede to Milliken's Bend, symbolic of Grant's route of march down the west bank of the Mississippi River.

NOON LUNCHEON

At noon, a luncheon for governors and guests will be held at the Old Southern Tea Room at Vicksburg.

A Louisiana - Mississippi Parade will wind through downtown Vicksburg at 4:30 p.m., featuring Confederate - uniformed marchers.

A fireworks display will be set off at 8 p.m. and at 9:30 p.m. the Confederate Ball will be presented.

Crescent Plantation, the only plantation home not destroyed by Grant's troops, will be open to the public between the hours of 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. The home is located about three miles east of Tallulah.

Dr. T. Harry Williams, LSU history professor, author and vice chairman of the Louisiana Civil War Centennial, will make the principal address at Milliken's Bend.

W. P. Sevier Jr., mayor of Tallulah, will be master of ceremonies at Tallulah and Henry C. Sevier Jr. will be master of ceremonies at Milliken's Bend.

Other participating in activities today will be Gen. W. P. Wilson, adjuntant general of Mississippi, Louisiana Highways chief Ray W. Burgess, Sen. Sylvan Friedman of Red River Parish, chairman of the Lovely Louisiana Association and chairman of the Louisiana Civil War Centennial Commission and Sidney Roebuck, vice chairman of the Mississippi Civil War Centennial Commission.

Band music prior to 10 a.m. at the courthouse at Tallulah will be furnished by Tallulah, Newellton and St. Aloysius of Vicksburg high school bands.

VACATION $

NEW YORK (UPI) — American Express says its latest travel poll indicates Americans will spend $23.2 billion on their domestic summer vacations this year. a

Last year, the big travel firm said, the expenditure for vacation hotels, motels, food, transporatation, auto upkeep, admission fees and recreation was $22.5 billion.

Stocks Close Lower After Profit Taking

Prices declined in the morning, recovered in the afternoon but came a cropper on a round of pre-weekend profit-taking in the final hour.

Tickers, which ran as much as 19 minutes behind floor transactions early in the session, caught up in the third hour to give the exchange its first breather in four days. Trading totaled 5,760,000 shares — well under the 10,710,000 in the previous day.

A broad total of 1,335 issues changed hands of which 556 declined and 554 declined and 554 advanced. Of these 24 hit new 1962 lows and only 3 new highs.

DuPont featured with a gain of 3 after announcing plans for a divesture of 36 per cent of its General Motors stock holdings. For its part, GM slipped fractionally.

Steels were lower with U.S. Steel off 1⅝, Republic 1⅜, and Jones & Laughlin 1⅛. Ford tacked on ⅞ in the motors after reporting its May auto output at the highest since 1955.

Among the blue chips, American Telephone, International Harvester, Owens - Illinois Glass, Procter & Gamble and Johns-Manville slipped 1 or more — the last after a federal grand jury indicted the company on charges of violating the anti-trust laws in efforts to monopolize the manufacture of asbestos cement pipe and coupling.

The D-J rails shed 0.29 partly reflecting a loss of 1 in Norfolk & Western. Utilities, however, rose 0.42 — chiefly on gains of 1 or more in American Electric Power and Detroit Edison.

American Telephone topped the most active list with a turnover of 100,700. This was followed by Brunswick off ¼, U. S. Steel, General Motors, and then General Telephone off ⅜.

Prices on the American Exchange were mixed on a turnover of 1,500,000 shares compared with 2,840,000 in the previous session. Featured on the AMEX were Aerojet General off 1, Reliance Insurance down 1½, and Syntex down 1.

Aycock Slated To Represent Davis At Event

BATON ROUGE (Staff Special)—Lt. Gov. C. C. (Taddy) Aycock will represent Gov. Jimmie H. Davis today at Tallulah and Vicksburg, Miss. at special Civil War commemoration ceremonies.

Davis flew to Hot Springs, Ark., shortly after the Senate adjourned Friday to address the Arkansas Peace Officers. He originally planned to attend the Civil War events at Talluah.

Aycock will be accompanied by Sen. Sylvan Friedman, president pro-term of the Senate, of Natchez, La.

Governors Ross Barnett of Mississippi and Matthew F. Welsh of Indiana will take part in the activities starting at 10 a.m. at the Madison Parish Courthouse.

Aycock will speak at the Vicksburg National Military Park in afternoon ceremonies in honor of the Confederate soldiers who fought in defense of Vicksburg.

Woman Enters Congress Race

ALEXANDRIA, La. (AP) — A woman Republican candidate, believed the first since Reconstruction, qualified here Friday to run for eighth congressional district representative.

Mrs. Dorothy Lewis, Republican national committeewoman for the state, filed with George Hall, chairman of the district Republican executive committee.

Mrs. Lewis is the wife of Jack Lewis, Alexandria postmaster.

If unopposed in her party, she will face the winner of the Democratic primary which has five hopefuls, incumbent Rep. Harold McSween, James Long of Winnfield, Gillis Long of Alexandria, state Rep. Robert Munson of Cheneyville and William Lambdin, Alexandria commissioner of streets and parks.

British Chief, De Gaulle To Hold Talks

PARIS (UPI) — French President Charles de Gaulle and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan will seek this weekend to iron out Anglo-French disagreements in the European Common Market and review France's efforts to become a nuclear power.

They also will make a broad study of the current cold war situation and problems of the Atlantic Alliance.

The two leaders will meet privately for 24 hours at the historic Chateau of Champs, about 25 miles south-east of Paris.

Macmillan, accompanied only by his wife, Lady Dorothy, and his private secretary, Philip de Zulueta, will arrive Saturday and return to London Sunday.

Their conversation is to be completely private and informal, without any regular agenda. No communique is expected to be issued to be revealed about what took place.

But officials predicted these main issues will be discussed:

—Britain's request for Common Market membership. De Gaulle is expected to stress that France does not oppose this but insists Britain must accept the "club rules," which would mean ultimate abandonment of commonwealth preferential trade tariffs. Macmillan is expected to declare that Britain must have firm guarantees for its agriculture and for the special relations with the commonwealth.

Fire Destroys River Showboat

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UPI) — Fire Friday destroyed the Mississippi River showboat "Goldenrod," the historic floating theater on which novelist Edna Ferber got much of her inspiration and background for the novel "Showboat."

The blaze grounded an old-time melodrama cast that a few hours earlier had closed a presentation of "The Convict's Daughter" and was to open "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" Friday night.

The lone casualty in the fire was an 18-month-old dog named Fluffie that "belonged to the river."

CROSSETT, Ark. (Special) — A certificate of accreditation has been granted the Crossett Health Center by the joint commission on accreditation of hospitals. The accreditation is for a three-year period.

Candidates Listed

HODGE (Special) — Hodge's first town election June 12 will feature these candidates:

Agriculture Heads

SICILY ISLAND (Special) — Northeast Louisiana now holds the chairmanship of both legislative agricultural committees.

Latest leader is State Senator J. C. "Sonny" Gilbert, who was named head of the Senate agriculture committee.

Rep. Lantz Womack of Franklin Parish heads the House agriculture committee.

Homecoming

LARTO (Special) — Homecoming will get underway 10 a.m. Sunday at Larto Baptist Church, according to Rev. W. M. Carlin, pastor. A revival is currently in process.

Agreement Ends Western Union Walkout Threat

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tentative agreement on terms of a new two-year wage contract ended the threat Friday of a walkout of 24,000 employes of the Western Union Telegraph Co. outside New York City.

The agreement, subject to ratification by the employes sometime next week, was announced by representatives of the company and of the Commercial Telegraphers Union, AFL-CIO.

New York employes of the company are represented by the American Communications Association, whose members voted Friday to continue day-to-day negotiations toward a new contract.

The working agreements of both unions expired at midnight Thursday, but no strike was called.

Elmer L. Hageman, chairman of the CTU national bargaining committee, said his union's new agreement provides a 15-cents-an-hour package increase over the two-year period.

He said it provides an 11-cents-an-hour increase across the board, 4 cents of which will be effective immediately. This will cover all employes except walking, bicycle and motorcycle messengers.

Kimball Service Slated Sunday; Died On Friday

Mrs. Lula Harlen Kimball, 64, died early Friday afternoon in a Monroe hospital after a long illness. The widow of the late M. H. Kimball, Mrs. Kimball, of 2712 Gordon Ave., had been a local resident for the past 37 years where she was a member of the First Christian Church.

She was a native of Vicksburg, Miss.

Final rites will be conducted Sunday at 2:30 p.m. in the chapel of the Mulhearn Funeral Home with the Rev. John O. Stewart, pastor of Mrs. Kimball's church, officiating, assisted by the Rev. R. T. Watson.

Interment will follow in Memorial Park Cemetery.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Doris Kimball Pittman, Monroe; three sons, George W. Kimball, New Orleans, Jack E. Kimball, Monroe, and Chief M-Sgt. Harold B. Kimball, Barksdale Air Force Base; a brother, Jack Harlen, and two sisters, Mrs. Kate Lanier and Mrs. Ruby Sneed, all of Vicksburg; and nine grandchildren.

Solons To Quiz Ball On Censors

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Chairman John C. Stennis of the Senate subcommittee studying alleged military "muzzling" announced Friday that Undersecretary of State George Ball will be questioned Monday about deletions from speeches of military leaders.

The Mississippi Democrat noted that in testimony Feb. 27 Ball agreed to submit a report on the reasons for certain specific deletions and then answer questions about them. The report has been filed and will be the basis for the questioning.

Ball's offer came after President Kennedy instructed the state and defense departments not to let reviewers of specific speeches be questioned on specific speech deletions. He said such action was a part of the privileged activity of the chief executive.

Soviet Hikes Food Prices, Blames U.S.

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet Union Friday raised meat and butter prices by as much as 34 per cent and put some of the blame on alleged U.S. war preparations.

The Communist party Central Committee said the strains of the growing Soviet economy and "saber rattling" by the United States, which forced spending for military and not farm projects, were responsible.

But Western observers said the increases were an apparent public admission of the agricultural troubles Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev has been trying to correct by touring farm areas and firing incompetent officials.

Whatever the reason, the Soviet man in the street appeared resigned to the sudden rise in his cost of living.

"Sure, it's not easy, and I'll have more trouble feeding my family," one school teacher said. "We won't be able to have meat every day now. But we lived through difficulties during the war years, and what must be done, must be done."

Housewives who had heard rumors of the impending increase lined up outside food stores yesterday to stock up at lower prices. Butter sold at $1.45 a pound Thursday and $1.80 Friday. Ham prices rose from $1.45 to $1.85 a pound; sausage from 85 cents to $1.15; and turkey from $1.01 to $1.37.

But for many, the announcement printed in Friday's Pravda and broadcast by Moscow Radio was the first word. The people were told it was impossible to switch funds from defense to development of livestock production because of the international situation.

FBI Checking On Explosives In Air Disaster

Dealers in explosives and dynamite said they were contacted by federal agents about the case as early as last Monday, six days after the Boeing 707 was shattered in flight by an explosion and plunged 39,000 feet into a gully near Unionville, Mo. The lone survivor died within hours after the crash.

FBI agents have refused to discuss the crash or its investigation. The special agent in charge of the investigation, W. Mark Felt, was not available for comment Friday.

Authorities throughout the city and surrounding suburban areas said the FBI also was reviewing records of dynamite and explosives stolen in the area within the past several months.

Kidnapers Of Missionaries Sought

SAIGON (UPI) — South Vietnamese troops searched the dense rain forests of the central highlands Friday without finding a trace of three kidnaped American missionaries or the Communist guerrillas who abducted them from a leprosarium in that area 48 hours ago.

A spokesman for the South Viet Nam government said persuit of the kidnapers by troops of the Vietnamese 2nd Corps will continue under Gen. Ton That Dinh.

The three missionaries, including a woman doctor, were seized by communist Viet Cong forces at a leprosarium operated by the American Christian and Missionary Alliance 14 miles southwest of Ban Me Thuot. The locality is in the heart of the Communist - dominated central highlands area.

The kidnap victims are the Rev. Archie E. Mitchell, 44, of Ellenburg, Wash.; Dr. Eleanor Ardel Vietty, 34, of Houston, Tex., and Daniel Gerber of Dalton, Ohio.

A unit of the U. S. Army's special forces personnel is stationed near Ban Me Thuot in that area to teach South Vietnamese troops jungle-fighting techniques. The U. S. Embassy said it did not know if the Americans are taking part in the search, but one Embassy official presumed they are aiding.

British Chief, De Gaulle To Hold Talks

PARIS (UPI) — French President Charles de Gaulle and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan will seek this weekend to iron out Anglo-French disagreements in the European Common Market and review France's efforts to become a nuclear power.

They also will make a broad study of the current cold war situation and problems of the Atlantic Alliance.

The two leaders will meet privately for 24 hours at the historic Chateau of Champs, about 25 miles south-east of Paris.

Macmillan, accompanied only by his wife, Lady Dorothy, and his private secretary, Philip de Zulueta, will arrive Saturday and return to London Sunday.

Their conversation is to be completely private and informal, without any regular agenda. No communique is expected to be issued to be revealed about what took place.

But officials predicted these main issues will be discussed:

—Britain's request for Common Market membership. De Gaulle is expected to stress that France does not oppose this but insists Britain must accept the "club rules," which would mean ultimate abandonment of commonwealth preferential trade tariffs. Macmillan is expected to declare that Britain must have firm guarantees for its agriculture and for the special relations with the commonwealth.

Fire Destroys River Showboat

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UPI) — Fire Friday destroyed the Mississippi River showboat "Goldenrod," the historic floating theater on which novelist Edna Ferber got much of her inspiration and background for the novel "Showboat."

The blaze grounded an old-time melodrama cast that a few hours earlier had closed a presentation of "The Convict's Daughter" and was to open "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" Friday night.

The lone casualty in the fire was an 18-month-old dog named Fluffie that "belonged to the river."

Agreement Ends Western Union Walkout Threat

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tentative agreement on terms of a new two-year wage contract ended the threat Friday of a walkout of 24,000 employes of the Western Union Telegraph Co. outside New York City.

The agreement, subject to ratification by the employes sometime next week, was announced by representatives of the company and of the Commercial Telegraphers Union, AFL-CIO.

New York employes of the company are represented by the American Communications Association, whose members voted Friday to continue day-to-day negotiations toward a new contract.

The working agreements of both unions expired at midnight Thursday, but no strike was called.

Elmer L. Hageman, chairman of the CTU national bargaining committee, said his union's new agreement provides a 15-cents-an-hour package increase over the two-year period.

He said it provides an 11-cents-an-hour increase across the board, 4 cents of which will be effective immediately. This will cover all employes except walking, bicycle and motorcycle messengers.

Kimball Service Slated Sunday; Died On Friday

Mrs. Lula Harlen Kimball, 64, died early Friday afternoon in a Monroe hospital after a long illness. The widow of the late M. H. Kimball, Mrs. Kimball, of 2712 Gordon Ave., had been a local resident for the past 37 years where she was a member of the First Christian Church.

She was a native of Vicksburg, Miss.

Final rites will be conducted Sunday at 2:30 p.m. in the chapel of the Mulhearn Funeral Home with the Rev. John O. Stewart, pastor of Mrs. Kimball's church, officiating, assisted by the Rev. R. T. Watson.

Interment will follow in Memorial Park Cemetery.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Doris Kimball Pittman, Monroe; three sons, George W. Kimball, New Orleans, Jack E. Kimball, Monroe, and Chief M-Sgt. Harold B. Kimball, Barksdale Air Force Base; a brother, Jack Harlen, and two sisters, Mrs. Kate Lanier and Mrs. Ruby Sneed, all of Vicksburg; and nine grandchildren.

Solons To Quiz Ball On Censors

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Chairman John C. Stennis of the Senate subcommittee studying alleged military "muzzling" announced Friday that Undersecretary of State George Ball will be questioned Monday about deletions from speeches of military leaders.

The Mississippi Democrat noted that in testimony Feb. 27. Ball agreed to submit a report on the reasons for certain specific delections and then answer questions about them. The report has been filed and will be the basis for the questioning.

Ball's offer came after President Kennedy instructed the state and defense departments not to let reviewers of specific speeches be questioned on specific speech deletions. He said such action was a part of the privileged activity of the chief executive.

Soviet Hikes Food Prices, Blames U.S.

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet Union Friday raised meat and butter prices by as much as 34 per cent and put some of the blame on alleged U.S. war preparations.

The Communist party Central Committee said the strains of the growing Soviet economy and "saber rattling" by the United States, which forced spending for military and not farm projects, were responsible.

But Western observers said the increases were an apparent public admission of the agricultural troubles Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev has been trying to correct by touring farm areas and firing incompetent officials.

Whatever the reason, the Soviet man in the street appeared resigned to the sudden rise in his cost of living.

"Sure, it's not easy, and I'll have more trouble feeding my family," one school teacher said. "We won't be able to have meat every day now. But we lived through difficulties during the war years, and what must be done, must be done."

Housewives who had heard rumors of the impending increase lined up outside food stores yesterday to stock up at lower prices. Butter sold at $1.45 a pound Thursday and $1.80 Friday. Ham prices rose from $1.45 to $1.85 a pound; sausage from 85 cents to $1.15; and turkey from $1.01 to $1.37.

But for many, the announcement printed in Friday's Pravda and broadcast by Moscow Radio was the first word. The people were told it was impossible to switch funds from defense to development of livestock production because of the international situation.

FBI Checking On Explosives In Air Disaster

Dealers in explosives and dynamite said they were contacted by federal agents about the case as early as last Monday, six days after the Boeing 707 was shattered in flight by an explosion and plunged 39,000 feet into a gully near Unionville, Mo. The lone survivor died within hours after the crash.

FBI agents have refused to discuss the crash or its investigation. The special agent in charge of the investigation, W. Mark Felt, was not available for comment Friday.

Authorities throughout the city and surrounding suburban areas said the FBI also was reviewing records of dynamite and explosives stolen in the area within the past several months.

Kidnapers Of Missionaries Sought

SAIGON (UPI) — South Vietnamese troops searched the dense rain forests of the central highlands Friday without finding a trace of three kidnaped American missionaries or the Communist guerrillas who abducted them from a leprosarium in that area 48 hours ago.

A spokesman for the South Viet Nam government said persuit of the kidnapers by troops of the Vietnamese 2nd Corps will continue under Gen. Ton That Dinh.

The three missionaries, including a woman doctor, were seized by communist Viet Cong forces at a leprosarium operated by the American Christian and Missionary Alliance 14 miles southwest of Ban Me Thuot. The locality is in the heart of the Communist - dominated central highlands area.

The kidnap victims are the Rev. Archie E. Mitchell, 44, of Ellenburg, Wash.; Dr. Eleanor Ardel Vietty, 34, of Houston, Tex., and Daniel Gerber of Dalton, Ohio.

A unit of the U. S. Army's special forces personnel is stationed near Ban Me Thuot in that area to teach South Vietnamese troops jungle-fighting techniques. The U. S. Embassy said it did not know if the Americans are taking part in the search, but one Embassy official presumed they are aiding.

'No Milk Legislation'

If a prediction made by Louisiana Congressman Harold B. McSween is true, no new milk legislation of any kind will be passed by congress this year. If this is true, Louisiana, and particularly its dairymen, will have one thing to be thankful for in regard to the proposed strangling farm legislation, although nearly all other phases of the bill also are objectionable.

As pointed out by State Representative Robert Munson of Cheneyville, however, Louisiana's two senators, Allen Ellender and Russell Long, have dealt their constituents "a slap in the face," by their action on the measure.

Munson pointed out that the two Louisiana senators supported President Kennedy's socialistic and confiscatory farm bill although the Louisiana legislature shortly before had adopted a resolution opposing the bill in its present form and asking the congressmen to vote against it. It is difficult to see how Ellender and Long could have gone contrary to the wishes of the people of this state if they had sat up nights trying to think of ways to displease their constituents.

Regarding a resolution putting the legislature on record against the farm bill, which provides for controls on wheat, corn and other grain, Munson said:

"On Friday of that same week the U. S. Senate adopted this farm bill by a vote of 42-38, with our senior senator providing the leadership to pass it. On that same day and in this chamber our junior senator defended this legislation, saying that only the corn farmers were opposed to it."

Munson, a farmer, went on to quote from the Congressional Record in which it was brought out that the bill contains provisions for integrated recreational facilities.

"Another part of this bill," Munson said, "that is aimed at Louisiana is that the cross-compliance in the proposed bill strips us of our natural advantage by forcing us to come under strict government regulation and cuts our production and income on a variety of crops."

Under the bill, Munson contended, Louisiana farmers would not be allowed price supports on sugar cane, rice and cotton, the state's three main crops.

Representative McSween, who cast a vote in favor of the farm bill and is trying to stem the resulting criticism, said the administration's request for milk producer marketing allotments would be disapproved. "The milk section still left in the committee bill will be deleted," he stated. "No new milk legislation of any kind will pass congress this year, regardless of what is done about wheat and feed grains," McSween said.

It is difficult to imagine how either recreation or integration could be a part of a farm control measure but the whole objective of the Kennedy administration seems to be to make all legislation so intermeshed that it will be impossible to separate any phase of it and consider it on its own merits.

If Senators Ellender and Long were giving their constituents "a slap in the face" because they believed the best interests of Louisiana were against the best interests of the nation as a whole there might be some justification for their going against the wishes of their people. In regard to the farm bill, however, both Louisiana and the nation as a whole would be harmed and endangered by the present farm bill.

The measure constitutes one of the most serious threats to free enterprise that has ever been devised in this country. Therefore the votes and influence of Senators Ellender and Long on this matter are deplorable.

Division In Europe

While the signing away of the North African French colonies has brought about turmoil in that portion of the world, President De Gaulle has also given indications of differences of opinion concerning the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Carried too far, this could result in a divided northern Europe and a military break with the United States. This must not be if the western nations are to maintain any satisfactory defense against the Soviets.

The French president has earned the reputation of the "tough line" in talking to the communists—or in refusing to talk to them. This has appealed to many quarters in the United States as well as to German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer. British Prime Minister Macmillan and President Kennedy have adapted a more flexible position in negotiations with the Russians.

There is no danger in this unless President De Gaulle presses his desire to lead continental Europe with the English speaking nations left on the outside. To do this, he would have to solicit the aid of West Germany.

The "tough line" against Khruschev has brought the two elderly leaders of France and West Germany closer together in recent months. There is also the economic potential of the European Common Market.

But if Germany tries to "go it alone" with France, it will be at a great risk and a great cost—even if the "cold war" never grows hot in Europe. Economic conditions in both France and Germany would suffer limitations, especially in the field of exports and imports.

There is no reason to think the "De Gaullist Europe" plan will be the center of policy for West Germany among Dr. Adenauer's successors. Foreign Minister Schroeder has already announced he would seek admission for Britain in any future military or economic arrangement.

As for the United States, any Franco - German move to "go it alone" would confuse our military commitments on the continent of Europe. Even Chancellor Adenauer, following his critical remarks on U. S. foreign policy last month, said:

"We must under no circumstances release the United States from the defense community. Without the United States we are lost."

With the ability of free nations to express themselves, there is apt to be continued bickering among the western allies as to which is the best path to follow for peace, prosperity and security.

But one fact must be made plain to France as well as to West Germany, Britain and the United States. The differences among the western democratic republics is nothing like the clash of ideology between the West and the Soviet bloc. If we cannot settle our differences, they stand ready to offer their system as a permanent solution.

Congress For Whole Year?

Some Believe Continuous Session Might Help Democrats Hold Down Republican Off-Year Gains

Some Democratic members of Congress are now saying that Congress is likely to continue in session the balance of the year and think it might increase Democratic chances to hold down Republican November gains, if it did. Image of a member of Congress doing his job in Washington could be more effective than member's presence of the stump in his State or District. Most Congress members, however, expect to see the session adjourn shortly after Labor Day, or by October 1 at latest. But no one any longer intertains any idea that the big legislative jam can be cleared up in time to permit a mid - summer adjournment, which heretofore has been customary in election years.

REPUBLICAN ALLEGATIONS —Senate Republicans make and will try to prove in the Senate investigation three allegations of favoritism by the Department of Agriculture toward Billie Sol Estes, the Texas manipulator: (1) Allocated to Estes' elevators as inordinate amount of the Government's stored grain under a smaller bond that was warranted. (2) Move, at taxpayer's expense amounting to several hundred thousands dollars of freight charges, grain from Kansas and other States to Estes "out of position" Texas elevators; (3) Irregularities in allowing Estes to acquire cotton acreage allotments and permitting his appointment to the National Cotton Advisory Committee. They will also try to prove what Estes did in return to motivate these favors.

TAX BILL PROSPECTS — The view is widely held that if the Senate defeats the withholding taxes on dividend and interest income provision in the Administration tax bill as now seems probable there will be no tax bill at all at this session of Congress. Chairman Wilbur Mills of House Ways and Means Committee is determined that the withholding provision be included. But recent grass roots revolt against the plan was weakened its overall strength in the House. Eventual choice of Congress will be a greatly water-down version of the original Administration proposal of no tax bill at all.

KENNEDY PLUSES AND MINUSES — President Kennedy after 16 months in office finds this score: Popularity with people, as shown by public opinion polls, is very high, although it has fallen sharply since the President's strong action to force a rescinding of the steel price rise; Congress allowing key Administration legislation to get into a log jam; Western Europe apparently pulling away from United States leadership, after following it for close to two decades.

TOO MUCH STORAGE SPACE —Look for Small Business Administration to come under Congressional attack for continued loans for building of grain elevators in the face of lessening need for such facilities. Estes scandal has emphasized that elevator building spree vastly overbuilt elevators. Yet SBA continues to make loans. Effect of enactment of Administration farm bill would be to cut back crop production and storage of grain. There are more than 8,000 grain elevators in the nation, many of which are in a financial squeeze.

BUDGET IN 1963 — Although Treasury Department continues to stick to its official statement that there will be a surplus of income over expenditures in 1963 fiscal year which begins July 1 high Treasury officials say that Senator Harry F. Byrd is correct in predicting a deficit of up to $6,000,000,000. Reason: Tax collections will fail to meet expectations, expenditures will be greater than budgeted.

IRREPRESSIBLE, "HAPPY" —Albert B. (Happy) Chandler, once United States Senator, former Commissioner of Baseball and twice Governor will be a candidate for an unprecedented third 4 - year term of Governor of Kentucky in 1963. Already "ABC in '63' " placards are appearing on Blue Grass State automobiles. Governor Bert T. Combs, Kentucky Governor who is barred by his State's Constitution from immediately succeeding himself, is backing Edward T. Breathitt, Jr., for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination which Chandler seeks.

EXPECT THOMPSON VOTE— Although Representative Clark W. Thompson, Texas, newest member of the House Ways and Means Committee, has announced that he will not support the Kennedy Administration medicare under Social Security plan until the Kerr - Mills bill has had a more thorough trail, the Administration believes that Clark actually will be on its side when the vote is taken in Committee. Failing to get the bill to the House floor through Ways and Means Committee action, Administration strategists will attempt to attach it as a rider to some Senate bill.

SMOOTH PATH FOR ROCKY —New York Democratic organization leaders now see no chance of getting other than a "Going-through - the - motions" candidate against Governor Nelson A. Rockfeller in November. What they are now seeking is the best possible candidate vote - getter in an unattractive lot in an effort to hold down the gubernatorial majority of Rockefeller, who high Democrats think is almost sure to be the 1964 Republican Presidential nominee.

Reservation Stands

Connally Amendment Won't Be Repealed In Senate

WASHINGTON — Advocates of the so - called "World Peace Through Law" movement might as well forget about getting the United States Senate to repeal the Connally amendment to the 1946 United Nations charter.

The Connally amendment gives this country virtual veto power over the international tribunal's jurisdiction in cases involving the United States. This built-in reservation, sponsored by the former Texas Senator, has come under attack in recent years by liberal group s who feel it hurts United States prestige abroad.

Both the Kennedy and Eisenhower Administration's have endorsed the repeal move but apparently not to the extent it could carry in the Senate where it needs a two-thirds majority vote.

The 1960 Democratic convention in Los Angeles wrote a strong repeal plank in the party's platform and the President urged its approval during the campaign but, to date, nothing has come of it.

There is a resolution pending in the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to repeal the Connally amendment but no action on it is comtemplated this year.

Committee Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D., Ark., has taken the position that unless the Administration goes all out for the resolution there's no sense in even trying to get it out of committee.

Close as the repeal move ever came to seeing the light of day was in 1960 when the Committee actually held hearings on the resolution which was later shelved by a vote of 9 to 7.

Even had the Committee approved the resolution it was extremely doubtful it would have ever reached the floor of the Senate as it faced prolonged debate and eventual failure.

The average citizen might wonder why a proposal with so much influential backing as the Connally repeal should stand so little chance of passage.

To understand the pros and cons of the issue it is necessary to go into the history of the Connally reservation and the International Court of Justice, more commonly called the World Court.

The World Court was formed by the United Nations in 1945 to replace the defunct permanent court of International Justice. Under its charter, the 15 members of the court, which sits in the Hague, were to be selected by member Nations belonging to the U.N.

Since it was founded 17 years ago, only slightly more than half of the United Nation's 82 member countries have seen fit to even recognize its jurisdiction under any circumstances. The United States does recognize the court but with the reservation it can declare itself immune from the court should it so desire. Other Nations have similar reservations.

When the United Nation Charter was up for ratification in the Senate in August, 1945, Senator Tom Connally, D., Tex., Chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, offered his famous amendment from the floor. It was adopted by an overwhelming 51 to 12 vote.

Probably the main reason for the Senate's reluctance to place the United States under the compulsory jurisdiction of the court was the fact that Soviet Russia and Communist Poland, both which had judges on the newly-formed court, wouldn't even recognize its authority.

The Communist attitude toward the court was subsequently witnessed when the U.S.S.R., Chechoslovakia, Hungary and Bulgaria refused to go into court when the United States protested the unlawful shooting down of an American plane.

Since the Connally amendment went into effect the United States has never had occasion to invoke it but it almost did in 1958 in the celebrated Interhandel case.

In a suit against the United States before the Court, Switzerland contended that stock of the General Aniline and Film Company seized by this country in World War II, belonged to the Swiss firm of Interhandel. The United States countered that Interhandel was a front for the I. G. Farben firm of Germany.

Today is Saturday, June 2, the 153rd day of the year with 212 to follow.

The moon is new.

The morning stars are Mars, Jupiter and Saturn.

The evening star is Venus.

On this day in history:

In 1953, Queen Elizabeth II was crowned in Westminster Abbey, London, by the archbishop of Canterbury.

A thought for the day: The Russian novelist, Turgenev, said: "I agree with no man's opinions. I have some of my own."

Worse Schools

Those Operated By Government In Washington Not Up To Par

In the statistical name-calling on the subject of Federal aid to education, those who are for it have failed to make any real case. Locally-supported schools are building more classrooms and raising teachers' salaries faster than what President Kennedy has asked for. However, the argument — and the confusion — do not seem to stop but get worse. And no one has bothered to ask, "How does the Federal Government act when it is, in effect, a school board?" The answer is right at hand, for Uncle Sam runs the schools of Washington. What he does with them, moreover, just ain't good.

Don't take my word for this. A group of earnest high school students have been pounding the corridors of the House and Senate Office Buildings for weeks, button-holing harried legislators. The students have even testified before the House Appropriations subcommittee. They want better schools — the kind they would have if their parents had something to say to the local school board. But there is really no school board in Washington, when you get right down to it — only the vast, impersonal Federal bureaucracy and a Congress which has other things on its mind.

Here is what these students, who must look to the Federal Government for help since they live in a non-self-governing territory, have to say:

Elaine Gordon, who attends Chamberlain Vocational School, complains of what many "average students" must contend with "If he goes to Benning Elementary School, he may study in a classroom with falling plaster. Also, the furnace room floods during each rain or snow storm. Actually, however, a 6 or 7-year-old who attends school all day is fortunate. This means that he is not one of the 740 of his age who are still waiting to get into kindergarten. His older brothers and sisters might well be among the 2,000 students who are on part time because of tremendous overcrowding. At this rate, with the school population growing as it is, these students will be old enough to get into Congress before they have learned enough to get into college."

Robert Gordon, a student at Eastern High School, takes up the conditions at Phelps Vocational High School where the student must "change clothes in the boiler room and take gym in the hall; and if he wants to find a book to read for class, he must use the public library because there is no library in this school. Most of the D.C. high schools do not have a basic collection of books in their libraries."

Vera Rykoff, a student at Coolidge High School, has made a study of the textbook situation. One book still being used tells the bright young minds of Washington that "airplanes have been gradually conquering the earth. Airplanes have not only sailed over the oceans, but they have sailed around the earth. Of course, stops were frequently made for gasoline and oil." A textbook on "modern physics" is so far behind that it has not reached the electric refrigerator stage. It is still describing the old iceboxes.

And the condition of these textbooks is something to behold. At one school, a text is referred to as the "wreck" because copies issued are held together by rubber bands and in envelopes. Condemned books, falling apart at the seams, are used throughout the Washington schools. It is a common practice for students to wait for texts at the beginning of the term until they can be borrowed from another school. It is not infrequent for a student to turn the page, in doing his homework, and find a whole chapter missing from his textbook.

The Administration has been crying to high heaven over the terrible condition of schools throughout the country, of the need for Federal funds to rehabilitate them. It has painted as Neanderthals and worse those who have opposed Federal aid to education. This, the President has said, is the only answer for our education problems. But in the one instance where no special legislation is needed, the Administration has failed to act, to use its powers of moral suasion, or to give the children of Washington — its educational wards —a decent school system.

As one Congressman, who had heard these high school students pleading for better schools, said to me: "If we take financial control of the schools away from the local communities, we'll have kids from all over the country walking the halls of the Office of Education and the Capitol trying to get back the kind of schools they lost. And who will care? What Federal aid to education will mean, if it is ever passed, is that we simply pull down to the Washington level the excellent schools which many cities and towns in this country have built for themselves."

Aspires To 100

Widower 74 Years Old Doesn't Expect To Tire Of Living

These days when so many are depressed by the potential destruction of the "bomb," I receive many letters from people who say, "What's the use of living and planning?" In fact, many feel like old-timers at 50 or 60 and don't care to go on living. Like a breath of fresh air comes this letter from a reader in Illinois:

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: My problem is how to maintain my present good health and live to be 100! In all seriousness, Dr. Steincrohn, I do want to know how I can live to be 100 and continue to maintain and enjoy both physical and mehtal faculties which I am happy and proud to say I am at present enjoying.

I am 74 years young, am 5 feet and 10 inches, and my weight is 172 pounds — and hasn't varied in 35 years. I have raised a family of four daughters, and am the proud grandfather of eight grandchildren. I am a widower. At present I am chief cook in a large hospital (they think I'm only 60). I have an acre of ground I can putter in as I like the outdoors; raise flowers and vegetables, go fishing, do some writing and get interested in civic and community affairs in the small town where my home is located.

By the time I retire I will have about $3,000 in the bank, and with my Social Security pension of $93, I believe I can keep the wolf away and get by fairly well. My doctor tells me I'm at present in excellent health except for a small hernia that doesn't bother me. How long can a person live, and maintain his good health and mental faculties provided he obeys the law of nature? I eat simply, don't drink or smoke.

Comment: Considering your present condition—especially your cheerful mental outlook — I'd choose you over most people I know to live to a ripe old age. One hundred is quite a target, but it has been hit before, and I believe you're the kind of marksman to do it.

HIVES CAN BE A PROBLEM

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: My husband suffers from hives. They swell up so big now they seem to be in his hair and he scratches until he has sores. At first they were only on his face and arms. He uses bicarb applications but they don't seem to help.—Mrs.W.

Comment: Finding the cause of hives is the important thing. For example, if they are due to some food recently eaten, a good dose of castor oil or salts will usually clear up the condition.

But hives are usually more stubborn than than. Chronic urticaria (hives) is often a diagnostic problem. We look for the following possible causes: pollens and perfumes, bacterial infection, drugs (like penicillin, liver extracts, serums, vaccines, vitamins, insulin, etc.) food allergies, such diseases as Hodgkins or chronic blood conditions due to other serious illness.

Once we find the culprit, hives become less a problem. But oh, how stubborn it can be under any condition. I have seen it last for months. Patients can't sleep, work or relax. In fact, sometimes when we can't find a physical cause we consider the possibility of emotional factors. Many's the case of hives that has been caused by frustration and resentment. In such cases, sedatives and tranquilizers often help get the patient over his emotional involvment. Drugs like epinephrine help abort the acute attack. Sometimes histamine, cortisone and ACTH help.

Dr. Steincrohn's leaflet, "When to Suspect Your Gall Bladder," will be mailed to you on receipt of a stamped, self-addressed envelope and 10 cents in coin for handling. Address your request to Dr. Steincrohn, c-of this newspaper.

'No Milk Legislation'

If a prediction made by Louisiana Congressman Harold B. McSween is true, no new milk legislation of any kind will be passed by congress this year. If this is true, Louisiana, and particularly its dairymen, will have one thing to be thankful for in regard to the proposed strangling farm legislation, although nearly all other phases of the bill also are objectionable.

As pointed out by State Representative Robert Munson of Cheneyville, however, Louisiana's two senators, Allen Ellender and Russell Long, have dealt their constituents "a slap in the face," by their action on the measure.

Munson pointed out that the two Louisiana senators supported President Kennedy's socialistic and confiscatory farm bill although the Louisiana legislature shortly before had adopted a resolution opposing the bill in its present form and asking the congressmen to vote against it. It is difficult to see how Ellender and Long could have gone contrary to the wishes of the people of this state if they had sat up nights trying to think of ways to displease their constituents.

Regarding a resolution putting the legislature on record against the farm bill, which provides for controls on wheat, corn and other grain, Munson said:

"On Friday of that same week the U. S. Senate adopted this farm bill by a vote of 42-38, with our senior senator providing the leadership to pass it. On that same day and in this chamber our junior senator defended this legislation, saying that only the corn farmers were opposed to it."

Munson, a farmer, went on to quote from the Congressional Record in which it was brought out that the bill contains provisions for integrated recreational facilities.

"Another part of this bill," Munson said, "that is aimed at Louisiana is that the cross-compliance in the proposed bill strips us of our natural advantage by forcing us to come under strict government regulation and cuts our production and income on a variety of crops."

Under the bill, Munson contended, Louisiana farmers would not be allowed price supports on sugar cane, rice and cotton, the state's three main crops.

Representative McSween, who cast a vote in favor of the farm bill and is trying to stem the resulting criticism, said the administration's request for milk producer marketing allotments would be disapproved. "The milk section still left in the committee bill will be deleted," he stated. "No new milk legislation of any kind will pass congress this year, regardless of what is done about wheat and feed grains," McSween said.

It is difficult to imagine how either recreation or integration could be a part of a farm control measure but the whole objective of the Kennedy administration seems to be to make all legislation so intermeshed that it will be impossible to separate any phase of it and consider it on its own merits.

If Senators Ellender and Long were giving their constituents "a slap in the face" because they believed the best interests of Louisiana were against the best interests of the nation as a whole there might be some justification for their going against the wishes of their people. In regard to the farm bill, however, both Louisiana and the nation as a whole would be harmed and endangered by the present farm bill.

The measure constitutes one of the most serious threats to free enterprise that has ever been devised in this country. Therefore the votes and influence of Senators Ellender and Long on this matter are deplorable.

Division In Europe

While the signing away of the North African French colonies has brought about turmoil in that portion of the world, President De Gaulle has also given indications of differences of opinion concerning the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Carried too far, this could result in a divided northern Europe and a military break with the United States. This must not be if the western nations are to maintain any satisfactory defense against the Soviets.

The French president has earned the reputation of the "tough line" in talking to the communists—or in refusing to talk to them. This has appealed to many quarters in the United States as well as to German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer. British Prime Minister Macmillan and President Kennedy have adapted a more flexible position in negotiations with the Russians.

There is no danger in this unless President De Gaulle presses his desire to lead continental Europe with the English speaking nations left on the outside. To do this, he would have to solicit the aid of West Germany.

The "tough line" against Khruschev has brought the two elderly leaders of France and West Germany closer together in recent months. There is also the economic potential of the European Common Market.

But if Germany tries to "go it alone" with France, it will be at a great risk and a great cost—even if the "cold war" never grows hot in Europe. Economic conditions in both France and Germany would suffer limitations, especially in the field of exports and imports.

There is no reason to think the "De Gaullist Europe" plan will be the center of policy for West Germany among Dr. Adenauer's successors. Foreign Minister Schroeder has already announced he would seek admission for Britain in any future military or economic arrangement.

As for the United States, any Franco - German move to "go it alone" would confuse our military commitments on the continent of Europe. Even Chancellor Adenauer, following his critical remarks on U. S. foreign policy last month, said:

"We must under no circumstances release the United States from the defense community. Without the United States we are lost."

With the ability of free nations to express themselves, there is apt to be continued bickering among the western allies as to which is the best path to follow for peace, prosperity and security.

But one fact must be made plain to France as well as to West Germany, Britain and the United States. The differences among the western democratic republics is nothing like the clash of ideology between the West and the Soviet bloc. If we cannot settle our differences, they stand ready to offer their system as a permanent solution.

Congress For Whole Year?

Some Believe Continuous Session Might Help Democrats Hold Down Republican Off-Year Gains

Some Democratic members of Congress are now saying that Congress is likely to continue in session the balance of the year and think it might increase Democratic chances to hold down Republican November gains, if it did. Image of a member of Congress doing his job in Washington could be more effective than member's presence of the stump in his State or District. Most Congress members, however, expect to see the session adjourn shortly after Labor Day, or by October 1 at latest. But no one any longer intertains any idea that the big legislative jam can be cleared up in time to permit a mid - summer adjournment, which heretofore has been customary in election years.

REPUBLICAN ALLEGATIONS —Senate Republicans make and will try to prove in the Senate investigation three allegations of favoritism by the Department of Agriculture toward Billie Sol Estes, the Texas manipulator: (1) Allocated to Estes' elevators as inordinate amount of the Government's stored grain under a smaller bond that was warranted. (2) Move, at taxpayer's expense amounting to several hundred thousands dollars of freight charges, grain from Kansas and other States to Estes "out of position" Texas elevators; (3) Irregularities in allowing Estes to acquire cotton acreage allotments and permitting his appointment to the National Cotton Advisory Committee. They will also try to prove what Estes did in return to motivate these favors.

TAX BILL PROSPECTS — The view is widely held that if the Senate defeats the withholding taxes on dividend and interest income provision in the Administration tax bill as now seems probable there will be no tax bill at all at this session of Congress. Chairman Wilbur Mills of House Ways and Means Committee is determined that the withholding provision be included. But recent grass roots revolt against the plan was weakened its overall strength in the House. Eventual choice of Congress will be a greatly water-down version of the original Administration proposal of no tax bill at all.

KENNEDY PLUSES AND MINUSES — President Kennedy after 16 months in office finds this score: Popularity with people, as shown by public opinion polls, is very high, although it has fallen sharply since the President's strong action to force a rescinding of the steel price rise; Congress allowing key Administration legislation to get into a log jam; Western Europe apparently pulling away from United States leadership, after following it for close to two decades.

TOO MUCH STORAGE SPACE —Look for Small Business Administration to come under Congressional attack for continued loans for building of grain elevators in the face of lessening need for such facilities. Estes scandal has emphasized that elevator building spree vastly overbuilt elevators. Yet SBA continues to make loans. Effect of enactment of Administration farm bill would be to cut back crop production and storage of grain. There are more than 8,000 grain elevators in the nation, many of which are in a financial squeeze.

BUDGET IN 1963 — Although Treasury Department continues to stick to its official statement that there will be a surplus of income over expenditures in 1963 fiscal year which begins July 1 high Treasury officials say that Senator Harry F. Byrd is correct in predicting a deficit of up to $6,000,000,000. Reason: Tax collections will fail to meet expectations, expenditures will be greater than budgeted.

IRREPRESSIBLE, "HAPPY" —Albert B. (Happy) Chandler, once United States Senator, former Commissioner of Baseball and twice Governor will be a candidate for an unprecedented third 4 - year term of Governor of Kentucky in 1963. Already "ABC in '63' " placards are appearing on Blue Grass State automobiles. Governor Bert T. Combs, Kentucky Governor who is barred by his State's Constitution from immediately succeeding himself, is backing Edward T. Breathitt, Jr., for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination which Chandler seeks.

EXPECT THOMPSON VOTE— Although Representative Clark W. Thompson, Texas, newest member of the House Ways and Means Committee, has announced that he will not support the Kennedy Administration medicare under Social Security plan until the Kerr - Mills bill has had a more thorough trail, the Administration believes that Clark actually will be on its side when the vote is taken in Committee. Failing to get the bill to the House floor through Ways and Means Committee action, Administration strategists will attempt to attach it as a rider to some Senate bill.

SMOOTH PATH FOR ROCKY —New York Democratic organization leaders now see no chance of getting other than a "Going-through - the - motions" candidate against Governor Nelson A. Rockfeller in November. What they are now seeking is the best possible candidate vote - getter in an unattractive lot in an effort to hold down the gubernatorial majority of Rockefeller, who high Democrats think is almost sure to be the 1964 Republican Presidential nominee.

Reservation Stands

Connally Amendment Won't Be Repealed In Senate

WASHINGTON — Advocates of the so - called "World Peace Through Law" movement might as well forget about getting the United States Senate to repeal the Connally amendment to the 1946 United Nations charter.

The Connally amendment gives this country virtual veto power over the international tribunal's jurisdiction in cases involving the United States. This built-in reservation, sponsored by the former Texas Senator, has come under attack in recent years by liberal group s who feel it hurts United States prestige abroad.

Both the Kennedy and Eisenhower Administration's have endorsed the repeal move but apparently not to the extent it could carry in the Senate where it needs a two-thirds majority vote.

The 1960 Democratic convention in Los Angeles wrote a strong repeal plank in the party's platform and the President urged its approval during the campaign but, to date, nothing has come of it.

There is a resolution pending in the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to repeal the Connally amendment but no action on it is comtemplated this year.

Committee Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D., Ark., has taken the position that unless the Administration goes all out for the resolution there's no sense in even trying to get it out of committee.

Close as the repeal move ever came to seeing the light of day was in 1960 when the Committee actually held hearings on the resolution which was later shelved by a vote of 9 to 7.

Even had the Committee approved the resolution it was extremely doubtful it would have ever reached the floor of the Senate as it faced prolonged debate and eventual failure.

The average citizen might wonder why a proposal with so much influential backing as the Connally repeal should stand so little chance of passage.

To understand the pros and cons of the issue it is necessary to go into the history of the Connally reservation and the International Court of Justice, more commonly called the World Court.

The World Court was formed by the United Nations in 1945 to replace the defunct permanent court of International Justice. Under its charter, the 15 members of the court, which sits in the Hague, were to be selected by member Nations belonging to the U.N.

Since it was founded 17 years ago, only slightly more than half of the United Nation's 82 member countries have seen fit to even recognize its jurisdiction under any circumstances. The United States does recognize the court but with the reservation it can declare itself immune from the court should it so desire. Other Nations have similar reservations.

When the United Nation Charter was up for ratification in the Senate in August, 1945, Senator Tom Connally, D., Tex., Chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, offered his famous amendment from the floor. It was adopted by an overwhelming 51 to 12 vote.

Probably the main reason for the Senate's reluctance to place the United States under the compulsory jurisdiction of the court was the fact that Soviet Russia and Communist Poland, both which had judges on the newly-formed court, wouldn't even recognize its authority.

The Communist attitude toward the court was subsequently witnessed when the U.S.S.R., Chechoslovakia, Hungary and Bulgaria refused to go into court when the United States protested the unlawful shooting down of an American plane.

Since the Connally amendment went into effect the United States has never had occasion to invoke it but it almost did in 1958 in the celebrated Interhandel case.

In a suit against the United States before the Court, Switzerland contended that stock of the General Aniline and Film Company seized by this country in World War II, belonged to the Swiss firm of Interhandel. The United States countered that Interhandel was a front for the I. G. Farben firm of Germany.

Worse Schools

Those Operated By Government In Washington Not Up To Par

In the statistical name-calling on the subject of Federal aid to education, those who are for it have failed to make any real case. Locally-supported schools are building more classrooms and raising teachers' salaries faster than what President Kennedy has asked for. However, the argument — and the confusion — do not seem to stop but get worse. And no one has bothered to ask, "How does the Federal Government act when it is, in effect, a school board?" The answer is right at hand, for Uncle Sam runs the schools of Washington. What he does with them, moreover, just ain't good.

Don't take my word for this. A group of earnest high school students have been pounding the corridors of the House and Senate Office Buildings for weeks, button-holing harried legislators. The students have even testified before the House Appropriations subcommittee. They want better schools — the kind they would have if their parents had something to say to the local school board. But there is really no school board in Washington, when you get right down to it — only the vast, impersonal Federal bureaucracy and a Congress which has other things on its mind.

Here is what these students, who must look to the Federal Government for help since they live in a non-self-governing territory, have to say:

Elaine Gordon, who attends Chamberlain Vocational School, complains of what many "average students" must contend with "If he goes to Benning Elemetary School, he may study in a classroom with falling plaster. Also, the furnace room floods during each rain or snow storm. Actually, however, a 6 or 7-year-old who attends school all day is fortunate. This means that he is not one of the 740 of his age who are still waiting to get into kindergarten. His older brothers and sisters might well be among the 2,000 students who are on part time because of tremendous overcrowding. At this rate, with the school population growing as it is, these students will be old enough to get into Congress before they have learned enough to get into college."

Robert Gordon, a student at Eastern High School, takes up the conditions at Phelps Vocational High School where the student must "change clothes in the boiler room and take gym in the hall; and if he wants to find a book to read for class, he must use the public library because there is no library in this school. Most of the D.C. high schools do not have a basic collection of books in their libraries."

Vera Rykoff, a student at Coolidge High School, has made a study of the textbook situation. One book still being used tells the bright young minds of Washington that "airplanes have been gradually conquering the earth. Airplanes have not only sailed over the oceans, but they have sailed around the earth. Of course, stops were frequently made for gasoline and oil." A textbook on "modern physics" is so far behind that it has not reached the electric refrigerator stage. It is still describing the old iceboxes.

And the condition of these textbooks is something to behold. At one school, a text is referred to as the "wreck" because copies issued are held together by rubber bands and in envelopes. Condemned books, falling apart at the seams, are used throughout the Washington schools. It is a common practice for students to wait for texts at the beginning of the term until they can be borrowed from another school. It is not infrequent for a student to turn the page, in doing his homework, and find a whole chapter missing from his textbook.

The Administration has been crying to high heaven over the terrible condition of schools throughout the country, of the need for Federal funds to rehabilitate them. It has painted as Neanderthals and worse those who have opposed Federal aid to education. This, the President has said, is the only answer for our education problems. But in the one instance where no special legislation is needed, the Administration has failed to act, to use its powers of moral suasion, or to give the children of Washington — its educational wards —a decent school system.

As one Congressman, who had heard these high school students pleading for better schools, said to me: "If we take financial control of the schools away from the local communities, we'll have kids from all over the country walking the halls of the Office of Education and the Capitol trying to get back the kind of schools they lost. And who will care? What Federal aid to education will mean, if it is ever passed, is that we simply pull down to the Washington level the excellent schools which many cities and towns in this country have built for themselves."

Widower 74 Years Old Doesn't Expect To Tire Of Living

These days when so many are depressed by the potential destruction of the "bomb," I receive many letters from people who say, "What's the use of living and planning?" In fact, many feel like old-timers at 50 or 60 and don't care to go on living. Like a breath of fresh air comes this letter from a reader in Illinois:

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: My problem is how to maintain my present good health and live to be 100! In all seriousness, Dr. Steincrohn, I do want to know how I can live to be 100 and continue to maintain and enjoy both physical and mental faculties which I am happy and proud to say I am at present enjoying.

I am 74 years young, am 5 feet and 10 inches, and my weight is 172 pounds — and hasn't varied in 35 years. I have raised a family of four daughters, and am the proud grandfather of eight grandchildren. I am a widower. At present I am chief cook in a large hospital (they think I'm only 60). I have an acre of ground I can putter in as I like the outdoors; raise flowers and vegetables, go fishing, do some writing and get interested in civic and community affairs in the small town where my home is located.

By the time I retire I will have about $3,000 in the bank, and with my Social Security pension of $93, I believe I can keep the wolf away and get by fairly well. My doctor tells me I'm at present in excellent health except for a small hernia that doesn't bother me. How long can a person live, and maintain his good health and mental faculties provided he obeys the law of nature? I eat simply, don't drink or smoke.

Comment: Considering your present condition—especially your cheerful mental outlook — I'd choose you over most people I know to live to a ripe old age. One hundred is quite a target, but it has been hit before, and I believe you're the kind of marksman to do it.

But it was only during Senate consideration that the administration floor leaders brought out a provision in the bill that permits Davis to make advance withdrawals of up to $100 million from the escrow fund, which presently amounts to over $450 million.

When asked for comment, Rep. Risley Triche, a floor leader, of Napoleonville, said, "The mineral board had this same right. This merely transfers the right from the mineral board to the governor."

Chester J. Coco of Marksville said, "I serve at the pleasure of the governor. As long as he wants me to stay, I will."

Manny Barrios of Lockport commented, "This all came as a surprise to me. I certainly haven't heard enough to make any comment now."

When asked if he intended to remain on the board, Don B. Hearin of Baton Rouge replied, "So far as I know, I am."

"At this time I prefer not to comment," said Wesley H. Clanton of Eunice.

Sam Carline of Berwick said, "I have no comment, but I plan to remain on the board."

Meantime, the Senate, convening at 8 a.m., moved quickly through the governor's bill despite objections from Sen. Adrain Duplantier of New Orleans.

Duplantier questioned a resolution by Sen. W. T. Carpenter of Bastrop dedicating the first $30 million from the tidelands to the retirement of the $60 million deficit bond issue.

"The language of the resolution makes it unconstitutional, in my opinion," Duplantier said.

But the Senate rejected, 14-25, an amendment offered by Duplantier to the tidelands bill to provide for $30 million from the tidelands to the retirement of the bonds.

"Would you vote to go ahead and pay the money on the bonds?" Carpenter asked Duplantier.

"I'd vote to pay for $180 million in bonds passed by this administration," he answered.

"Let him up there," snapped Sen. William J. Cleveland, a floor leader from his desk.

When objections to Duplantier's amendment were raised by Sen. Kelly Gravolet, another floor leader, Duplantier told the Senate, "It's gotten to the point where any amendment is negative if it doesn't have the holy water of the administration sprayed upon it."

"What's the big hurry?," protested Sen. Johnny Rogers of Grand Cane. "Why are we here on Friday morning? I want to know what the necessity is."

Rogers asked Gravolet if the Davis administration had already made an agreement with the government, but Gravolet denied that.

When Duplantier asked Gravolet where the tidelands money will go, Sen. B. B. (60) Rayburn of Bogalusa cracked from the floor, "It's going to the Baker Bank."

Gravolet said the money would be handled just as severance taxes are, going to the various state agencies.

He contended that the bill would authorize the governor and the committee to make a tentative agreement with the government, claiming that in the past the state has not had an official with that authority.

"I haven't supported the administration on the floor," explained Sen. Speedy O. Long of Jena. "But I wholeheartedly concur with the governor on this.

"If I were the chief executive, I would want to authority to make the decision in a matter this great."

UNTIL JUNE 8TH

Cullipher Re-Trial Date Is Postponed

Fourth District Judge Jesse Heard Friday put off until June 8 setting of a second trial for Cecil Eugene Cullipher, in the parish jail accused of stabbing to death Monroe businessman Lealis L. Hale.

Negro Ervin Leon Pimbton, 20, of 1304 Pine Street, Monroe, was sentenced to five years at Angola on each of six counts of burglary. The sentences, however, will run concurrently.

Probation was granted Wayne Fontenot after he was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary for automobile theft. Identical treatment was given Charles Eric Tidwell.

Monroyan John Wesley Wright, 26, Negro, of 1607 S. College Street, will be tried November 7 for burglary. Wright was acquitted last week of a similar charge.

Other felony arraignment actions in district court were:

Sue Ann Logwood, Negro, bond forfeited, theft of $51.00.

Helen Ruth Wright, Negro, guilty, remanded for pre - sentencing investigation, aggravated battery. The Wright woman is charged with shooting Boyd Riser with a .22 pistol May 13.

Roosevelt (Buddy) Dew, 54, Negro, of No. 18 Blanks Alley, not guilty, two counts of attempted murder. Trial set November 6.

Watson F. Bailey, 48, 3027 Lynhurst, Atlanta, Ga., reckless driving of motor vehicle: Did not appear, bond of $500 called.

Vester Fay Clay, 21, 308 Park Avenue, West Monroe, operating vehicle while intoxicated: Pleaded not guilty, trial set September 7.

J. V. Newburn Returns To The Palace

James V. Newburn has returned to The Palace as advertising and display manager, Jack Masur, president of the firm, announced Saturday.

"We are happy to welcome Jim back to Monroe and our organization," Masur said.

Newburn left The Palace in December, 1952, to join the Fedway organization. In 1954, he joined the American Furniture company as sales promotion director. Then for a year he was an account executive with the deBruyn Advertising Agency before returning to the retail field as advertising director of The White House department store.

Newburn is an immediate past president of the Advertising Club of El Paso, Texas, and received the ad club member of the year award in 1960, and was a director of the Tenth District of the American Federation of Advertising.

He is married to the former Phyllis Arseneau of West Monroe.

Navy Disputes Cuba Claim Of Air Intrusion

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy said Friday that one of its patrol planes photographed a Soviet merchant ship on May 16, but said this was outside Cuban territorial waters.

The comment was in answer to a question about publication in Cuban newspapers of a picture of a U.S. plane which the Communists claimed intruded into Cuban waters and buzzed an inbound Russian freighter.

The Navy said a P2V long range patrol plane, with the serial number LU128355, which came from Patrol Squadron 741 based at Jacksonville, Fla., photographed the ship "but at no time violated Cuban territorial waters."

Communist newspapers also had claimed a Russian ship was stopped on May 17 by a destroyer. Navy spokesmen said they had "no knowledge of a Soviet merchant ship being stopped by a destroyer."

The Navy called attention to a note sent Russia by the United States in June 1960 which said it is the duty of American patrol planes to identify any ship apraching continental United States, which had not been identified otherwise.

Sterlington Youth Booked For Theft

A 17-year-old Sterlington youth was free Friday night after posting bond of $350 earlier in the day on a charge of theft.

Picked up for shoplifting just before noon Friday was David Wayne Porter, address listed only as Sterlington, according to police records. He was taken into custody at a local five and ten cent store.

time he was expected to speak.

Romagna, 51, was notified of his discharge after arriving at the White House Friday for another day, he said, "of what I thought was a lifetime job."

He had started in 1941, when Franklin D. Roosevelt was president and Stephen B. Early was press secretary.

His replacement was made effective immediately.

Romagna's discharge marked the third change in the White House press office in the last week.

Jay W. Gildner, an assistant press secretary, has been named deputy chief of policy guidance staff in the U.S. Information Agency. Gildner, who came to the White House last July from a U.S. Information Service post in Toronto, will move to his new post this month. Malcolm M. Kilduff, a State Department assistant who dealt primarily with photographers, resigned as of Thursday to enter the newspaper field.

As official reporter, Romagna held what Salinger described as civil service standing, but like many others at the White House he served at the pleasure of the President without civil service job protection.

Over the years, Romagna had recorded for posterity the utterances of Roosevelt, Harry S. Truman, Dwight D. Eisenhower and John F. Kennedy—and the daily sessions—sometimes rapid paced—with nine different press secretaries.

Among other things, he provided the only transcript of Kennedy's private interveiw last November with Alexei Adzhubei, son-in-law of Soviet Premier Khrushchev and editor of Izvestia.

Eichmann's Sons Bitter

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—With revolvers stuffed in their hip pockets, two sons of Adolf Eichmann expressed their bitterness toward Israel Friday.

"The people of Israel cannot imagine how quickly they can lose their state when they reach the extremes of refusing to recognize the right of defense," said Horst Eichmann, 22.

Dieter, 20, was reluctant to talk to a reporter.

"I have nothing to say," he said. "It has been done."

"I was proud because my father died as a German colonel," said Horst.

"Did you want his body returned?" he was asked.

"Yes," Horst said, "but I do not understand why the Israelis did not send his body when they talked about humanity during his trial. But they did not send his body."

Eichmann's body was cremated and the ashes scattered at sea shortly after he was executed near Tel Aviv in Israel Thursday night. An Israeli announcement said cremation was requested in Eichmann's will.

Gov. Barnett Vetoes Four Prison Bills

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Gov. Ross Barnett Friday vetoed four penitentiary reform bills, charging they would create additional confusion over operations of the state prison farm and write conflicts into the law.

Barnett vetoed bills that would:

Create a 5-member board of penitentiary commissioners on staggered terms to replace the present 3-member board.

Give the commissioners power to hire and fire prison personnel.

Set out qualifications for the 5-member board, and Provide that three members of the 5-member board would constitute a quorum.

In his veto message to legislators, Barnett said the key bill provided that the commissioners hire a general superintendent to serve at the pleasure of the commissioners, then added in the same paragraph the superintendent "may be discharged by the governor."

This, Barnett said, "is plainly and unmistakably confusion in that the first part of the paragraph gives the commission the authority to discharge the superintendent and the latter part of the same paragraph gives the authority to the governor."

Barnett said, "This bill would plainly not only cause confusion as a matter of fact, but as a matter of law. I cannot understand the intent of giving the commission the sole authority to discharge the general superintendent and in the same paragraph giving the sole authority to the governor. . ."

The governor signed one bill which would give the big penal farm at Parchman power to sell surplus crops. He also signed a bill to permit commutation of sentences on good behavior.

The penitentiary bills were introduced by members of a legislative investigating committee which looked into the affairs of Parchman in the wake of the Kimble Berry case.

In vetoing the bill setting up the 5-man staggered term board, Barnett said, "I am not in favor of legislating three honorable and successful businessmen out of office who were duly confirmed by the Mississippi State Senate for a definite period of time."

The bill as finally approved by the legislature would have made the new board effective July 1.

But it was only during Senate consideration that the administration floor leaders brought out a provision in the bill that permits Davis to make advance withdrawals of up to $100 million from the escrow fund, which presently amounts to over $450 million.

When asked for comment, Rep. Risley Triche, a floor leader, of Napoleonville, said, "The mineral board had this same right. This merely transfers the right from the mineral board to the governor."

Chester J. Coco of Marksville said, "I serve at the pleasure of the governor. As long as he wants me to stay, I will."

Manny Barrios of Lockport commented, "This all came as a surprise to me. I certainly haven't heard enough to make any comment now."

When asked if he intended to remain on the board, Don B. Hearin of Baton Rouge replied, "So far as I know, I am."

"At this time I prefer not to comment," said Wesley H. Clanton of Eunice.

Sam Carline of Berwick said, "I have no comment, but I plan to remain on the board."

Meantime, the Senate, convening at 8 a.m., moved quickly through the governor's bill despite objections from Sen. Adrain Duplantier of New Orleans.

Duplantier questioned a resolution by Sen. W. T. Carpenter of Bastrop dedicating the first $30 million from the tidelands to the retirement of the $60 million deficit bond issue.

"The language of the resolution makes it unconstitutional, in my opinion," Duplantier said.

But the Senate rejected, 14-25, an amendment offered by Duplantier to the tidelands bill to provide for $30 million from the tidelands to the retirement of the bonds.

"Would you vote to go ahead and pay the money on the bonds?" Carpenter asked Duplantier.

"I'd vote to pay for $180 million in bonds passed by this administration," he answered.

When objections to Duplantier's amendment were raised by Sen. Kelly Gravolet, another floor leader, Duplantier told the Senate, "It's gotten to the point where any amendment is negative if it doesn't have the holy water of the administration sprayed upon it."

"What's the big hurry?," protested Sen. Johnny Rogers of Grand Cane. "Why are we here on Friday morning? I want to know what the necessity is."

Rogers asked Gravolet if the Davis administration had already made an agreement with the government, but Gravolet denied that.

When Duplantier asked Gravolet where the tidelands money will go, Sen. B. B. (60) Rayburn of Bogalusa cracked from the floor, "It's going to the Baker Bank."

Gravolet said the money would be handled just as severance taxes are, going to the various state agencies.

He contended that the bill would authorize the governor and the committee to make a tentative agreement with the government, claiming that in the past the state has not had an official with that authority.

"I haven't supported the administration on the floor," explained Sen. Speedy O. Long of Jena, "But I wholeheartedly concur with the governor on this.

"If I were the chief executive, I would want to authority to make the decision in a matter this great."

THIS WAS THE CIVIL WAR

By MERTON T. AKERS
United ress International

The Civil War seemed to hang in the balance as summer broke in June 1862

The big guns had fallen silent on the Virginia Peninsula after the battle of Seven Pines (Fair Oaks).

Richmond, capitol of the Confederacy, still was under siege by the Army of the Potomac

While all was quiet along the Chickahominy River and swamps where Confederate Gen Joseph E. Johnston had failed to crush an isolated Federal corps at Seven Pines and had been carried off the field gravely wounded, the silence was temporary — everyone on each side knew that

There was no silence in the West

Corinth, Miss, an important railroad point, was abandoned to Union forces on May 30

Forts Pillow and Randolph on the Mississippi River guarding Memphis, Tenn., also were abandoned by the Confederates on June 4

Memphis itself, the most important commercial city on the river between St Louis and New Orleans, was occupied by Federal forces on June 6 after a sharp gunboat battle

A couple of decisive Union victories — one on the peninsula, another in the West — might decide the war, now a little more than a year old. Chances for the victories seemed good, deceptively so, it turned out

Corinth was abandoned on the night of May 29-30 Gen P G T Beauregard marched his Rebel army out of the key city and left it to the Federals under Maj Gen Henry W Halleck

Halleck had taken personal command of the Union army in the west after the battle of Shiloh He relegated Maj Gen Ulysses S Grant to deputy commander, a job that was mostly title He reinforced the army until it numbered about 110,000 men Then he set out after Beauregard, who had withdrawn the Rebel army after Shiloh to Corinth

Corinth was about 20 miles from Shiloh It took Halleck nearly a month to march the army that distance

Beauregard had fortified Corinth but soon it became obvious that he could not hold it

The rebel retirement was skillful and preceded by elaborate false alarms which convinced the Federals, by that time within cannon shot of the city, that the South was receiving reinforcements. Locomotives puffed back and forth while a cheering squad regularly set up a chorus as if welcoming fresh troops

The strategy worked so well that Maj Gen John Pope in the front lines notified Halleck at 1 20 a m on May 30 that he expected an attack at dawn Instead his troops marched unmolested into Corinth — deserted by army and civilians, too — in the early morning

Halleck might have been expected to pursue Beauregard with everything he had But Halleck was not one to press his luck Pursuit was feeble And he had to break up his big army for garrison duty in occupied territory

Grant, who tagged along becoming more and more depressed, asked for and received 30 days' leave. He was ready to quit the army, again.

Maj Gen. William T Sherman later, "seated on a campstool, with papers on a rude camp-table, he seemed to be employed in sorting letters and tying them up with red tape into convenient bundles I inquired if it were true that he was going away He said 'yes.' I then inquired the reason, and he said

" 'Sherman, you know You know that I am in the way here. I have stood it as long as I can, and can endure it no longer ' I inquired where he was going to, and he said, 'St. Louis.' I then asked him if he had any business there and he said, 'Not a bit ' I begged him to stay, illustrating his case by my own

"Before the battle of Shiloh, I had been cast down by a mere newspaper assertion of 'crazy', but that single battle had given me new life and now I was in high feather, and I argued with him that, if he went away, events would go right along and he would be left out, whereas if he remained some happy accident might restore him to favor and his true place "

Grant decided to remain The "happy accident" came the next month when Halleck was called to Washington to become chief of staff of the Union armies

Only eight small gunboats mounting 28 light cannon now were between Memphis and the Federals

At dawn on June 6 the Federal fleet appeared upstream from Memphis It consisted of five ironclad gunboats mounting 68 heavy cannon and three Ellet rams, a new weapon in river warfare

The rams were the brainchild of Charles Ellet, Jr, an elderly civil engineer who early in 1862 had interested the War Department in his theory that a fast boat could ram effectively in narrow rivers

He bought the fastest steamboats available, beefed up their engines to make 15 knots, fortified their bows with timbers and installed three bulkheads the length of the vessels. The engines were braced to stand the shock of ramming

Between the rams and the Federal gunboats, seven of the eight Rebel vessels were sunk or beached. One, the "Van Dorn," escaped down river

In an hour and 10 minutes it was over

Now Vicksburg was the only stronghold which cut Federal domination of the river for its entire length Anaconda — the big border squeeze — was working.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

SCALY SKIN

Ichthyosis is a hereditary condition in which the skin is rough and dry and appears to be covered by fish scales. Dryness and itching are the usual complaints The cosmetic aspects also are bothersome until the individual learns to live with the condition

A mother wrote us that her two boys "have to wear long sleeved shirts to hide the rough, scaly places on their arms that look like shoe leather " We made a few suggestions relative to the care of the skin The sweat and oil producing glands are less active than normal in this condition. The individual is more uncomfortable in the winter because the skin becomes unusually dry and is easily irritated Improvement is to be expected in the summer

In response to the item, an Oak Park, Ill., woman wrote "I was born with this skin condition, as was my sister, and having lived with the situation some 40 odd years, we consider ourselves somewhat of an authority We feel fortunate, however, in being able to use creams and cosmetics more freely than do boys and men

"Humidity and warm air always been a must to us, as they seem to have a ventilating effect on the pores which do not normally perspire The Florida climate brings comfort Denver and the southwest I would avoid like a plague "

A warm equable climate benefits most sufferers.

A soft ointment works best. Bathing in warm water with milk or superfatted soap helps keep the condition under control, but an emollient or cream must be used after any contact with water

A mother of four, who has two sons with the condition, writes "We have noticed it goes away completely in the summer My advice is to be natural about the skin and don't fuss It makes the boys nervous and the condition worse I asked the older boy, who is in high school, whether the students in the locker room said anything about his skin He claims they don't even notice it "

SEVERITY OF HEART ATTACKS

M C writes Two of my brothers died with their first coronary attacks, my father died after his second Can a person have two or more heart attacks and go around doing heavy chores every day? What makes the difference?

REPLY

Yes Some people survive 10 attacks and continue to work hard. The coronary arteries have thousands of branches Obstruction of a small branch is not as serious as blockage of a large or main branch, yet both are considered heart attacks

HYPERTENSION REMEDIES

REPLY

Yes, unless it was given for a temporary condition So many remedies are available for this disorder the physician may vary the pro'uct every few months to prevent the development of a tolerance for any one medicine. Others suggest a vacation from drugs from time to time or reduce the dosage

MORE THAN DIET

E K writes Does diet control or cure mucous colitis?

REPLY

A bland diet helps but is only part of the treatment Drugs that relax and quiet the intestine are useful and the individual should avoid stress, overfatigue, and overindulgence in stimulants such as alcohol and coffee

ANEMIA AND LEUKEMIA

D.M. writes Can anemia turn to leukemia if it isn't taken care of?

REPLY

Filing System Is Advanced At Jackson Parish

JONESBORO (Special) — Clerk of Court Carey M Staples has reported that records passing through the Jackson Parish Clerk's office will be microfilmed

He said long - range plans call for microfilming of all badly-worn old records in the office, as well as all new documents and suits as they are filed

Staples said the new system will save the police jury money in storage space and book expense

Staples said he hopes to work out a plan with some other clerk or the State of Louisiana which would permit storage of a file of Jackson Parish films to preserve in case of disaster He said his office could store films for another office in another parish in return and thus provide a cross-filing system

Expropriation Measure Killed

BATON ROUGE (Staff Special) -- A bill sponsored by Rep. Lantz Womack of Winnsboro to give the State Department of Public Works expropriation powers for construction of access roads to state lakes has been killed.

The House judiciary B committee rejected Womack's bill this week

Womack contended that state money is being used to develop lakes and recreational areas, but the public has no access to them.

He said police juries now have authority to expropriate land for access roads to such lakes but do not exercise it because of local politics.

MANUAL ON COMMUNISM

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A joint committee of the American Legion and the National Education Association has approved for publication a manual of guidelines for teaching about communism in junior and senior high schools. Tentatively titled "Teaching About Communism," the manual is scheduled for distribution this summer. It is designed for use by teachers.

Crowded School In Winn Parish Seen Next Year

WINNFIELD (Special) — Winnfield High School principal Eugene Love reported that an increase in the number of students at the school next fall will create a serious space and seating problem.

He said Winnfield Westside Elementary School graduated 150 students for high school next term and that there are presently not enough seating space to go around for them

He pointed out that the new $1 2 - million high school plant, when completed, will ease the situation

A total of 81 seniors graduated at Winnfield High this year and Love said he expects future graduating classes to number in excess of 100

He said Winnfield will have 107 seniors next year

When the new high school plant is put into operation, Love said, the present high school building may be used as a junior high school facility

Moss Said Better

LONDON (AP) — Doctors said Friday that Stirling Moss' nasal operation of last Saturday was successful and that "his breathing now is much easier." They also said the famed race driver, injured seriously in an April 23 crash, was showing continued general improvement

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you. 6-2

PRAISE ORAL EXAMINATIONS

AUBURN, Ala. (UPI) — The oral examination not only is a better instrument to measure individual student achievement, but acts as a catalyst to provoke his thinking, according to two Auburn University professors who prepared a research paper on testing.

Dr. G. E. Tanger and T. C. Minn said their study showed a student may be able to work out assigned problems and pass conventional written tests but does not necessarily grasp the basic principles of the subject.

U.S. REPORT REVEALED

Influence Threat Made By Estes

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Agriculture Department report dated last fall quotes Billie Sol Estes, Texas financier indicted for fraud, as saying that if department officials tried to change the rules on cotton allotments in the middle of the game he would take the matter direct to Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman and, if necessary, to President Kennedy.

Estes was described in the report as saying he had depended on his attorney, John P. Dennison, and his associates to insure that his operations in connection with transfers of cotton allotments were entirely within the law.

"He (Estes) knew," the report said, "that they had studied the regulations and had made contact with county and state Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) officials before any of the transfers were effected.

"He knew none of the details of these transactions, since he did not have sense enough to handle details and left the transactions entirely up to them.

"He was satisfied that they had followed the advice of the ASCS officials and he knew that if these officials ever intended to try to change the rules retroactively in the middle of the game he would take the matter direct to the secretary and the President if necessary."

The 140-page report previously had been kept under a confidential classification, but copies had been turned over to the Justice Department and to congressional committees investigating the Estes case.

The Justice Department in turn made a copy available to a Texas grand jury investigating the death last June 3 of Henry H. Marshall, program specialist for the Texas ASCS office. Marshall had been found shot five times with a rifle.

The report is dated Oct. 27, 1961. No date is given as to the occasion when Estes threatened to go to Freeman and Kennedy.

However, on May 10 the Associated Press learned and reported that Estes made a rush trip to Washington last Oct. 18 and threatened at that time to embarrass the Agriculture Department and the Kennedy administration unless an investigation of his cotton planting opreations was dropped.

An informant who told of that Estes trip said Freeman never learned of it until April.

The cotton investigation was not dropped and on Nov. 3 the department reached a decision to withhold Estes' allotments for the 1962 cotton crop.

The Nov. 3 action presumably was taken after review of the Oct. 27 report.

The name of the late Speaker Sam Rayburn was mentioned several times in the October report. O. B. Marshall, ASCS county office manager at Greenville, Tex., was described in the report as stating that he (O. B. Marshall) had discussed the situation with Rayburn and had been assured that changes were being considered to strengthen the law.

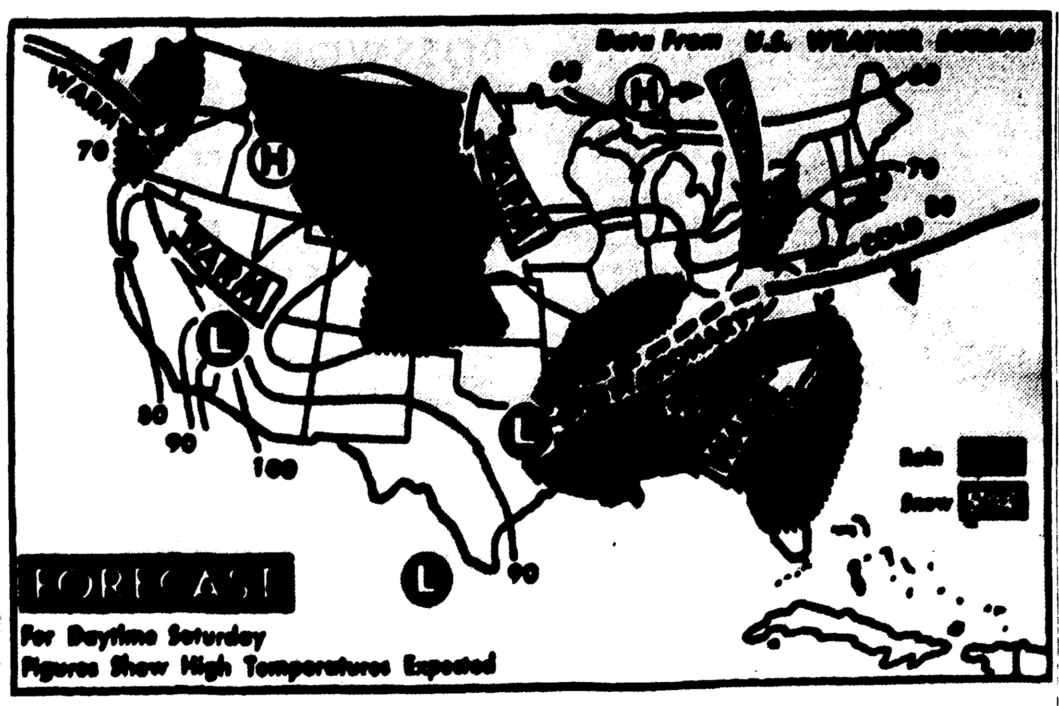
Estes had sold some of his land to various farmers who had lost land on which they had cotton allotments when this land was taken over by eminent domain. Under the arrangements, these farmers leased the land they had bought from Estes back to Estes and transferred to him their cotton allotments.

Sale of cotton allotments is illegal, and the question of law in the review of Estes' dealings was whether the land sales and lease-backs were bona fide.

Nevada Nuclear Test Conducted

WASHINGTON (AP)—An underground nuclear test—the 35th to be announced by the Atomic Energy Commission—was set off Friday at the AEC's Nevada test site.

Like most of the others in the Nevada test series, the blast was of low yield, with an explosive force less than that of 20,000 tons of TNT. The AEC gave no other details.



SCATTERED SHOWERS and thundershowers are expected Saturday through the Appalachians and in southeastern quadrent of the nation, as well as the northern Plateau into northwestern Plains and Rockies. Occasional rain is expected in central Plains and on northern Pacific coast. It should be warmer along south Atlantic coast and extreme northern Missisipi Valley. Cool weather is due east of Great Lakes and in parts of Mississippi Valley. (AP Wirephoto Map)

BESTOWED BY QUEEN

British Cartoonist Gets Knighthood

LONDON (AP)—Queen Elizabeth II bestowed a knighthood Saturday on cartoonist David Low, creator of the bumbling Englishman called "Colonel Blimp."

The Manchester Guardian satirist was one of 649 of Elizabeth's subjects honored on her official birthday. The coveted honor means that Low will be known from now on as Sir David.

Elizabeth was 36 on April 21. But because of better weather later in the British spring, her birthday is officially celebrated on the first Saturday of June.

Peter Snell, the New Zealand runner who holds three world records, was made a member of the Order of the British Empire.

Miss I. M. Moyse, 73, an assistant cook for 42 years at a Newcastle Hospital was given the British empire medal.

Cmdr. Edward Whitehead the bearded supersalesman in the United States of a British brand of sodawater, got the Order of the British Empire.

Novelist Elspeth Huxley, poet and critic Stephen Spender and playwright and actor Emlyn Williams, all became commanders of the Order of the British Empire.

Baron Radcliffe, chairman of a committee that probed security in government departments, was elevated to the rank of viscount.

Broadcasters whose names are familiar to many people in the English-speaking world—Thomas Barman and Thomas Cadett—became commandere of the Order of the British Empire.

Distiller A.R.D. Gilbey, who makes gin, became a member of the Order of the British Empire.

For her services to tennis in Australia, Nell Hopman was made a member of the Order of the British Empire.

U.S. Satellite Launch Secret

VANDENBERG AFB, Calif. (AP)—The Air Force announced tersely Friday night that it had launched another secret satellite at this rocket and missile base.

As in previous military launchings, the Air Force gave no details beyond the mere fact that a satellite was launched and that it employed a Thor Agena B booster combination. This combination usually indicates a Discoverer.

Ministerial Student Is Assigned Here

A junior ministerial student at Centenary College, Johnny Brewer of Arcadia, has been assigned as educational associate at Memorial Methodist Church here, it was announced by the Rev. Loyd E. Williams, pastor.

He will assume duties Sunday and continue in the post until August 31. He is a member of the First Methodist Church of Arcadia, a graduate of Arcadia High School and has worked as a supply minister, camp staff member, and recreation leader. This will be his second summer as an educational associate.

U.S. REPORT REVEALED

Influence Threat Made By Estes

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Agriculture Department report dated last fall quotes Billie Sol Estes, Texas financier indicted for fraud, as saying that if department officials tried to change the rules on cotton allotments in the middle of the game he would take the matter direct to Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman and, if necessary, to President Kennedy.

Estes was described in the report as saying he had depended on his attorney, John P. Dennison, and his associates to insure that his operations in connection with transfers of cotton alloments were entirely within the law.

"He (Estes) knew," the report said, "that they had studied the regulations and had made contact with county and state Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) officials before any of the transfers were effected.

"He knew none of the details of these transactions, since he did not have sense enough to handle details and left the transactions entirely up to them.

"He was satisfied that they had followed the advice of the ASCS officials and he knew that if these officials ever intended to try to change the rules retroactively in the middle of the game he would take the matter direct to the secretary and the President if necessary."

The 140-page report previously had been kept under a confidential classification, but copies had been turned over to the Justice Department and to congressional committees investigating the Estes case.

The Justice Department, in turn made a copy available to a Texas grand jury investigating the death last June 3 of Henry H. Marshall, program specialist for the Texas ASCS office. Marshall had been found shot five times with a rifle.

The report is dated Oct. 27, 1961. No date is given as to the occasion when Estes threatened to go to Freeman and Kennedy.

However, on May 10 the Associated Press learned and reported that Estes made a rush trip to Washington last Oct. 18 and threatened at that time to embarrass the Agriculture Department and the Kennedy administration unless an investigation of his cotton planting opreations was dropped.

An informant who told of that Estes trip said Freeman never learned of it until April.

The cotton investigation was not dropped and on Nov. 3 the department reached a decision to withhold Estes' allotments for the 1962 cotton crop.

The Nov. 3 action presumably was taken after review of the Oct. 27 report.

The name of the late Speaker Sam Rayburn was mentioned several times in the October report. O. B. Marshall, ASCS county office manager at Greenville, Tex., was described in the report as stating that he (O. B. Marshall) had discussed the situation with Rayburn and had been assured that changes were being considered to strengthen the law.

Estes had sold some of his land to various farmers who had lost land on which they had cotton allotments when this land was taken over by eminent domain. Under the arrangements, these farmers leased the land they had bought from Estes back to Estes and transferred to him their cotton allotments.

Sale of cotton allotments is illegal, and the question of law in the review of Estes' dealings was whether the land sales and lease-backs were bona fide.

Nevada Nuclear Test Conducted

WASHINGTON (AP)—An underground nuclear test—the 35th to be announced by the Atomic Energy Commission—was set off Friday at the AEC's Nevada test site.

Like most of the others in the Nevada test series, the blast was of low yield, with an explosive force less than that of 20,000 tons of TNT. The AEC gave no other details.

SCATTERED SHOWERS and thundershowers are expected Saturday through the Appalachians and in southeastern quadrent of the nation, as well as the northern Plateau into northwestern Plains and Rockies. Occasional rain is expected in central Plains and on northern Pacific coast. It should be warmer along south Atlantic coast and extreme northern Missisipi Valley. Cool weather is due east of Great Lakes and in parts of Mississippi Valley. (AP Wirephoto Map)

BESTOWED BY QUEEN

British Cartoonist Gets Knighthood

LONDON (AP)—Queen Elizabeth II bestowed a knighthood Saturday on cartoonist David Low, creator of the bumbling Englishman called "Colonel Blimp."

The Manchester Guardian satirist was one of 649 of Elizabeth's subjects honored on her official birthday. The coveted honor means that Low will be known from now on as Sir David.

Elizabeth was 36 on April 21. But because of better weather later in the British spring, her birthday is officially celebrated on the first Saturday of June.

Peter Snell, the New Zealand runner who holds three world records, was made a member of the Order of the British Empire.

Miss I. M. Moyse, 73, an assistant cook for 42 years at a Newcastle Hospital was given the British empire medal.

Cmdr. Edward Whitehead the bearded supersalesman in the United States of a British brand of sodawater, got the Order of the British Empire.

Novelist Elspeth Huxley, poet and critic Stephen Spender and playwright and actor Emlyn Williams, all became commanders of the Order of the British Empire.

Baron Radcliffe, chairman of a committee that probed security in government departments, was elevated to the rank of viscount.

Broadcasters whose names are familiar to many people in the English-speaking world—Thomas Barman and Thomas Cadett—became commandere of the Order of the British Empire.

Distiller A.R.D. Gilbey, who makes gin, became a member of the Order of the British Empire.

For her services to tennis in Australia, Nell Hopman was made a member of the Order of the British Empire.

U.S. Satellite Launch Secret

VANDENBERG AFB, Calif. (AP)—The Air Force announced tersely Friday night that it had launched another secret satellite at this rocket and missile base.

As in previous military launchings, the Air Force gave no details beyond the mere fact that a satellite was launched and that it employed a Thor Agena B booster combination. This combination usually indicates a Discoverer.

Ministerial Student Is Assigned Here

He will assume duties Sunday and continue in the post until August 31. He is a member of the First Methodist Church of Arcadia, a graduate of Arcadia High School and has worked as a supply minister, camp staff member, and recreation leader. This will be his second summer as an educational associate.

THE HEBERT BROTHERS, Jay (left) and Lionel, had their troubles with the traps in the Memphis Invitational Friday. Jay found himself ankle-deep in sand on the 15th hole, but managed par. Lionel, however, bogeyed the ninth despite a good recovery. Both broke par for the round, Jay with a 66 and Lionel with a 69, but South African Gary Player took over the lead.

Player Grabs Open Lead; Shoots A 66

Palmer Hopes Do Fast Fade On Another 71

By BILL CRIDER

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) —Scowling intently over his putts, South Africa's Gary Player peeled off a 4-under-par 66 Friday to take the lead in the $40,000 Open Golf Tournament.

The 35-31 over the 6,501-yard, 34-36—70 Colonial Country Club course gave the handsome, black-clad Johannesburg flash a 36-hole score of 131, a total of 9 under par.

Consistent Don January finished a stroke behind Player, adding a 35-32—67 to his first round 65 for 132. He had two bogies, three birds and was blessed with an eagle on the 519-yard 18th hole when he belted his two-iron shot to the green and holed a curling 5-foot putt.

Australia's Bruce Crampton leaped into contention at 133 by racking up a 33-30—63, equalling the course competitive record. After a bogie on his third hole, he settled down to four birdies and two eagles.

Both eagles came on delicate iron play. At the 499-yard 13th hole Crampton chipped from a trap and holed out. On the 18th, he laid a four-iron shot to within 9 feet of the pin and the putt was straight as a rule.

"That's about as good a round as I can shoot," he said.

The round trimmed the 140-man field to 90, with the cut coming at 146. The field will be trimmed to the low 60 and ties Saturday. Rain swept the course during the afternoon but failed to slow the action.

Player was only average on his front nine turning with one bird and two bogies. He made his run of the back side, logging three birdies and adding a neat eagle 3 on the 511-yard 16th. He went for broke on the 18th, a long but relatively easy hole, hooked into the rough and was lucky to scramble out with a par 5.

"I played much better yesterday," he said. "I was hitting them a lot closer to the flag. But I am hitting better now than ever in my life and I am putting better too."

The biggest gallery trudged with Palmer, the game's dominating figure and big money winner. On again he was erratic enough to give the worst duffer moments of cheer. He was 35-36—71 for a 142 total.

On the 218-yard par-3 ninth hole, where he four-putted the first round, Palmer again double bogied. His iron shot off the tee was trapped. It took him two strokes to get out of the sand and even then he had a long putt.

"I still can't do anything right," said Palmer, winner in four of his last five tournaments, including the recent Masters. "That cold I had last week took a lot out of me. I don't feel right."

WHIP SUCCESSORS, 9-6

Giants Top Mets For Homecoming

By JIM HACKLEMAN

NEW YORK (AP) — The San Francisco Giants returned to the Polo Grounds Friday night and whipped their successors, the New York Mets, 9-6.

Playing in the ancient park for the first time since they abandoned it for San Francisco after the 1957 season, the Giants jumped off to a big lead with a barrage of home runs and dealt the Mets their 12th straight loss.

Wondrous Willie Mays, who began his rise to super stardom here as an exuberant kid in 1951, excited the highly vocal crowd of 43,472 with his 17th home run. Willie McCovey hit two more and Jim Davenport clouted one with the bases loaded as the winners powered their way ahead 9-1 by the seventh inning.

The Mets, whose first run came on Rod Kanehl's first big league homer in the sixth, staged one of their stirring but futile rallies in the eighth. They routed San Francisco's prize southpaw, Billy Pierce, and evoked roars of delight from the huge crowd with a five-run uprising.

McCovey started the Giants off in the first inning when he hit the first of his two homers off loser Roger Craig. Then, after a single by Charlie Hiller in the third, he whacked one onto the roof in left field.

Mays, after being retired in routine fashion his first two times up, homered in the fifth, a good shot off Craig into the upper seats in right.

That was all the Giants managed off Craig, but in the seventh they battered Willard Hunter, ex-Dodger left-hander making his first appearance for the Mets. Harvey Kuenn batted for McCovey and singled. Then singles by Mays and Felipe Alou sent in a run. Davenport hit the first grand slam of his major league career after a walk to Tom Hiller.

Orlando Cepeda, who entered the game as the league's leading batter at .350, grounded out four times and struck out once.

The Mets' big eighth started when Elio Chacon was safe on Jose Pagan's error with one out. Kanehl followed with a single, Charlie Neal doubled and Frank Thomas singled. That made it 9-4 and brought on reliever Bob Bolin who promptly was tagged for a two-run homer by Felix Mantilla. Pierce, the winner, is now 8-0.

The Mets got two on in the ninth, but Giant relief ace Stu Miller held them off.

Rawls Leads On 1 Under Par Opener

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — Veteran Betsy Rawls of Spartanburg, S.C., birdied the last two holes for a 1-under-par 72 Friday and the first round lead in the 10th annual$7,500 Babe Zaharias Open Golf Tournament.

Miss Rawls survived a shaky start and then became only one of three players to better par on the incoming nine to nudge Kathy Cornelius of Scottsdale, Ariz., by one stroke.

Mrs. Cornelius made the turn with a 2-under-par 34 but bogeyed four of the first six holes to lose an opportunity to take a firm grip toward the tournament jackpot.

Par on the 6,219-yard Beaumont Country Club course is 37-36—73.

Miss Rawls, a two-time winner, had her sparkling 35 back nine matched by youthful Beth Stone of Muskogee, Okla. Little Sandra Haynie of Austin, Tex., was the only other of 31 professionals to whip par on the long and tree-lined incoming nine. She had a 36.

Miss Stone was off to the best start with three birdies on the first six holes but then went 6-over-par with two out of bound shots and a ball in a lake for a front nine 43.

Hinton's Blast Gives Senators Win Over Twins

ST. PAUL-MINNEAPOLIS (AP) —Outfielder Chuck Hinton poked a 360-foot home run into the right field bleachers in the top of the 12th inning to give the Washington Senators a 4-3 victory over the Minnesota Twins Friday night.

Little Boys Baseball

Heard Oil defeated Pulp and Paper 13-8 in a North League Little Boys baseball game Friday. Bib Ragland and Butch Holstead formed the winning battery,while Britt Clark paced the hitting with two for two. Douglas Johnson and Terry Thompson were the losers. Keith Kirby led Pulp and Paper batting with two hits in three trips.

First National Bank blasted Shell Oil 18-8 in South League game. Martin, Wilson and Lenard produced the win, while Cummings and Peddy were the losers. Barnett went three for four, including a homer, for the winners. Peddy had two for three on the losing side.

CLEVELAND VICTORY

Perry Four-Hitter Beats Detroit, 7-1

DETROIT (AP) — Lanky Jim Perry retired the first 16 batters and allowed only four hits Friday night as he pitched the first-place Cleveland Indians to a 7-1 victory over the Detroit Tigers.

The 6-4 right-hander's magic spell ended after one out in the sixth on infield singles by Dick Brown and Jake Wood. Rocky Colavito lined a single to center in the seventh for the first sold hit off Perry. And Norm Cash hit a two-out homer in the ninth.

Tito Francona led the Indians' 11-hit attack with a two-run double in the first and a two-run single in the eighth. Al Luplow drove in two runs with a single in the second and a bases-loaded walk in the seventh.

Just when the crowd of 41,425 started whooping it up in the anticipation of the first perfect game in the American League in 40 years, Brown came through with his single to shortstop. Woodie Held made a diving backhand stop, but his wild throw could not have beaten the slow-footed Brown even if it were on target.

One out later, Wood beat out a hit to third, but Perry worked out of his only jam by getting Billy Bruton on a ground out.

The loss went to Frank Lary.

Same Old Tale; Legion Games Rained Out

The Fifth District American Junior Legion baseball teams are still waiting to open their season after rain postponed two tilts slated for Friday night.

The Monroe Brown - Rivers-Scogin team was slated to host Bernice Friday night but a late afternoon downpour eliminated any possibility of the game being played.

Monroe's tilt with Bernice has been re-scheduled for next Tuesday night at 7:30 p.m. at the American Legion Stadium.

A contest between Farmerville's Terral Builders and Bastrop, which was rained-out Thursday night, has been re-set for today at 5 p.m. at Baron Park.

Bastrop's match with Bernice is still to be re-slated.

Monroe is set to travel to Ruston today for a 2:30 p.m. game with the James Contractors at Frasher Field.

Yankees Defeat Angels 6-2 On Terry's 4-Hitter

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The New York Yankees got four-hit pitching from Ralph Terry Friday night and defeated the Los Angeles Angels, 6-2, before 51,584—largest crowd in the American League this year.

Terry, now 6-4, struck out eight and walked only two.

Bill Skowron drove in three of New York's runs, two with a single in the seventh and the other with his ninth homer.

Bo Belinsky, the Los Angeles left-hander who pitched a no-hitter against Baltimore last month, was touched for 10 hits and five runs in eight innings and suffered his second loss against six victories. Belinsky hit two batters, made two wild pitches and committed two throwing errors.

After giving up a single to lead-off man Albie Pearson in the first inning, Terry retired 15 men in order before walking Joe Koppe in the sixth.

The Yanks got to Belinsky for their first two runs in the second. John Blanchard singled and scored on a double by Hector Lopez. Lopez came in on rookie Tom Tresh's single.

In the Yankee seventh, Clete Boyer and Bobby Richardson singled and Elston Howard walked to load the bases. Skowron scored Boyer and Richardson with a single and Howard came in when Belinsky made a wild throw trying for a pickoff at first.

Yankees Sign Boyer Brother

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The New York Yankees signed Ronnie Boyer, 17-year-old brother of their third baseman, Clete Boyer Friday. He also is a third baseman.

The Yanks gave the 5-foot-11, 163-pound youngster a $15,000 bonus. He probably will be assigned to the Yanks' rookie league team in Harlan, Ky.

Bullpen Refugee Takes Sixth Win For Kansas City

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Dave Wickersham racked up victory No. 6 Friday night as he pitched the Kansas City Athletics to a 9-2 decision over the Boston Red Sox.

Wickersham, a refugee from the A's bullpen, has won all three of his starts in addition to three earlier victories in relief. He has lost once.

WIN 13TH STRAIGHT

Dodgers Gain Tie For 1st On Sweep

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The on-rushing Los Angeles Dodgers took both ends of a twi-night double-header Friday night from the Philadelphia Phillies, 11-4 and 8-5, to extend their winning streak to 13 straight games while moving into a first place tie in the National League with the San Francisco Giants.

At the same time, the Dodgers equaled their longest winning streak in 1953 when they played out of Brooklyn and won the National League pennant.

Right-hander Don Drysdale won his eighth against three losses in the nightcap with assistance from Larry Sherry in the eighth inning. Drysdale helped his own cause with a three-run double in the sixth off loser Dallas Green. Ron Fairly hit his fourth home run and extended his batting streak to 15 games.

Green, pressed into service when starter Jim Owens' arm stiffened up after the first inning, is 1-2. Bob Wine and Tony Gonzalez hit homers for the Phils.

The Dodgers powered their way to victory in the first game before 24,799 spectators. Seven of their 11 hits were for extra bases with Junior Gilliam hitting a homer. Larry Burright had two triples and Ron Fairly also had a three-bagger.

Willie Davis pulled off the evening's spectacular in the opener. The Dodgers outfielder scored from first base on Tommy Davis' routine single to center—which came with the bases loaded.

Paul Brown (0-3) lost.

Player Grabs Open Lead; Shoots A 66

Palmer Hopes Do Fast Fade On Another 71

By BILL CRIDER

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) —Scowling intently over his putts, South Africa's Gary Player peeled off a 4-under-par 66 Friday to take the lead in the $40,000 Open Golf Tournament.

The 35-31 over the 6,501-yard, 34-36—70 Colonial Country Club course gave the handsome, black-clad Johannesburg flash a 36-hole score of 131, a total of 9 under par.

Favored Arnold Palmer, trying for his fourth straight tournament victory, faded further back in the pack by adding 35-36—71 to his first round 71 for 142.

Consistent Don January finished a stroke behind Player, adding a 35-32—67 to his first round 65 for 132. He had two bogies, three birds and was blessed with an eagle on the 519-yard 18th hole when he belted his two-iron shot to the green and holed a curling 5-foot putt.

Australia's Bruce Crampton leaped into contention at 133 by racking up a 33-30—63, equalling the course competitive record. After a bogie on his third hole, he settled down to four birdies and two eagles.

Both eagles came on delicate iron play. At the 499-yard 13th hole Crampton chipped from a trap and holed out. On the 18th, he laid a four-iron shot to within 9 feet of the pin and the putt was straight as a rule.

"That's about as good a round as I can shoot," he said.

The round trimmed the 140-man field to 90, with the cut coming at 146. The field will be trimmed to the low 60 and ties Saturday. Rain swept the course during the afternoon but failed to slow the action.

Player was only average on his front nine turning with one bird and two bogies. He made his run of the back side, logging three birdies and adding a neat eagle 3 on the 511-yard 16th. He went for broke on the 18th, a long but relatively easy hole, hooked into the rough and was lucky to scramble out with a par 5.

"I played much better yesterday," he said. "I was hitting them a lot closer to the flag. But I am hitting better now than ever in my life and I am putting better too."

The biggest gallery trudged with Palmer, the game's dominating figure and big money winner. On again he was erratic enough to give the worst duffer moments of cheer. He was 35-36—71 for a 142 total.

On the 218-yard par-3 ninth hole, where he four-putted the first round, Palmer again double bogied. His iron shot off the tee was trapped. It took him two strokes to get out of the sand and even then he had a long putt.

"I still can't do anything right," said Palmer, winner in four of his last five tournaments, including the recent Masters. "That cold I had last week took a lot out of me. I don't feel right."

WHIP SUCCESSORS, 9-6

Giants Top Mets For Homecoming

By JIM HACKLEMAN

NEW YORK (AP) — The San Francisco Giants returned to the Polo Grounds Friday night and whipped their successors, the New York Mets, 9-6.

Playing in the ancient park for the first time since they abandoned it for San Francisco after the 1957 season, the Giants jumped off to a big lead with a barrage of home runs and dealt the Mets their 12th straight loss.

Wondrous Willie Mays, who began his rise to super stardom here as an exuberant kid in 1951, excited the highly vocal crowd of 43,472 with his 17th home run. Willie McCovey hit two more and Jim Davenport clouted one with the bases loaded as the winners powered their way ahead 9-1 by the seventh inning.

The Mets, whose first run came on Rod Kanehl's first big league homer in the sixth, staged one of their stirring but futile rallies in the eighth. They routed San Francisco's prize southpaw, Billy Pierce, and evoked roars of delight from the huge crowd with a five-run uprising.

McCovey started the Giants off in the first inning when he hit the first of his two homers off loser Roger Craig. Then, after a single by Charlie Hiller in the third, he whacked one onto the roof in left field.

Mays, after being retired in routine fashion his first two times up, homered in the fifth, a good shot off Craig into the upper seats in right.

That was all the Giants managed off Craig, but in the seventh they battered Willard Hunter, ex-Dodger left-hander making his first appearance for the Mets. Harvey Kuenn batted for McCovey and singled. Then singles by Mays and Felipe Alou sent in a run. Davenport hit the first grand slam of his major league career after a walk to Tom Hiller.

Orlando Cepeda, who entered the game as the league's leading batter at .350, grounded out four times and struck out once.

The Mets' big eighth started when Elio Chacon was safe on Jose Pagan's error with one out. Kanehl followed with a single, Charlie Neal doubled and Frank Thomas singled. That made it 9-4 and brought on reliever Bob Bolin who promptly was tagged for a two-run homer by Felix Mantilla. Pierce, the winner, is now 8-0.

The Mets got two on in the ninth, but Giant relief ace Stu Miller held them off.

Rawls Leads On 1 Under Par Opener

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — Veteran Betsy Rawls of Spartanburg, S.C., birdied the last two holes for a 1-under-par 72 Friday and the first round lead in the 10th annual$7,500 Babe Zaharias Open Golf Tournament.

Miss Rawls survived a shaky start and then became only one of three players to better par on the incoming nine to nudge Kathy Cornelius of Scottsdale, Ariz., by one stroke.

Mrs. Cornelius made the turn with a 2-under-par 34 but bogeyed four of the first six holes to lose an opportunity to take a firm grip toward the tournament jackpot.

No other player equalled par as a noon rain made the outgoing nine play considerably longer.

Par on the 6,219-yard Beaumont Country Club course is 37-36—73.

Miss Rawls, a two-time winner, had her sparkling 35 back nine matched by youthful Beth Stone of Muskogee, Okla. Little Sandra Haynie of Austin, Tex., was the only other of 31 professionals to whip par on the long and tree-lined incoming nine. She had a 36.

Miss Stone was off to the best start with three birdies on the first six holes but then went 6-over-par with two out of bound shots and a ball in a lake for a front nine 43.

Hinton's Blast Gives Senators Win Over Twins

ST. PAUL-MINNEAPOLIS (AP) —Outfielder Chuck Hinton poked a 360-foot home run into the right field bleachers in the top of the 12th inning to give the Washington Senators a 4-3 victory over the Minnesota Twins Friday night.

Perry Four-Hitter Beats Detroit, 7-1

DETROIT (AP) — Lanky Jim Perry retired the first 16 batters and allowed only four hits Friday night as he pitched the first-place Cleveland Indians to a 7-1 victory over the Detroit Tigers.

The 6-4 right-hander's magic spell ended after one out in the sixth on infield singles by Dick Brown and Jake Wood. Rocky Colavito lined a single to center in the seventh for the first sold hit off Perry. And Norm Cash hit a two-out homer in the ninth.

Tito Francona led the Indians' 11-hit attack with a two-run double in the first and a two-run single in the eighth. Al Luplow drove in two runs with a single in the second and a bases-loaded walk in the seventh.

Just when the crowd of 41,425 started whooping it up in the anticipation of the first perfect game in the American League in 40 years, Brown came through with his single to shortstop. Woodie Held made a diving backhand stop, but his wild throw could not have beaten the slow-footed Brown even if it were on target.

One out later, Wood beat out a hit to third, but Perry worked out of his only jam by getting Billy Bruton on a ground out.

The loss went to Frank Lary.

Same Old Tale; Legion Games Rained Out

The Fifth District American Junior Legion baseball teams are still waiting to open their season after rain postponed two tilts slated for Friday night.

The Monroe Brown - Rivers-Scogin team was slated to host Bernice Friday night but a late afternoon downpour eliminated any possibility of the game being played.

Monroe's tilt with Bernice has been re-scheduled for next Tuesday night at 7:30 p.m. at the American Legion Stadium.

A contest between Farmerville's Terral Builders and Bastrop, which was rained-out Thursday night, has been re-set for today at 5 p.m. at Baron Park.

Bastrop's match with Bernice is still to be re-slated.

Monroe is set to travel to Ruston today for a 2:30 p.m. game with the James Contractors at Frasher Field.

Yankees Defeat Angels 6-2 On Terry's 4-Hitter

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The New York Yankees got four-hit pitching from Ralph Terry Friday night and defeated the Los Angeles Angels, 6-2, before 51,584—largest crowd in the American League this year.

Terry, now 6-4, struck out eight and walked only two.

Bill Skowron drove in three of New York's runs, two with a single in the seventh and the other with his ninth homer.

Bo Belinsky, the Los Angeles left-hander who pitched a no-hitter against Baltimore last month, was touched for 10 hits and five runs in eight innings and suffered his second loss against six victories. Belinsky hit two batters, made two wild pitches and committed two throwing errors.

After giving up a single to lead-off man Albie Pearson in the first inning, Terry retired 15 men in order before walking Joe Koppe in the sixth.

The Yanks got to Belinsky for their first two runs in the second. John Blanchard singled and scored on a double by Hector Lopez. Lopez came in on rookie Tom Tresh's single.

In the Yankee seventh, Clete Boyer and Bobby Richardson singled and Elston Howard walked to load the bases. Skowron scored Boyer and Richardson with a single and Howard came in when Belinsky made a wild throw trying for a pickoff at first.

Yankees Sign Boyer Brother

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The New York Yankees signed Ronnie Boyer, 17-year-old brother of their third baseman, Clete Boyer Friday. He also is a third baseman.

The Yanks gave the 5-foot-11, 163-pound youngster a $15,000 bonus. He probably will be assigned to the Yanks' rookie league team in Harlan, Ky.

Dodgers Gain Tie For 1st On Sweep

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The on-rushing Los Angeles Dodgers took both ends of a twi-night double-header Friday night from the Philadelphia Phillies, 11-4 and 8-5, to extend their winning streak to 13 straight games while moving into a first place tie in the National League with the San Francisco Giants.

At the same time, the Dodgers equaled their longest winning streak in 1953 when they played out of Brooklyn and won the National League pennant.

Right-hander Don Drysdale won his eighth against three losses in the nightcap with assistance from Larry Sherry in the eighth inning. Drysdale helped his own cause with a three-run double in the sixth off loser Dallas Green. Ron Fairly hit his fourth home run and extended his batting streak to 15 games.

Green, pressed into service when starter Jim Owens' arm stiffened up after the first inning, is 1-2. Bob Wine and Tony Gonzalez hit homers for the Phils.

The Dodgers powered their way to victory in the first game before 24,799 spectators. Seven of their 11 hits were for extra bases with Junior Gilliam hitting a homer. Larry Burright had two triples and Ron Fairly also had a three-bagger.

Willie Davis pulled off the evening's spectacular in the opener. The Dodgers outfielder scored from first base on Tommy Davis' routine single to center—which came with the bases loaded.

Paul Brown (0-3) lost.

Ben Hogan Won't Enter U.S. Open

Hogan was scheduled to make his first qualifying test since 1940 in Pittsburgh Monday but reported from his hometown here that he had lost a week's struggle against bursitis

"Naturally, I'm sorry I can't play," he said "The only year I missed was the year of the wreck But these things happen The only thing I can say is that I'll try again next year"

Hogan said he first was bothered by pains in his left shoulder during the Colonial National Invitation here two weeks ago

"I didn't do anything for it," he said, "just tried to work it out But it wouldn't work out"

He said he tried to practice Thursday and decided then that his arm wouldn't allow him to compete

"I couldn't swing," he said

Turnesa, whose home is in Elmsford, N Y, was to have qualified in the New York area.

Because both Hogan and Turnesa were exempt from the local qualifying last month, their places in next week's sectional qualifying will be given to the Rochester, N Y, and Philadelphia sectionals.

The Open will be played at Oakmont near Pittsburgh, on June 14, 15 and 16

It was at Oakmont that Hogan won his last Open title That was in 1953, the year of his great triple slam of the Masters, U S and British Opens

The 49-year-old millionaire golfer will miss his first U S Open since 1957 when he was forced to withdraw just before the tournament by a back ailment

Bantam Ben won his other U S Opens in 1948, 1950 and 1951, the PGA in 1946 and 1948, and the Masters in 1951 and 1953

Despite the triple slam of '53, 1950 probably was his most gratifying year It was his comeback year after a near fatal car-bus accident in 1949 It was doubtful then that he could ever return to top flight competition

But the Texan came back better than ever and tied Sam Snead for the Los Angeles Open He lost in a playoff Then he began another string of major conquests by capturing the 1950 U S Open

Large Pelican League Field Shaping Up

WINNSBORO, La (Special)—A 15-team league of three divisions will play Pelican League baseball in the Fifth District of Louisiana this year

Orville Elkin, Winnsboro, League president, and Woody Boyle, Oak Grove, district director, have announced the 1962 lineup of leagues for the 15, 16, 17 year olds as follows

North Division: Four clubs, all of West Monroe

East Division: Seven teams of Winnsboro, Newellton, Rayville, Tallulah, Oak Grove, Epps, and Delhi

South Division: Four clubs of Ferriday, Monterey, and two Vidalia teams

The Pelican League was organized five years ago at Alexandria, and Bill Carter, sports editor of the Alexandria Town Talk, is state commissioner

Confined to Alexandria at the start, the league has grown statewide and is taking on a more interesting aspect

In addition to the teams of the Fifth District, the league now boasts six teams in Alexandria, four for Rapides parish, four in LaSalle parish, eight in Vernon, six in Jefferson, four in Bossier, four in Natchitoches, 4 at Houston, Tex., and four at Dothan, Ala., and interests in Arkansas and Mississippi are being shown.

Alexandria will host the "World Series" of Pelican League ball again this year

New Records Expected For Compton Meet

COMPTON, Calif (AP) — Outstanding performances and possibly world records are in prospect in the 23rd annual Compton Invitational track meet Saturday night

International flavor will be provided by New Zealand's Murray Halberg, the 1690 Olympic champion in the 5,000-meter run.

Halberg has run the distance this year in 13 minutes 38.4 seconds Last year in Europe he was clocked in 13 35.2 to threaten the world mark of 13 35.0 held by Russia's Vladimir Kuts

The New Zealander's main opposition here may come from teen-ager Bruce Kidd of Toronto, Canada

The mile run features three Americans who have bettered 4 minutes — Jim Beaty and Jim Grelle of the Los Angeles Track Club, and Cary Weisiger of the Quantico Marines

The foreign threat in the mile is another New Zealander, John Davies, who has a best time of 4 02.7

Two shot put giants, Dallas Long of the University of Southern California, who bettered the world standard two weeks ago with a throw of 65 feet, 10½ inches, and New York University's Gary Gubner, are due to collide again.

Arizona State University's Ulis Williams, unbeaten this year, and Southern Cal's Rex Cawley are the leading contestants in the 440-yard dash

Dave Tork (16-2) of the Camp Pendleton Marines is the standout in the pole vault. The nation's other 16-foot vaulter, John Uelses, was scratched after an injury last week in the Modesto, Calif., Relays.

White Sox Edge Baltimore 3-2 In 11 Innings

BALTIMORE (AP) — Charlie Smith's bad hop single drove in the winning run Friday night as the Chicago White Sox edged the Baltimore Orioles 3-2 in 11 innings

The one-out scratch hit bounced over shortstop Ron Hansen's head, scoring Floyd Robinson from second base with the tie-breaking run Robinson had worked relief pitcher Hoyt Wilhelm for a walk and then stole second.

A pop fly double and a bloop single figured in the other Chicago runs In the first inning, slugger Robinson's pop fly dropped into short center field for a double, scoring Joe Cunningham who had singled and stolen second base

In the sixth a single by Jim Landis, a walk, and a bloop single to center by Sammy Esposito scored another run The White Sox made six hits off three Oriole pitchers, two in each of their run-scoring innings.

The Orioles scored single runs in the eighth and ninth to send the game into extra innings.

A double by Russ Snyder chased home the first run. Jim Gentile singled to open the ninth. He was replaced by pinch runner Earl Robinson, who came around to score on singles by Jack Brandt and Ron Hansen.

Army Releases Reniff To Yanks

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The New York Yankees announced Friday that right-handed relief pitcher Hal Reniff would be discharged from the Army Monday and will report to the club Tuesday.

Under major league rules, Reniff will be permitted to work out for 15 days before being placed officially on the roster.

Harrington Goes After Revenge In Scott Fight

NEW YORK (AP) — Stan Harrington, loser of the only bout he has fought outside of his native Hawaii, returns to the scene of the defeat Saturday night in an effort to even the score.

The 28-year-old Honolulu welterweight faces sharp-punching Charley Scott of Philadelphia in a 10-round television (ABC TV 9 p.m., EST) feature at Madison Square Garden. Scott, 26, has been made the 8-5 favorite although Harrington has a winning streak of five.

In his first venture on the mainland, the husky Harrington dropped a controversial, split decision to Gaspar Ortega of Mexico at the Garden, Jan. 7, 1960. A majority of ring critics thought Harrington deserved the nod despite Ortega's eye-catching finish in the last three rounds.

Harrington, a pro 8½ years, has a 40-8-4 won - lost - draw record, including 21 knockouts. But he has scored only one knockout in his last 19 fights. In his only scrap this year he outpointed L. C. Morgan.

Red Sox Blank White Sox, 10-0

WINNSBORO (Special) — The Red Sox blanked the White Sox 10-0 in a Franklin - Caldwell Dixie League game Friday

Greenberry Linder was the winning pitcher. He was relieved in the fifth by Floyd Henry, who finished the game.

David Shirley was the loser. He was replaced in the sixth by Rickey Griffing, who completed the game.

Hammons, with two for five, Linder, with for four and Ezell, with two for three, paced Red Sox batting. Ferris hit two for three to lead the White Sox.

FRANK ROBINSON (20) of the Cincinnati Reds kicks up a dust storm sliding head first into second base on a steal. It wasn't necessary at all. The throw from Chicago Cubs catcher El Tappe was high and went into center-field. Cubs shortstop Elder White is shown sprawling after leaping futilely for the ball. Ed Vargo is the umpire. Injuries Affected Play Says Moore

BALTIMORE (AP) — Lenny Moore, all-pro halfback of the Baltimore Colts, testified Friday that two injuries he received in game competition had affected his play in the National Football League

Moore appeared before the Maryland Workmen's Compensation Commission, which called a hearing to determine the nature and extent of the injuries

Moore, who in his claim said he had an average weekly salary of $400, testified he injured the ring finger of his right hand while trying to catch a pass in the opening game of the 1961 season.

He said the finger has been "tender and bothersome" since, and he no longer has the strength and flexibility in his right hand that he has in his left hand.

Dr Edmond J McDonnell, testifying for the state accident fund, said X rays indicated there will be a permanent swelling of the finger

Moore also testified that he suffered a sprained ankle while "cutting, trying to get away from a tackler," in Chicago last Oct 15, and he since has suffered "a constant ache" in his left foot

Daniel Doherty, chairman of the compensation commission, said Moore's case was not unusual, claims in the past

H Morton Rosen, one of Moore's attorneys, said athletes have as much right to file claims as industrial workers.

"We do it for the lifetime protection of the worker, or in this case the athlete," he said.

Willie Remembers Polo Ground Days

By JIM BECKER

NEW YORK (AP)—The first man in line when the Polo Grounds opened Friday night plumped down his money, strode briskly to a grandstand seat, settled back, looked out at the empty diamond and shouted

"Where's Willie?"

Soon he had plenty of company on this rare June night when Willie Mays came home to play to a full house in the park where he began his climb to all-time greatness.

"Are you going to play for the Mets tonight?" asked another.

The great center fielder, looking strangely out of place on those steps in a visiting grey uniform, serious, as if he had to explain where he had been lately, "But I'm in San Francisco now"

"They don't appreciate you out there," a man said.

"Well, maybe not at first, but I think things are all right now," Mays said.

And then Mays, trailing a school of photographers, made his way across the diamond, past the spot where he made the catch that won a World Series—against Cleveland in 1954 to take the starch out of the Indians—past the dugout where Leo Durocher held sway in Willie's great years and on to the visitors' bench.

"I played my first major league game here," he remembered of the days he brought his big smile and rippling muscles and "Say, Hey" chatter to the big town and sparked the Giants to two pennants.

"I went 0-for-12 and then I got my first major league hit here against Warren Spahn and then I went 0-for-12 again. But they stayed with me and things got better."

Then came the pennant, and then the drought at the gate, and then the move of the Giants to San Francisco.

And now he was back where it all began, cavorting around the infield during batting practice, driving one half a mile to the delighted cheers of the early crowd, always moving, smiling.

"Where you been all day?" asked one friend. "I've been trying to call you

"I had to get a haircut, and then see my lawyers, and the equipment company people, and arrange for some tickets for friends," said Mays. "I've been going all day. I got a lot of friends in this town."

Pirates Claim Sixth In Row With 8-4 Win

The Pirates pounded out 13 hits. The attack was sparked by Roberto Clemente, who homered, doubled, and singled, and Smoky Burgess, who belted a double and two singles.

The Colts pounded Pirate pitching for 12 hits but only one, a double, by Joe Amalfitano, was for extra bases.

Elroy Face, the last of three Pirate hurlers, was tentatively credited with the victory, the official scorer saying he would allow the league office to officially designate the winner.

Jim Golden, who shut out the Pirates 2-0 at Houston last Saturday, was the Colts' starting pitcher, but he was shelled from the mound in the third. Golden was charged with the loss and is now 3-2.

Joe Gibbon, up from the minors where he was nursing a sore elbow, started his first game of the season for Pittsburgh. He lasted until the fifth when he issued two singles and back-to-back walks that forced in a Houston run and left the bases loaded with nobody out. Reliever Jack LaMabe then retired the side without allowing a run to score.

Kansas Dispute Caused By Prep Football Star

SALINA, Kan. (AP) — A star football player at Salina High School became the center of a recruiting dispute Friday between the University of Kansas and Kansas State University.

Both schools claim the senior, Lynn Senkbeil, a 6-foot-2, 190-pound tackle.

A Kansas announcement that Senkbeil had notified Coach Jack Mitchell he intends to enroll at K.U. touched off the controversy.

Kansas State said that Senkbeil had previously announced he would enroll at K-State. Bebe Lee, K-State athletic director, said it also received a letter from the boy saying he had changed his mind.

"I don't know that this is a closed case," Lee said. "I think we might have a chance with this boy yet." Coach Doug Weaver of Kansas State said he was "extremely disappointed."

Contacted by Radio Station KSAL, young Senkbeil said he decided on K.U. after Don Fambrought, an assistant Kansas coach, assured him of an engineering scholarship under which he would play football.

Reds Continue Surge; Defeat Chicago, 5-2

CHICAGO (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds, winners of 19 of 25 games during May, launched June with a 5-2 conquest of the Chicago Cubs Friday

The Reds, making their 1962 Chicago debut, lost little time fashioning a 4-0 lead in the first inning to send big Joey Jay on his way to his eighth victory. Jay, who has lost four, gave up seven hits in his 13th start and sixth route-going performance

Ten Cincinnati batters went to the plate in the first inning as Frank Robinson's single scored Marty Keough, who had tripled with the first run. Jerry Lynch doubled to score Robinson after Frank stole second.

Loser Don Cardwell then served his 11th homer of the year to Gordy Coleman, whose drive into the right field bleachers was his seventh home run of the year

Rookie second baseman Ken Hubbs hit his second homer in as many games in the first inning It was Hubbs' third of the season

The Cubs went down to their seventh loss in the last eight games—and their fourth in a row to the third place Reds.

Bob Shaw Gets 1st Milwaukee Shutout, 7-0

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Righthander Bob Shaw hurled Milwaukee's first shutout and batterymate Del Crandall drove in five runs Friday night as the Braves belted the St. Louis Cardinals 7-0.

Shaw, obtained from the Kansas City Athletics last winter, scattered five hits in breezing to his sixth victory in eight decisions. He struck out five and didn't walk a batter as he lowered his earned run average to 1.91 in 85 1-3 innings.

Crandall, hitless in 17 straight at bats, had a pair of run-producing singles and a bases-loaded triple.

The veteran receiver singled in the second after Gus Bell collected the first of his two triples. Bell tripled across two runs in the third and then scored on a hit by Crandall.

The Braves added three in the seventh on a double by Roy McMillin, two walks and Crandall's triple.

Shaw didn't allow a hit after Charlie James singled in the fifth. James was erased in a double play and the Cardinals went down in order the rest of the way.

The loss was charged to starter Larry Jackson, who is 4-6.

Star Golfers Enter State Amateur Meet

By STUART HILL
World Sports Writer

The Bayou DeSiard Country Club will play host to several top golfers from throughout the state here June 6-10 at the annual Louisiana State Amateur Golf Tournament.

Burt Burdick of Baton Rouge will defend his title on the 6,340-yard par 70 course against a field of strong contenders from the Monroe area and other parts of Louisiana.

Qualifing rounds are slated Wednesday with 32 low qualifers making up the championship flight. The championship flight will be medal play and the remaining flights match play.

Parings and starting times will be announced Wednesday.

New Orleans City Champion, Charles DeLeverne, and New Orleans City Junior Champion, Wally Blessy, are expected to be the major contenders for the title from the Crescent City.

Bill Ramsey, D. Y. Smith, B. J. Murphy, Pat McGonigall and and John Bird, all of Shreveport, are listed as the top contenders from the northwestern section of the state.

Ramsey currently Shreveport Country Club's champ had chalked up a one-under-par effort in a nine-hole practice round earlier this week.

Athletics Have Buyer In Case Finley Unhappy

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Chamber of Commerce says it has someone ready to buy the Kansas City Athletics if owner Charles Finley is not happy with his franchise.

"Under any condition, we intend to remain a major league city," the chamber said in telegrams to Joe Cronin, president of the American League, and baseball Commissioner Ford Frick.

J. R. Dominick II, president of the chamber, referred to continuing reports that Finley wants to move the club to another city.

He asked to meet with the other nine owners at a time and place of their choosing.

The potential buyer was not identified. A local group had been formed to buy the Athletics after the death of owner Arnold Johnson in March, 1960, but was outid by Finley who took over the club in December that year. Finley is an insurance executive in Chicago.

Last month it was reported Finley had talked with other league owners on the possibility of moving the Athletics to the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

Champ Arrives In Berlin For Title Defense

Johnson's party included trainer Harold (Skinny) Davidson, business representative George Gainford, and the wives of all three.

Ben Hogan Won't Enter U.S. Open

Hogan was scheduled to make his first qualifying test since 1940 in Pittsburgh Monday but reported from his hometown here that he had lost a week's struggle against bursitis.

"Naturally, I'm sorry I can't play," he said. "The only year I missed was the year of the wreck. But these things happen. The only thing I can say is that I'll try again next year."

"I didn't do anything for it," he said, "just tried to work it out. But it wouldn't work out."

He said he tried to practice Thursday and decided then that his arm wouldn't allow him to compete.

"I couldn't swing," he said.

Turnesa, whose home is in Elmsford, N.Y., was to have qualified in the New York area.

Because both Hogan and Turnesa were exempt from the local qualifying last month, their places in next week's sectional qualifying will be given to the Rochester, N.Y., and Philadelphia sectionals.

The Open will be played at Oakmont, near Pittsburgh, on June 14, 15 and 16.

It was at Oakmont that Hogan won his last Open title. That was in 1953, the year of his great triple slam of the Masters, U.S. and British Opens.

The 49-year-old millionaire golfer will miss his first U.S. Open since 1957 when he was forced to withdraw just before the tournament by a back ailment.

Bantam Ben won his other U.S. Opens in 1948, 1950 and 1951, the PGA in 1946 and 1948, and the Masters in 1951 and 1953.

Despite the triple slam of '53, 1950 probably was his most gratifying year. It was his comeback year after a near fatal car-bus accident in 1949. It was doubtful then that he could ever return to top flight competition.

But the Texan came back better than ever and tied Sam Snead for the Los Angeles Open. He lost in a playoff. Then he began another string of major conquests by capturing the 1950 U.S. Open.

FRANK ROBINSON (20) of the Cincinnati Reds kicks up a dust storm sliding head first into second base on a steal. It wasn't necessary at all. The throw from Chicago Cubs catcher El Tappe was high and went into center-field. Cubs shortstop Elder White is shown sprawling after leaping futilely for the ball. Ed Vargo is the umpire. Large Pelican League Field Shaping Up

WINNSBORO, La. (Special) — A 15 - team league of three divisions will play Pelican League baseball in the Fifth District of Louisiana this year.

Orville Elkin, Winnsboro, League president, and Woody Boyles, Oak Grove, district director, have announced the 1962 lineup of leagues for the 15 - 16 - 17-year - olds as follows:

North Division: Four clubs, all of West Monroe.

East Division: Seven teams of Winnsboro, Newellton, Rayville, Tallulah, Oak Grove, Epps, and Delhi.

South Division: Four clubs of Ferriday, Monterey, and two Vidalia teams.

Confined to Alexandria at the start, the league has grown state wide and is taking on a more interesting aspect.

In addition to the teams of the Fifth District, the league now boasts six teams in Alexandria, four for Rapides parish, four in LaSalle parish, eight in Vernon six in Jefferson, four in Bossier, four in Natchitoches, 4 at Houston, Tex., and four at Dothan, Ala., and interests in Arkansas and Mississippi are being shown.

Alexandria will host the "World Series" of Pelican League ball again this year.

New Records Expected For Compton Meet

COMPTON, Calif. (AP) — Outstanding performances and possibly world records are in prospect in the 23rd annual Compton Invitational track meet Saturday night.

International flavor will be provided by New Zealand's Murray Halberg, the 1690 Olympic champion in the 5,000-meter run.

Halberg has run the distance this year in 13 minutes 38.4 seconds. Last year in Europe he was clocked in 13:35.2 to threaten the world mark of 13:35.0 held by Russia's Vladimir Kuts.

The mile run features three Americans who have bettered 4 minutes — Jim Beaty and Jim Grelle of the Los Angeles Track Club, and Cary Weisiger of the Quantico Marines.

The foreign threat in the mile is another New Zealander, John Davies, who has a best time of 4:02.7.

Two shot put giants, Dallas Long of the University of Southern California, who bettered the world standard two weeks ago with a throw of 65 feet, 10½ inches, and New York University's Gary Gubner, are due to collide again.

Arizona State University's Ulis Williams, unbeaten this year, and Southern Cal's Rex Cawley are the leading contestants in the 440-yard dash.

Dave Tork (16-2) of the Camp Pendleton Marines is the stand out in the pole vault. The nation's other 16-foot vaulter, John Uelses, was scratched after an injury last week in the Modesto, Calif., Relays.

White Sox Edge Baltimore 3-2 In 11 Innings

BALTIMORE (AP) — Charlie Smith's bad hop single drove in the winning run Friday night as the Chicago White Sox edged the Baltimore Orioles 3-2 in 11 innings.

The one-out scratch hit bounced over shortstop Ron Hansen's head, scoring Floyd Robinson from second base with the tie-breaking run. Robinson had worked relief pitcher Hoyt Wilhelm for a walk and then stole second.

A pop fly double and a bloop single figured in the other Chicago runs. In the first inning, slugger Robinson's pop fly dropped into short center field for a double, scoring Joe Cunningham who had singled and stolen second base.

In the sixth a single by Jim Landis, a walk, and a bloop single to center by Sammy Esposito scored another run. The White Sox made six hits off three Oriole pitchers, two in each of their run-scoring innings.

The Orioles scored single runs in the eighth and ninth to send the game into extra innings.

A double by Russ Snyder chased home the first run. Jim Gentile singled to open the ninth. He was replaced by pinch runner Earl Robinson, who came around to score on singles by Jack Brandt and Ron Hansen.

Harrington Goes After Revenge In Scott Fight

NEW YORK (AP) — Stan Harrington, loser of the only bout he has fought outside of his native Hawaii, returns to the scene of the defeat Saturday night in an effort to even the score.

The 28-year-old Honolulu welterweight faces sharp-punching Charley Scott of Philadelphia in a 10-round television (ABC TV 9 p.m., EST) feature at Madison Square Garden. Scott, 26, has been made the 8-5 favorite although Harrington has a winning streak of five.

In his first venture on the mainland, the husky Harrington dropped a controversial, split decision to Gaspar Ortega of Mexico at the Garden, Jan. 7, 1960. A majority of ring critics thought Harrington deserved the nod despite Ortega's eye-catching finish in the last three rounds.

Harrington, a pro 8½ years, has a 40-8-4 won - lost - draw record, including 21 knockouts. But he has scored only one knockout in his last 19 fights. In his only scrap this year he outpointed L. C. Morgan.

Army Releases Reniff To Yanks

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The New York Yankees announced Friday that right-handed relief pitcher Hal Reniff would be discharged from the Army Monday and will report to the club Tuesday.

Under major league rules, Reniff will be permitted to work out for 15 days before being placed officially on the roster.

Red Sox Blank White Sox, 10-0

WINNSBORO (Special) — The Red Sox blanked the White Sox 10-0 in a Franklin - Caldwell Dixie League game Friday Greenberry Linder was the winning pitcher. He was relieved in the fifth by Floyd Henry, who finished the game.

David Shirley was the loser. He was replaced in the sixth by Rickey Griffing, who completed the game.

Hammons, with two for five, Linder, with for four and Ezell, with two for three, paced Red Sox batting. Ferris hit two for three to lead the White Sox.

FILES CLAIM

Injuries Affected Play Says Moore

BALTIMORE (AP) — Lenny Moore, all-pro halfback of the Baltimore Colts, testified Friday that two injuries he received in game competition had affected his play in the National Football League.

Moore appeared before the Maryland Workmen's Compensation Commission, which called a hearing to determine the nature and extent of the injuries.

Moore, who in his claim said he had an average weekly salary of $400, testified he injured the ring finger of his right hand while trying to catch a pass in the opening game of the 1961 season.

He said the finger has been "tender and bothersome" since, and he no longer has the strength and flexibility in his right hand that he has in his left hand.

Dr. Edmond J. McDonnell, testifying for the state accident fund, said X rays indicated there will be a permanent swelling of the finger.

Moore also testified that he suffered a sprained ankle while "cutting, trying to get away from a tackler," in Chicago last Oct. 15, and he since has suffered "a constant ache" in his left foot.

Daniel Doherty, chairman of the compensation commission, said Moore's case was not unusual, claims in the past.

H. Morton Rosen, one of Moore's attorneys, said athletes have as much right to file claims as industrial workers.

"We do it for the lifetime protection of the worker, or in this case the athlete," he said.

Willie Remembers Polo Ground Days

By JIM BECKER

NEW YORK (AP)—The first man in line when the Polo Grounds opened Friday night plumped down his money, strode briskly to a grandstand seat, settled back, looked out at the empty diamond and shouted:

"Where's Willie?"

Soon he had plenty of company on this rare June night when Willie Mays came home to play to a full house in the park where he began his climb to all-time greatness.

"Are you going to play for the Mets tonight?" asked another.

The great center fielder, looking strangely out of place on those steps in a visiting grey uniform, serious, as if he had to explain where he had been lately, "But I'm in San Francisco now."

"They don't appreciate you out there," a man said.

"Well, maybe not at first, but I think things are all right now," Mays said.

And then Mays, trailing a school of photographers, made his way across the diamond, past the spot where he made the catch that won a World Series—against Cleveland in 1954 to take the starch out of the Indians—past the dugout where Leo Durocher held sway in Willie's great years and on to the visitors' bench.

"I played my first major league game here," he remembered of the days he brought his big smile and rippling muscles and "Say, Hey" chatter to the big town and sparked the Giants to two pennants.

"I went 0-for-12 and then I got my first major league hit here against Warren Spahn and then I went 0-for-12 again. But they stayed with me and things got better."

Then came the pennant, and then the drought at the gate, and then the move of the Giants to San Francisco.

And now he was back where it all began, cavorting around the infield during batting practice, driving one half a mile to the delighted cheers of the early crowd, always moving, smiling.

"Where you been all day?" asked one friend. "I've been trying to call you.

"I had to get a haircut, and then see my lawyers, and the equipment company people, and arrange for some tickets for friends," said Mays. "I've been going all day. I got a lot of friends in this town."

Pirates Claim Sixth In Row With 8-4 Win

The Pirates pounded out 13 hits. The attack was sparked by Roberto Clemente, who homered, doubled, and singled, and Smoky Burgess, who belted a double and two singles.

The Colts pounded Pirate pitching for 12 hits but only one, a double, by Joe Amalfitano, was for extra bases.

Elroy Face, the last of three Pirate hurlers, was tentatively credited with the victory, the official scorer saying he would allow the league office to officially designate the winner.

Jim Golden, who shut out the Pirates 2-0 at Houston last Saturday, was the Colts' starting pitcher, but he was shelled from the mound in the third. Golden was charged with the loss and is now 3-2.

Joe Gibbon, up from the minors where he was nursing a sore elbow, started his first game of the season for Pittsburgh. He lasted until the fifth when he issued two singles and back-to-back walks that forced in a Houston run and left the bases loaded with nobody out. Reliever Jack LaMabe then retired the side without allowing a run to score.

Kansas Dispute Caused By Prep Football Star

SALINA, Kan. (AP) — A star football player at Salina High School became the center of a recruiting dispute Friday between the University of Kansas and Kansas State University.

Both schools claim the senior, Lynn Senkbeil, a 6-foot-2, 190-pound tackle.

A Kansas announcement that Senkbeil had notified Coach Jack Mitchell he intends to enroll at K.U. touched off the controversy.

Kansas State said that Senkbeil had previously announced he would enroll at K-State. Bebe Lee, K-State athletic director, said it also received a letter from the boy saying he had changed his mind.

"I don't know that this is a closed case," Lee said. "I think we might have a chance with this boy yet." Coach Doug Weaver of Kansas State said he was "extremely disappointed."

Contacted by Radio Station KSAL, young Senkbeil said he decided on K.U. after Don Fambrought, an assistant Kansas coach, assured him of an engineering scholarship under which he would play football.

Reds Continue Surge; Defeat Chicago, 5-2

CHICAGO (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds, winners of 19 of 25 games during May, launched June with a 5-2 conquest of the Chicago Cubs Friday.

The Reds, making their 1962 Chicago debut, lost little time fashioning a 4-0 lead in the first inning to send big Joey Jay on his way to his eighth victory. Jay, who has lost four, gave up seven hits in his 13th start and sixth route-going performance.

Ten Cincinnati batters went to the plate in the first inning as Frank Robinson's single scored Marty Keough, who had tripled with the first run. Jerry Lynch doubled to score Robinson after Frank stole second.

Loser Don Cardwell then served his 11th homer of the year to Gordy Coleman, whose drive into the right field bleachers was his seventh home run of the year.

Rookie second baseman Ken Hubbs hit his second homer in as many games in the first inning. It was Hubbs' third of the season.

The Cubs went down to their seventh loss in the last eight eight games—and their fourth in a row to the third place Reds.

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Righthander Bob Shaw hurled Milwaukee's first shutout and batterymate Del Crandall drove in five runs Friday night as the Braves belted the St. Louis Cardinals 7-0.

Shaw, obtained from the Kansas City Athletics last winter, scattered five hits in breezing to his sixth victory in eight decisions. He struck out five and didn't walk a batter as he lowered his earned run average to 1.91 in 85 1-3 innings.

Crandall, hitless in 17 straight at bats, had a pair of run-producing singles and a bases-loaded triple.

The veteran receiver singled in the second after Gus Bell collected the first of his two triples. Bell tripled across two runs in the third and then scored on a hit by Crandall.

The Braves added three in the seventh on a double by Roy McMillin, two walks and Crandall's triple.

Shaw didn't allow a hit after Charlie James singled in the fifth. James was erased in a double play and the Cardinals went down in order the rest of the way.

The loss was charged to starter Larry Jackson, who is 4-6.

Star Golfers Enter State Amateur Meet

By STUART HILL
World Sports Writer

The Bayou DeSiard Country Club will play host to several top golfers from throughout the state here June 6-10 at the annual Louisiana State Amateur Golf Tournament.

Burt Burdick of Baton Rouge will defend his title on the 6,340-yard par 70 course against a field of strong contenders from the Monroe area and other parts of Louisiana.

Qualifing rounds are slated Wednesday with 32 low qualifers making up the championship flight. The championship flight will be medal play and the remaining flights match play.

Parings and starting times will be announced Wednesday.

New Orleans City Champion, Charles DeLeverne, and New Orleans City Junior Champion, Wally Biessy, are expected to be the major contenders for the title from the Crescent City.

Bill Ramsey, D. Y. Smith, B. J. Murphy, Pat McGonigall and and John Bird, all of Shreveport, are listed as the top contenders from the northwestern section of the state.

Ramsey currently Shreveport Country Club's champ had chalked up a one-under-par effort in a nine-hole practice round earlier this week.

Athletics Have Buyer In Case Finley Unhappy

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Chamber of Commerce says it has someone ready to buy the Kansas City Athletics if owner Charles Finley is not happy with his franchise.

"Under any condition, we intend to remain a major league city," the chamber said in telegrams to Joe Cronin, president of the American League, and baseball Commissioner Ford Frick.

J. R. Dominick II, president of the chamber, referred to continuing reports that Finley wants to move the club to another city.

He asked to meet with the other nine owners at a time and place of their choosing.

The potential buyer was not identified. A local group had been formed to buy the Athletics after the death of owner Arnold Johnson in March, 1960, but was outid by Finley who took over the club in December that year. Finley is an insurance executive in Chicago.

Last month it was reported Finley had talked with other league owners on the possibility of moving the Athletics to the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

Champ Arrives In Berlin For Title Defense

Johnson's party included trainer Harold (Skinny) Davidson, business representative George Gainford, and the wives of all three.

SATURDAY MORNING

Big Parade Keynotes Baseball Day Locally

Over one-thousand boys in the Monroe Dixie and Little Leagues will march downtown this morning in a parade commemorating "Baseball Day" here.

The parade, complete with city police and fire department units plus a jazz band will form at the old Central Grammer school grounds at 9:30 a.m.

It will start westward on Wood street to South Grand, then go north to DeSiard and east to Sixth.

Some 1,040 boys, representing the 57 teams in the two leagues, will participate.

In addition, directors of Little League and Dixie League, plus recreation officials will join in the parade.

"This parade will show Monroe the growth of the Little League program here and how it has expanded from that single league and less than a hundred boys," said Saul Adler, president of Monroe Little League, Inc. in explaining the expansion of the program during its 12 year history.

"All the credit for the advancement of this program belongs with our businessmen and interested individuals who made the contributions necessary to support the boys, the teams, and even provide the miniature parks at which they play," said Adler. "When they see these more than a thousand boys walking along DeSiard street Saturday they will know their dollars are well spent."

Jack Hesketh, Monroe recreation director and Little League secretary, plans to march the teams in alphabetical order according to the sponsor's names.

The program is divided into two Dixie Leagues of nine teams, 16 Little League clubs in three circuits and 32 Minor League teams within the Little League organization.

DESPITE RIBBINGS

Colts Get Orders; Wear Your Boots

HOUSTON (AP)—The Houston Colts have received a mandate to wear their blue western hats and boots on road trips.

There has been a bit of grumbling about rodeos ever since owners of the new National League club purchased the $200 outfits for travel wear at the start of the season.

About 10 players failed to wear the western garb on a Monday trip from Cincinnati to Chicago.

Western garb was the subject under discussion yesterday in Chicago as Manager Harry Craft held a closed door session with his players.

Craft refused to discuss what took place but he did say:

"They voted 100 per cent for the western suit before the start of the season."

"We will wear the suits," said Hal Smith, catcher and player representative. "We voted to wear them. That's all there is to it."

From all reports, the players, in effect, were advised: "You voted for the western outfits; now wear them."

Some players had said they were a bit sensitive to such airport and stadium remarks as "Where is the rodeo?" and "Where's your horse?"

Several had said they thought the suits and the blue hats and boots gave the ball club a circus-like appearance.

Pitcher Dick Farrell was among those out of proper travel uniform for the Cincinnati-Chicago trip.

"Mine needed pressing," Farrell said. "That's all. I think the suits are great for travel."

Pidge Browne, a first baseman, agreed.

"I'll wear my suit all the time but not when it's not presentable," Browne said. "Mine needed pressing."

Local Men In Shreveport Race Sunday

SHREVEPORT (Special) — Shervepor's State Fair Speedway, a one - half mile dirt track, is expected to be faster, safer, and smoother Sunday when a field of more than 35 drivers compete for a share of $2,250 in a seven-event program of hot rod and jalopy races.

E. E. Truitt Jr., manager of Shreveport Speedways, reports that recent improvements have been completed on the track. Six inches of top dirt was removed after which six tons of calcium was spread into the track. Then the dirt that was removed was replaced. Truitt says the work will remove all of the previous holes that handicapped speed competition.

Truitt predicts that the hot rods will be clocked at better than 115 miles per hour int he straightaways during Sunday's competition.

Among the Monroe area drivers to compete in the second jalopy and sportsman type of competition Sunday at Shreveport are Royce Whitlock, A. J. Whitlock, Bob Shoemaker, Red Futch, Billy Bayles, Sonny McDougle and Jimmie Wilson.

Sunday's time trials will start at 12:30 o'clock with the first race set for 2:30 o'clock.

Lifter Starts Eating Kick To Win 2nd Title

DETROIT (AP) — Chuck Vinci has gone on an eating spree to gain weight and build up his muscles with one aim in mind—to climb two weight divisions and still be a National AAU weightlifting champion.

The strongboy from Cleveland is performing an unusual experiment in jumping from the 123-pound class, which he won last year, to the 148-pound division in the AAU event Saturday and Sunday.

Four other defending champions are content to try for another national crown in the same classes they ruled in 1961

Bill March of York, Pa., 1961 winner in the 198-pound class, finds Clyde Emrich of Chicago his strongest challenger. Emrich has been an Olympic weightlifter.

In the glamour division — the heavyweight — the title has been vacated by Jim Bradford of Washington. Favored to win is world recordholder and three-time Olympic medal winner, Norb Schemansky of Detroit.

Schemansky, who weighs in at 255 pounds, has recovered from the back ailment that sidelined him a year ago. A 10-time national champion, he set a world record of 362 pounds in the two-hand snatch five weeks ago

USL's Robinson Sets New NAIA Record In Mile

LAFAYETTE (Special) —Britisher Malcolm Robinson set a new National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) record in the mile run, and had times good enough to rank him in two other events to lead four USL tracksters to national acclaim in their specialities.

Robinson, a freshman at USL, raced to a 4:08.3 victory in the GSC mile at the league championship trials. That clocking shattered the NAIA four lap standard of 4:09.4 set by Ty Hadley of Occidental in 1957.

The Bulldog distance man had a winning time of 9:2.8 in the two mile event, good enough for fourth and a second place finish at 9:13.0 at the gigantic Southwestern Relays which, had it been recorded, would have given the Englander the nation's third best time in the two mile.

Recently, Robinson strided to a 14:32.2 three mile effort and that time will solidly entrench the Bulldog in third spot around the country.

Another freshman, Jim Domingue of Erath, finished in a tie for fourth in the 220 yard low hurdles. Domingue chased world's record holder Don Styron to the finish in the Gulf States Conference affair and was clocked in 23.1 seconds, a Southwestern record

Sophmore Pat Arceneaux hurled javelin 225 feet in the Southwestern Relays the third best throw in the nation's NAIA circles. His toes erased Bob Hartquit's school record.

Larry Simon, an All American basketballer for roundball coach Beryl Shiple, again came in for national honors with a 6 foot, 6 inch high jump in a dual meet with SLC. That leap gave Simon sixth place around the country. Simon is the team's only senior and was elected captain by his mates.

As a squad, USL finished second only to that powerful Styron led Northeast team in the Gulf States Conference meet and with the exception of Simon will return en masse next year.

Drama Figures In Latest Ring Magazine Picks

NEW YORK (AP)—There was a touch of drama in Ring Magazine's latest monthly ratings of the world's boxers.

Harold Johnson, the light heavyweight who fought in the shadow of Archie Moore for many years, finally earned Ring's recognition Friday as world light heavyweight champion for his victory over contender Doug Jones Moore now is considered champion by his home state of California.

Sugar Ray Robinson, former welterweight and any-times middleweight champion, was dropped from the ratings for the first time in more than 20 years, except for his retirement period of 1952-55. The 42-year-old New Yorker was erased from the list of contenders because of his inactivity.

Thailand's Pone Kingpetch, who was only four when Sugar Ray first started boxing professionally, was named Ring's fighter of the month for his successful defense of the world flyweight title against Japan's Kyo Noguchi at Tokyo.

Local Dixie, Pelican Drafts This Afternoon

Drafting of players for the Dixie and Pelican Leagues of West Monroe will take place this afternoon immediately after the final tryouts for the two baseball organizations.

Confederate Park at the Southside Playground will see the young baseball talent in its final bids for team selections. The Dixie League, for boys 13 and 14 years of age, begins its tryouts at 1 o'clock and the Pelican League starts its last drill at 3 o'clock.

Boys who played Rebel League ball last year are not required to tryout. They're automatically being absorbed into the two new leagues which are replacing Rebel Boys.

Judge John McCormick, president of the leagues, is planning a big opening night for the leagues when the four Pelican clubs and the six Dixie teams appear for 15 innings of baseball in which each team will appear for three innings of play.

2 Softballers Collide; One Dies Afterward

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Two softball players, each unaware the other was shouting "mine, mine," collided under an infield pop fly Thursday night, and one of them died minutes later.

Crawford, a catcher, and first baseman James Lovell, 23, of Springfield, Tenn., both charged down the first base line and called for the fly.

Players said either Crawford or Lovell could have caught the ball.

Woman Thinlie Said Doubtful Summer Runner

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Wilma Rudolph Ward's coach said Friday he was "awfully pessimistic" about the Olympic star's chances of running in the big track meets this summer

"She is a long way from getting ready," said Ed Temple, track coach at Tennessee A&I, where Mrs. Ward, "the fastest woman in the world," is a student.

"A virus got her down last January. Various ailments have plagued her ever since. Now she is 15 to 20 pounds overweight."

Temple said there was an outside chance she would compete in the Women's AAU meet at Los Angeles July 7-8.

"But unless she looks very good in the next few weeks and begins to run like her old self, she will not compete," Temple said.

Mrs. Ward, holder of the world's record of 11.2 seconds for the 100-meter dash, recently resumed her conditioning routine

JOHN L'S TAKE

Local Men In Shreveport Race Sunday

SHREVEPORT (Special) — Shreveport's State Fair Speedway, a one - half mile dirt track, is expected to be faster, safer, and smoother Sunday when a field of more than 35 drivers compete for a share of $2,250 in a seven-event program of hot rod and jalopy races.

E. E. Truitt Jr., manager of Shreveport Speedways, reports that recent improvements have been completed on the track. Six inches of top dirt was removed after which six tons of calcium was spread into the track. Then the dirt that was removed was replaced. Truitt says the work will remove all of the previous holes that handicapped speed competition.

Truitt predicts that the hot rods will be clocked at better than 115 miles per hour int he straightaways during Sunday's competition.

Among the Monroe area drivers to compete in the second jalopy and sportsman type of competition Sunday at Shreveport are Royce Whitlock, A. J. Whitlock, Bob Shoemaker, Red Futch, Billy Bayles, Sonny McDougle and Jimmie Wilson.

Sunday's time trials will start at 12:30 o'clock with the first race set for 2:30 o'clock.

Lifter Starts Eating Kick To Win 2nd Title

DETROIT (AP) — Chuck Vinci has gone on an eating spree to gain weight and build up his muscles with one aim in mind—to climb two weight divisions and still be a National AAU weightlifting champion.

The strongboy from Cleveland is performing an unusual experiment in jumping from the 123-pound class, which he won last year, to the 148-pound division in the AAU event Saturday and Sunday.

Four other defending champions are content to try for another national crown in the same classes they ruled in 1961.

Bill March of York, Pa., 1961 winner in the 198-pound class, finds Clyde Emrich of Chicago his strongest challenger. Emrich has been an Olympic weightlifter.

In the glamour division — the heavyweight — the title has been vacated by Jim Bradford of Washington. Favored to win is world recordholder and three-time Olympic medal winner, Norb Schemansky of Detroit.

Schemansky, who weighs in at 255 pounds, has recovered from the back ailment that sidelined him a year ago. A 10-time national champion, he set a world record of 362 pounds in the two-hand snatch five weeks ago.

SATURDAY MORNING

Big Parade Keynotes Baseball Day Locally

Over one-thousand boys in the Monroe Dixie and Little Leagues will march downtown this morning in a parade commemorating "Baseball Day" here.

The parade, complete with city police and fire department units plus a jazz band will form at the old Central Grammer school grounds at 9:30 a.m.

It will start westward on Wood street to South Grand, then go north to DeSiard and east to Sixth.

Some 1,040 boys, representing the 57 teams in the two leagues, will participate.

In addition, directors of Little League and Dixie League, plus recreation officials will join in the parade.

"This parade will show Monroe the growth of the Little League program here and how it has expanded from that single league and less than a hundred boys," said Saul Adler, president of Monroe Little League, Inc. in explaining the expansion of the program during its 12 year history.

"All the credit for the advancement of this program belongs with our businessmen and interested individuals who made the contributions necessary to support the boys, the teams, and even provide the miniature parks at which they play," said Adler. "When they see these more than a thousand boys walking along DeSiard street Saturday they will know their dollars are well spent."

Jack Hesketh, Monroe recreation director and Little League secretary, plans to march the teams in alphabetical order according to the sponsor's names.

The program is divided into two Dixie Leagues of nine teams, 16 Little League clubs in three circuits and 32 Minor League teams within the Little League organization.

DESPITE RIBBINGS

Colts Get Orders; Wear Your Boots

HOUSTON (AP)—The Houston Colts have received a mandate to wear their blue western hats and boots on road trips.

There has been a bit of grumbling about rodeos ever since owners of the new National League club purchased the $200 outfits for travel wear at the start of the season.

About 10 players failed to wear the western garb on a Monday trip from Cincinnati to Chicago.

Western garb was the subject under discussion yesterday in Chicago as Manager Harry Craft held a closed door session with his players.

Craft refused to discuss what took place but he did say:

"They voted 100 per cent for the western suit before the start of the season."

"We will wear the suits," said Hal Smith, catcher and player representative. "We voted to wear them. That's all there is to it."

From all reports, the players, in effect, were advised: "You voted for the western outfits; now wear them."

Some players had said they were a bit sensitive to such airport and stadium remarks as "Where is the rodeo?" and "Where's your horse?"

Several had said they thought the suits and the blue hats and boots gave the ball club a circus-like appearance.

Pitcher Dick Farrell was among those out of proper travel uniform for the Cincinnati-Chicago trip.

"Mine needed pressing," Farrell said. "That's all. I think the suits are great for travel."

Pidge Browne, a first baseman, agreed.

"I'll wear my suit all the time but not when it's not presentable," Browne said. "Mine needed pressing."

USL's Robinson Sets New NAIA Record In Mile

LAFAYETTE (Special) —Britisher Malcolm Robinson set a new National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) record in the mile run, and had times good enough to rank him in two other events to lead four USL tracksters to national acclaim in their specialities.

Robinson, a freshman at USL, raced to a 4:08.3 victory in the GSC mile at the league championship trials. That clocking shattered the NAIA four lap standard of 4:09.4 set by Ty Hadley of Occidental in 1957.

The Bulldog distance man had a winning time of 9:2.8 in the two mile event, good enough for fourth and a second place finish at 9:13.0 at the gigantic Southwestern Relays which, had it been recorded, would have given the Englander the nation's third best time in the two mile.

Recently, Robinson strided to a 14:32.2 three mile effort and that time will solidly entrench the Bulldog in third spot around the country.

Another freshman, Jim Domingue of Erath, finished in a tie for fourth in the 220 yard low hurdles. Domingue chased world's record holder Don Styron to the finish in the Gulf States Conference affair and was clocked in 23.1 seconds, a Southwestern record.

Sophmore Pat Arceneaux hurled javelin 225 feet in the Southwestern Relays the third best throw in the nation's NAIA circles. His toes erased Bob Hartquit's school record.

Larry Simon, an All American basketballer for roundball coach Beryl Shiple, again came in for national honors with a 6 foot, 6 inch high jump in a dual meet with SLC. That leap gave Simon sixth place around the country. Simon is the team's only senior and was elected captain by his mates.

As a squad, USL finished second only to that powerful Styron led Northeast team in the Gulf States Conference meet and with the exception of Simon will return en masse next year.

Drama Figures In Latest Ring Magazine Picks

Harold Johnson, the light heavyweight who fought in the shadow of Archie Moore for many years, finally earned Ring's recognition Friday as world light heavyweight champion for his victory over contender Doug Jones. Moore now is considered champion by his home state of California.

Sugar Ray Robinson, former welterweight and any-times middleweight champion, was dropped from the ratings for the first time in more than 20 years, except for his retirement period of 1952-55. The 42-year-old New Yorker was erased from the list of contenders because of his inactivity.

Thailand's Pone Kingpetch, who was only four when Sugar Ray first started boxing professionally, was named Ring's fighter of the month for his successful defense of the world flyweight title against Japan's Kyo Noguchi at Tokyo.

Local Dixie, Pelican Drafts This Afternoon

Drafting of players for the Dixie and Pelican Leagues of West Monroe will take place this afternoon immediately after the final tryouts for the two baseball organizations.

Confederate Park at the Southside Playground will see the young baseball talent in its final bids for team selections. The Dixie League, for boys 13 and 14 years of age, begins its tryouts at 1 o'clock and the Pelican League starts its last drill at 3 o'clock.

Boys who played Rebel League ball last year are not required to tryout. They're automatically being absorbed into the two new leagues which are replacing Rebel Boys.

Judge John McCormick, president of the leagues, is planning a big opening night for the leagues when the four Pelican clubs and the six Dixie teams appear for 15 innings of baseball in which each team will appear for three innings of play.

2 Softballers Collide; One Dies Afterward

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Two softball players, each unaware the other was shouting "mine, mine," collided under an infield pop fly Thursday night, and one of them died minutes later.

Crawford, a catcher, and first baseman James Lovell, 23, of Springfield, Tenn., both charged down the first base line and called for the fly.

Players said either Crawford or Lovell could have caught the ball.

Woman Thinlie Said Doubtful Summer Runner

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Wilma Rudolph Ward's coach said Friday he was "awfully pessimistic" about the Olympic star's chances of running in the big track meets this summer.

"She is a long way from getting ready," said Ed Temple, track coach at Tennessee A&I, where Mrs. Ward, "the fastest woman in the world," is a student.

"A virus got her down last January. Various ailments have plagued her ever since. Now she is 15 to 20 pounds overweight."

Temple said there was an outside chance she would compete in the Women's AAU meet at Los Angeles July 7-8.

"But unless she looks very good in the next few weeks and begins to run like her old self, she will not compete," Temple said.

Mrs. Ward, holder of the world's record of 11.2 seconds for the 100-meter dash, recently resumed her conditioning routine.

JOHN L'S TAKE

Freedom Bus North Chairman Slaps Back At Critics In Massachusetts

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) — The chairman of the Freedom Bus North movement of the Louisiana Citizens Council slapped back at a Massachusetts group Friday after it accused the Louisiana segregation group of lacking "morality and decency."

Ned Touchstone of Bossier City referred to a statement by the refugee relief committee of Hyannis, Mass., condemning the sending of Louisiana Negroes north with their one-way transportation paid.

The Massachusetts group accused the Citizens Council of Louisiana, Inc., of being fanatical bigots who slip sorrowing wayfarers like livestock to satisfy a cruel whim."

Touchstone issued this statement in reply:

"A marvelous example of their compassion can be found in the Salem witch trials and in the building of many Massachusetts fortunes on importation of helpless slaves from their jungle existence in Africa and from sordid traffic of all sorts."

The language used in criticizing the Citizens Council, Touchstone said, was "hardly befitting of a gentleman."

Touchstone announced the launching of a Southern CARE package program to send clothing and food to those Negroes who accept the one-way rides. He said the program started when the Citizens Council learned Negroes reportedly were not allowed to eat at a white restaurant in Hyannis.

Meanwhile, a 24-year-old unemployed waiter, Wallace Kirksey Jr., Friday became the 22nd Negro to leave Shreveport under the free ride program and was the 11th to go to Hyannis, near the summer home of President Kennedy.

Final Courtesies Honor Young Couple Prior To Wedding Of This Evening

As a final courtesy extended to Miss Betsy Blackmon and Stephen Neil Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Smith hosted a dinner party at the Paragon Club last evening following the wedding rehearsal. The vows will be solemnized this evening at the Parkview Baptist Church in Monroe. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Blackmon, and Mrs. W. C. Smith and the late Mr. Smith.

Placed on the bridal table was an arrangement of yellow roses interspersed with white stock, flanked by silver candelabra holding yellow candles, with smaller matching bouquets centering the individual tables.

Yellow and white place cards marked the places for the wedding party who in addition to the young couple and their parents were Miss Beverly Blackmon, Mr. Phil Guthrie, Miss Jill Smith, Mr. Sterling Smith, Miss Nancy Langford, Mr. Marvin Bouma, Miss Mildred Levi, Mr. John Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Alexander, Miss Jan Blackmon, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Hollyfield, Mr. and Mrs. William Wilkerson, Mrs. Aileen Guthrie, Miss Linda Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Griffis, Miss Jayne Griffis, the Rev. and Mrs. H. L. Sampson, and Mr. Mel Anhalt.

LUNCHEON

Mrs. Albin P. Lassiter was hostess for a luncheon at the Paragon Club on June 1, honoring Miss Blackmon.

A white arrangement of candy tuft and gladioli formed the centerpiece for the table, with wedding bell place cards marking each place, and a tiny bride and groom signifying the honoree's place. Mrs. Lassiter's gift to Miss Blackmon was a crystal pitcher banded in silver.

Those enjoying the party with the hostess and honoree were Miss Beverly Blackmon, Mrs. Paul Blackmon, Miss Jill Smith, Mrs. W. C. Smith, Miss Mildred Levi, Miss Nancy Langford, Mrs. W. A. Allen, and Mrs. Perry Lassiter.

Women Seem To Want Current Short Hemline

By FLORENCE de SANTIS

Over the past few seasons hemlines have been rising. They have risen so far, according to designers, that they are now at a knee-revealing height close to that of the 1920's.

It's impossible to sit down in a narrow - skirted dress these days without having the skirt ride up the thigh. Now this is all very well for youngsters and the few who may wish to display that much leg, but what about the rest of us?

The fashion makers haven't consulted women themselves about short hems. They simply gabble on about them being "smarter," if that means anything. Hem lengths or varying heights have been just as "smart" in other eras.

For my money the proportions of art still hold. If a full skirt, then it can be short and still be graceful. But if narrower it should be long enough for the wearer to sit down and still have the kneecap covered.

The country is threatened with a new fashion fad — Cleopatra. Hairdos, makeup, hats and clothes are all pouring out to satisfy the interest engendered by a much publicized movie that isn't even finished.

Individually, a lot of the Cleopatra items are just as attractive as they were in ancient Egypt. But go easy on the Cleopatra look. If done completely, it looks like something for a masquerade ball.

The hairdos, for example, are suitable only for evening, ditto the makeup unless much toned down. The jewelry is quite elaborate, needs to be worn with caution.

Best way to handle the Celopatra look is to choose one or two items to be worn with a basically simple costume. A colorful collar necklace is all a dress needs. If Cleopatra hairdo is done for evening, leave off earrings, do the makeup subtly.

ANNOUNCEMENT is made by Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Arnold, Lake Providence, of the approaching marriage of their daughter, Mary Ann Arnold to Johnny Scott Braswell, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Braswell, Transylvania. The wedding will take place June 11 at 5 p.m. in the First Baptist Church, Transylvania.

TO WED JUNE 11 are Miss Janice Roberta Johnson and Charles Sparks Rees of Baton Rouge, whose forthcoming marriage is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dennis Johnson of Lake Providence. The wedding will be solemnized at 7 p.m. in the University Methodist Church at Baton Rouge.

West Monroe Opti-Mrs. Club Hold Meet

Comfortable casual clothes were the attire for members of the West Monroe Opti-Mrs. Club when it held a "Patio Party" in the home of Mrs. W. S. Eastburn on 101 Sharon Drive on May 24 at 7:00 p.m.

Mrs. Louis George, nominating chairman, gave her committee report and the following officers were elected: Mrs. Robroy Young, president; Mrs. Jack T. Young, vice president; Mrs. Wood Sers, secretary - treasurer; and Mrs. Lake Oxford, reporter and historian.

A change was made to a day time meeting. The regular meeting time will be held on the fourth Thursday of each month at 1:00 p.m.

The installation of officers will be held in conjunction with the West Monroe Optimist Club on June 26 at the Highland Park Country Club. This will constitute the Opti-Mrs. Club's June meeting.

Plans for the club's annual style show to be held at the Paragon Club on August 4th were discussed with the following chairmen appointed: Mrs. Alan Roberson, general chairman, Mrs. Louis George publicity, and Mrs. W. S. Eastburn, ticket chairman. The club will co-sponsor this style show with the Monroe Opti-Mrs. Club.

Refreshments were served by the hostess to the following members: Mrs. A. B. Little, Mrs. W. L. Kelly, Mrs. Jack T. Young, Mrs. Robroy Young, Mrs. Louis George and Mrs. Alan Roberson.

Comfortable casual clothes were the attire for members of the West Monroe Opti-Mrs. Club when it held a "Patio Party" in the home of Mrs. W. S. Eastburn on 101 Sharon Drive on May 24 at 7:00 p.m.

Mrs. Louis George, nominating chairman, gave her committee report and the following officers were elected: Mrs. Robroy Young, president; Mrs. Jack T. Young, vice president; Mrs. Wood Sers, secretary - treasurer; and Mrs. Lake Oxford, reporter and historian.

A change was made to a day time meeting. The regular meeting time will be held on the fourth Thursday of each month at 1:00 p.m.

The installation of officers will be held in conjunction with the West Monroe Optimist Club on June 26 at the Highland Park Country Club. This will constitute the Opti-Mrs. Club's June meeting.

Plans for the club's annual style show to be held at the Paragon Club on August 4th were discussed with the following chairmen appointed: Mrs. Alan Roberson, general chairman, Mrs. Louis George publicity, and Mrs. W. S. Eastburn, ticket chairman. The club will co-sponsor this style show with the Monroe Opti-Mrs. Club.

Theus Island Drive Home Scene Of Afternoon Tea

The E. K. Theus home on Island Drive was the scene for a lovely tea on Friday afternoon, hosted by Mrs. Jay Adams, Mrs. Lamar Buffington and Mrs. Bachman Lee.

Placed on an antique table in the entrance hall, where the hostesses greeted the many guests, was an arrangement of roses in shades of pink, placed in a white china tureen. The living room featured two beautiful arrangements, one of pink roses, sweet peas and Queen Annes lace held by a crystal compote, and on the secretary in a silver bowl were dainty bay magnolias.

Covering the tea table was a white linen cutwork cloth, centered by a massive bouquet of white chrysanthemums and ivy placed in a silver epergne, with white candles spiraling from four sides. The party pastries were held by silver trays. On a smaller table was the punch bowl containing a colorful ice mold of various fruits. Brass scales enhanced by day lilies and daisies were on the sun porch beside another punch bowl nestled in a wicker basket.

THE FRANCES Hotel Roof was the scene when Ouachita graduates were honored by the Ouachita Parish Alumni Banquet. Among the alumni gathering for the evening banquet were from left, Mr. N. W. McHenry, Mrs. N. W. McHenry, Mrs. J. W. Golson, Miss Grace Carter, Mrs. J. B. Thornhill and Mrs. R. L. Wood.

Ouachita Graduates Feted At Alumni Banquet

Ouachita Graduates of 1962 were honored when the annual Ouachita Parish Alumni Banquet was held on the Frances Hotel Roof. Tables attractively decorated with ivy had graduate dolls attired in red and white caps and gowns at each place setting, minature white candles in red candle holders added to the decorations with the programs in the shape of little red schoolhouses. The head table featured arrangements of magnolias and red tapers.

Dr. Max Funderburk, president of Ouachita Alumni Association served as Master of Ceremonies, and recognized graduates of 1912, 1922, 1932, 1942, and 1952. The five graduates of 1912 were given special recognition. The 1962 Graduates were welcomed into the Association with a response by Danny Tousineau, Class President. Sam Walker, president of the Class of 1937, gave a response on behalf of his class which also received special recognition at this time.

Guest speaker was Mr. George Brian of Northeast State College Speech Department. Mr. Brian gave a challenging talk to the Graduates of 1962 and others present. He remined everyone the last part of American spells "I can."

A highlight of the evening was the recognition of the guest of honor Miss Grace Carter of Blue Mountain, Mississippi. Miss Carter, who taught at O. P. H. S. for thirty - four years, was given a standing ovation after having been presented a corsage by Jackye Burris, Senior Class Treasurer.

Alumni Officers elected to serve for the ensuing year are Mr. Henry Camp, President; Mrs. Bob Carter, Vice President; Mrs. Percy Lee Johnson, Secretary Treasurer; and Mr. Roland Carter, Publicity Chairman. Senior sponsors who coordinated the banquet and other class activities were Mr. E. M. Wooten and Mrs. S. T. Howell.

South Dakota Expects Light Primary Vote

PIERRE, S.D. (AP) — The South Dakota voter turnout for the June 5 primary is expected to be light with only two major contrests on the ballot.

The only other primary race generating interest is the Democratic contest for 1st district congressman. State Rep. George May of Aberdeen and Ralph Nauman of Gettsburg are battling for the nomination.

IT'S CROWDED AT THE TOP

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — The naming of class valedictorian and salutatorian at a high school in nearby Pittsford was dropped this year.

Arnold Carslon, school principal, said all seniors with averages of 90 per cent or better would be honored.

"When tenths or hundredths of a point are separating factors (in determining top students) there has been some question over the years by educators and parents as to the selection of two top students."

CAN'T TELL THE BUTTONS WITHOUT A SCORECARD

KETTERING, Ohio (AP) — The trouble with the push - button age is that someone invariably pushes the wrong button.

A group of foreign visitors were observing operations of a local supermarket when a light went out inside a walk - in cooler. A button found by one of the visitors didn't turn on the lights, but it did sound an alarm at police headquarters.

WONDER IF IT WAS LOADED

Tea Shower Compliments Miss Selma Sue Corbin

Continuing the courtesies honoring Miss Selma Sue Corbin, bride-elect of Thomas Edwin Davis, was a tea shower hosted in the Roselawn home of Mrs. W. H. Soureal, assisted by Mrs. John Tolar, Wednesday afternoon, May 27, between the hours of 3 to 5 p.m. The couple will wed at the First Baptist Church, Monroe, Friday June 15.

Covering the refreshment table was a white embroidered linen cloth, which held an alter arrangement formed by white gladioli, pink roses, and Queen Anne's lace, placed in a crystal epergne surrounded by white candles. Crystal trays held the tiny pastries which carried out the pink and white color scheme. Presiding at the silver tea service was Miss Katherine McNeer.

A bouquet of pink calla lilies combined with green foilage and white summer chrysanthemums enhanced by a minature bride and groom decorated the round register table which was covered by a pink linen cloth, fringed in white. Guests were registered by Miss Mary Louise Tolar, and Miss Marilyn Corbin arranged the gifts.

Miss Corbin was wearing a beige shirtwaist sheath, with alternating rows of tiny pleats and embroidered lace, which extended from the top of the bodice to the hemline and tiny pearl buttons down the front. Bone and pink accessories, and corsage of white dwarf gardenias completed the ensemble.

Approximately 100 guests were invited to share this occasion with the bride - elect.

Youth Armless Since Birth To Get Diploma

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)— Robert W. Breen, 19, armless since birth, will be graduated with his classmates at Kelloggsville High School this month.

He pitches in sand lot ball games under a provision allowing him a substitute for his times at bat. His typing speed is 32 words per minute.

British Name Envoy To Laos

LONDON (AP)—Britain on Friday named Donald C. Hopson, 46, a career diplomat who has been working in the Foreign Office, as new ambassador to the kingdom of Laos.

Hopson takes over from John M. Addis, who has been reassigned for the 1962-63 academic year to the center for international studies at Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass.

Voice Of Broadway

By DOROTHY KILGALLEN

This week's stock market plunge practically wiped out show business in the Catskills—usually swinging this time of year. So many hotels received cancellations that they, in turn, cancelled their entertainment. One famous booker of Catskill acts is stuck with hundreds of cancelled performers. Show business experts say they've never seen anything like it . . . Ralph Burns, the talented composer-arranger (he did the brilliant job on Richard Rodgers' score for "No Strings") is recuperating after an emergency appendectomy at a New York hospital . . . Rock Hudson surprised Marilyn Maxwell and showed up at her night-club premiere in Tucson the other night. Before that, he'd been telephoning her all the way from Europe—so who knows?

Darryl Zanuck plans a glittering world premiere of "The Longest Day" in Paris. There's a chance that President De Gaulle, who rarely attends movies, will show up as a tribute to the heroes of the invasion. Also invited to the gala is Mme Leonard Gille, the most decorated woman in France. She's credited with saving the lives of 68 allied fliers during the occupation. . . . Some of the love scenes from "Phaedra," starring Tony Perkins and Melina Mercouri, rate among the most sizzling ever filmed. They may never be shown on local screens, but they're history-making, just the same . . . As German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer grows older, Foreign Minister Gerhard Schroeder is the man to watch in the power play.

Mary Martin looked the cutest at the Colony the other day, wearing a black sailor suit by Mainbocher. Her hair is now quite long, and she wears a most becoming chignon . . . Kim Novack must be desperate for publicity, giving out that interview proclaiming "I Have to Kill" to a scandal sheet . . . Tony Bennett, in the same edition of the same classy blat, admitted, "I'm no singer." You said it, honey, I didn't . . . Harry Belafonte, one of the genuinely civic-minded entertainers, will donate his talent to a benefit for Martin Luther King in Atlanta on June 6 and will appear in a concert at Carnegie Hall on Oct. 19, for the Samuel Z. Levine Foundation for International Child Health. And Harry CAN sing.

The Judy Garland saga is becoming a rather funny farce, with overtones of tragedy because her children are involved. First Judy bombed over to London to get the children away from Sid Luft, her estranged husband. Then Sid jetted to England to get the children back. Then a girl who works in a New York office left her job and flew over to get Sid back, because she's just crazy about him . . . Two key members of the Benny Goodman entourage were not able to leave when the rest of the group winged to Moscow. The stage manager and the recording engineer were held up because their necessary papers hadn't come through. There was no official explanation for the delay.

Goodness, Mort Sahl is being mighty harsh on the Kennedy family in his routine at Basin Street. His diatribes at JFK are rougher than they were at President Eisenhower . . . The widely publicized sale of Skinny D'Amato's 500 Club in Atlantic City was quietly cancelled a couple of days ago. Skinny still plans to spend a lot of time in Lake Tahoe, but he'll hold onto his controlling interest in the 500—the goose that lays those golden eggs. The inside story is interesting.

Jan Murry did 13 TV shows this past week, and in one he sang for the first time, thanks to five months of training with vocal coach Carlo Menotti. Menotti says the comedian now sings well enough to be a likely bet for a Broadway musical . . . The Theatre Guild wants to Gospel star Clara Ward for the Broadway production of "Tambourines to Glory." The multi-talented Clara would write the music and direct it, as well as act and sing in the Langston Hughes religious comedy. They're talking terms today.

Algiers Truce Is Continued By Secret Army

ALGIERS (UPI) — A Secret Army Organization (OAS) truce gave Algiers its second day of 1962 free of terrorist bloodshed Friday.

The OAS Thursday issued its truce orders effective until Sunday in leaflets scattered in Algiers, notably in the extremist-ridden Bab-El-Oued suburb. It made a private broadcast urging direct contacts between the OAS and the Moslem Nationalist Liberation Front (FLN).

The leaflets said the halt in terrorism was called to permit discussion between the two groups.

An immediate dividend for residents came when police put the curfew back to the former hours of midnight to 5 a.m. effective Friday night. Since May 2 when an OAS bomb killed 63 Moslems and wounded 110 on the waterfront the curfew has been from 8:30 p.m. to 6 a.m.

Income Tax Cuts Urged By Humphrey

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Assistant Senate Democratic Leader Hubert H. Humphrey—differing with administration spokesmen — Friday advocated swift income tax cuts to overcome economic weaknesses he said were shown in the stock market break.

The recommendation by the Minnesota Democrat put him at odds with Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana and Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon who see no necessity of enacting tax cut legislation to stabilize the market.

Humphrey, who met in New York Thursday with stock exchange officials and other financial leaders, urged prompt tax reductions for both individuals and corporations. He suggested they should be incorporated into the administration's tax bill when it reaches the Senate floor.

"There are certain weaknesses in the economy which have been reflected in recent stock market developments," he said, "and they need to be faced and acted on immediately."

Mansfield said in an interview that if the administration should decide to spur the economy with a tax cut, it should help individuals not corporations.

"I don't think taxes should be reduced," Mansfield said. "First quarter corporation profits were up—in some cases were exceptionally good."

DEAR ABBY

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am heartsick. Our 17-year-old son got a 17-year-old girl in trouble. We know her parents well. This girl has been boy-crazy since she was 14 and has given her parents lots of heartaches. Since this girl claims our son is responsible for her condition, our son proposed marriage, but she turned him down. Then her father called my husband and suggested they get together and talk things over. My husband met with him and agreed there should be a wedding. Our son asked her twice again and was refused. Her father said okay, no wedding, but we must pay the hospital bill, which we agreed to.

In the meantime, the girl said she was marrying an old sweetheart of hers. Well, that marriage never took place and now, all of a sudden, in her eighth month, she is begging our son to marry her to save her from disgrace. He wants to, but his father won't let him. I say let them marry, even if it ends in divorce. Please, Abby, what should be done about this mess?

MOTHER IN THE MIDDLE

DEAR MOTHER: The purpose of a marriage is not to "save people from disgrace." It is a serious lifetime contract. These 17-year-olds appear ill-prepared for such responsibilities. Unless a clergyman can give them a crash course in what is expected of the holy sacrament of marriage, which I doubt, I would not push too hard for a wedding. Furthermore, your boy offered to do "the right thing" when it made sense.

DEAR ABBY: There is a lady who lives in our neighborhood who is a real problem. She doesn't know how to drive an she can't park a car. Either her back end is sticking out in the street or else her front wheels are up on the curb. She has even parked on the sidewalk, and I'm not kidding. I swear I don't know how she got a driver's license. When people see her driving down the street, they pull over and give her the whole road. Shouldn't someone tell her to learn how to drive or to stop driving? I think she is a menace.

CONCERNED

DEAR CONCERNED: I'm surprised the local police haven't offered to give her a few lessons. Tip her off in the name of friendship and public safety.

DEAR ABBY: What on earth is wrong with a person who either has to monopolize the entire conversation or else stays completely out of it? She also breaks into the conversation when others are talking and changes the subject to suit herself.

F. S.

DEAR F. S. The behavior you describe is typical of a person with defective hearing. Unless she does all the talking, she feels "out of it" because she can't hear what's going on. Encourage your friend to have her hearing tested.

Keel Is Laid For Polaris Sub

The nuclear sub, in the Lafayette class, is one of seven Polaris vessels now under construction at the yards.

The keel plate was laid without ceremony in the building ways vacated by the 425-foot, 7,000-ton Lafayette, which was christened last month by Mrs. John F. Kennedy.

Famous Ballet Firm Disbands

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Marquise De Cuevas International Ballet, one of the world's leading dance companies, will be disbanded at the end of this month, it was announced Friday.

The Ballet Institute, the foundation which has managed the ballet since 1943, cited increased costs of production and of maintaining and transporting a ballet as major factors behind dissolution of the company. The institute will remain in existence and will continue to aid ballet schools and other ballet companies.

The company was founded by Marquis George De Cuevas and financed by his wife, the former Margaret Rockefeller Strong, granddaughter of John D. Rockefeller Sr. The Marquise took over supervision of the company last year after her husband's death.

Geneva Talks Still Stalled; Recess Called

GENEVA (AP) — The 17-nation disarmament conference, with no substantial agreement to show for 11 weeks of negotiations, decided Friday to recess in mid-June for a month.

The conference will reconvene Monday, July 16.

In the three-power nuclear subcommittee the Soviet Union again turned down an American-British proposal to invite the nonaligned nations to join the negotiations for a treaty banning nuclear weapons tests.

Soviet Delegate Semyon K. Tsarapkin said his government objected to inviting neutral scientists to a discussion of technical aspects of a test ban on the ground this would not be useful.

Voice Of Broadway

By DOROTHY KILGALLEN

This week's stock market plunge practically wiped out show business in the Catskills—usually swinging this time of year. So many hotels received cancellations that they, in turn, cancelled their entertainment. One famous booker of Catskill acts is stuck with hundreds of cancelled performers. Show business experts say they've never seen anything like it . . . Ralph Burns, the talented composer-arranger (he did the brilliant job on Richard Rodgers' score for "No Strings") is recuperating after an emergency appendectomy at a New York hospital . . . Rock Hudson surprised Marilyn Maxwell and showed up at her night-club premiere in Tucson the other night. Before that, he'd been telephoning her all the way from Europe—so who knows?

Darryl Zanuck plans a glittering world premiere of "The Longest Day" in Paris. There's a chance that President De Gaulle, who rarely attends movies, will show up as a tribute to the heroes of the invasion. Also invited to the gala is Mme. Leonard Gille, the most decorated woman in France. She's credited with saving the lives of 68 allied fliers during the occupation. . . . Some of the love scenes from "Phaedra," starring Tony Perkins and Melina Mercouri, rate among the most sizzling ever filmed. They may never be shown on local screens, but they're history-making, just the same . . . As German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer grows older, Foreign Minister Gerhard Schroeder is the man to watch in the power play.

Mary Martin looked the cutest at the Colony the other day, wearing a black sailor suit by Mainbocher. Her hair is now quite long, and she wears a most becoming chignon . . Kim Novack must be desperate for publicity, giving out that interview proclaiming "I Have to Kill" to a scandal sheet. Tony Bennett, in the same edition of the same classy blat, admitted, "I'm no singer." (You said it, honey, I didn't.) . . . Harry Belafonte, one of the genuinely civic-minded entertainers, will donate his talent to a benefit for Martin Luther King in Atlanta on June 6 and will appear in a concert at Carnegie Hall on Oct. 19, for the Samuel Z. Levine Foundation for International Child Health. (And Harry CAN sing.)

The Judy Garland saga is becoming a rather funny farce, with overtones of tragedy because her children are involved. First Judy bombed over to London to get the children away from Sid Luft, her estranged husband. Then Sid jetted to England to get the children back. Then a girl who works in a New York office left her job and flew over to get Sid back, because she's just crazy about him . . . Two key members of the Benny Goodman entourage were not able to leave when the rest of the group winged to Moscow. The stage manager and the recording engineer were held up because their necessary papers hadn't come through. There was no official explanation for the delay.

Goodness, Mort Sahl is being mighty harsh on the Kennedy family in his routine at Basin Street. His diatribes at JFK are rougher than they were at President Eisenhower . . . The widely publicized sale of Skinny D'Amato's 500 Club in Atlantic City was quietly cancelled a couple of days ago. Skinny still plans to spend a lot of time in Lake Tahoe, but he'll hold onto his controlling interest in the 500—the goose that lays those golden eggs. The inside story is interesting.

Jan Murry did 13 TV shows this past week, and in one he sang for the first time, thanks to five months of training with vocal coach Carlo Menotti. Menotti says the comedian now sings well enough to be a likely bet for a Broadway musical . . . . The Theatre Guild wants to Gospel star Clara Ward for the Broadway production of "Tambourines to Glory." The multi-talented Clara would write the music and direct it, as well as act and sing in the Langston Hughes religious comedy. They're talking terms today.

Algiers Truce Is Continued By Secret Army

ALGIERS (UPI) — A Secret Army Organization (OAS) truce gave Algiers its second day of 1962 free of terrorist bloodshed Friday.

The OAS Thursday issued its truce orders effective until Sunday in leaflets scattered in Algiers, notably in the extremist-ridden Bab-El-Oued suburb. It made a private broadcast urging direct contacts between the OAS and the Moslem Nationalist Liberation Front (FLN).

The leaflets said the halt in terrorism was called to permit discussion between the two groups.

BUSINESS HIGHLIGHTS

BOOST CHLORITE PRICE

MIDLAND, Mich. (UPI) — Dow Chemical Co. Friday announced a price boost of undisclosed size on calcium chlorite, effective July 1. The substance is used to control dust and melt ice and snow.

STUDY SHIPPING METHOD

NEW YORK (UPI) — W. R. Grace & Co. said Friday it is studying the possibility of shipping bulk quantities of anhydrous ammonia fertilizer as a liquid instead of as a gas through the use of ultra cold temperatures which change it from one form to the other. At present it has to be converted to solid form for long distance shipment.

COMPLETE GAS WELL

RENO, Nev. (UPI) — Oil Inc. today announced completion of a new gas well in Grande County, Utah, which flowed about 30 million cubic feet a day on tests. Spokesmen said the well appears to prove up an additional 2,000 acres of the 14,000-acre tract there in which the company has a 51 per cent interest.

GET TESTING CONTRACT

COTTON

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK (AP) — Cotton futures closed 10 cents a bale lower to 15 cents higher Friday.

The market firmed at the start on trade and commission house buying. However, demand was not aggressive and prices later gave ground on liquidation.

There was some switching from July to October in near months.

SPOT COTTON

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Spot cotton closed steady and unchanged. Sales none. Low middling 31.50, middling 33.75. Good middling 34.45.

MIDDLING COTTON

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The average price of one inch spot cotton at 14 designated southern spot markets Friday was 10 cents a bale higher at 33.92 cents a pound; previous day 33.90, week ago 33.90, month ago 33.86, year ago 32.08. Average for the past 30 market days 33.87. Middling 15-16 inch average 32.17. Sales 15,267.

GRAIN

CHICAGO (AP) — Wheat futures extended their unusual harvest time advance on the Board of Trade Friday with gains running to a cent a bushel but other grain lost further ground in the final minutes and finished weak. Soybeans closed in a mixed range with new crop months firm.

Brokers ascribed the major support for wheat to establishment and expansion of long positions. Offerings came principally from hedgers but dealers expressed belief there may have been a little profit cashing for the weekend.

What was ⅜-1 cent a bushel higher at the close, July $2.14⅞-15; corn ½-¾ lower, July $1.14-14⅛; oats ⅛-⅜ lower, July 68¼-⅛; rye ¼-⅝ lower, July $1.29-28⅞; soybeans ⅛ lower to ½ higher, July $2.47⅜-½.

Mayor Requests Resident's Aid In Trash Pickup

Mayor J. Allan Norris Friday made three requests of West Monroe residents, which he said would enable the city to provide two garbage pickups each week through the summer months.

More frequent pickups, the mayor pointed out, would prevent fly and maggot infestation in the debris, as well as hold down unpleasant odors.

He asked citizens to:

Man Receives Multiple Fines

Judge Robert Lottinger levied fines of $50 and court costs or 30 days for defamation; $15 and cost or 15 days for simple assault and $10 and costs or 10 days for disturbning the peace.

New President Arrives At Tech

Dr. Taylor will become head of the institution on July 1, succeeding Dr. R. L. Ropp, who will retire on June 30 as President of Tech, the post he has held for the last 13 years.

Part of Tech's welcome extended to the future president is establishing of temporary headquarters for Dr. Taylor across the corridor from the President's office in Keeny hall. The President-elect found the provisional quarters air conditioned and equipped with furniture. A telephone is to be installed in the room which has been used as a gallery by the art department.

For the time being, Dr. Taylor will divide his time between Tech and Louisiana College, where he has resigned as Dean. He said he agreed to help his successor at the Pineville College, Dr. Edward L. McMillan, in becoming acquainted with the Dean's duties there.

Dr. Taylor was accompanied to Tech Friday by Mrs. Taylor. They were entertained by President and Mrs. Ropp at president's home.

Dr. Taylor, a native of Gibsland, attended Tech for four semesters during the school years of 1940-41 and 1941-42. He then entered the navy and rose to the rank of Lieutenant Commander. Later, he received a bachelor's degree from the University of California, a master's degree in history at Claremont Graduate School and the PHD degree from Tulane University. He was a member of the staff of Louisiana College for 10 years.

Upon his return to Tech Friday, Dr. Taylor had no difficulty in locating the President's office, for it is in the same place that it was located when he was a student here. He noticed, however, many changes in the physical plant of the college, including the construction of approximately 20 major buildings.

HINTS FROM Heloise

By HELOISE CRUSE

DEAR READERS:

For those of you who have men and boys' cotton white trousers with dirty pockets that will not come clean, I have just found that ammonia poured full strength on the pocket and lining and scrubbed with a vegetable brush works wonders.

I let mine sit about 20 minutes and then washed them in the machine. This removed all of the stains caused by silver (Ah, money!) and the accumulated dirt from hand perspiration.

Now, don't run and gather all of your husband's trousers and try them all at once. He might die of shock. I do suggest that you try one pair and see how you come out.

Dirty pockets have long been a complaint among readers of this column. Incidentally, boys' wash pants did extremely well. Why are boys so dirty?

HELOISE

DEAR HELOISE:

I wonder if everyone who owns a blender really uses it as an aid? I use mine for loads of chopping chores, especially for onions and green peppers.

I put a small amount in at a time and buzz a little, remove that and buzz more until I have the required amount for a recipe. This also applies to bread crumbs, soft or hard.

The best thing I have yet found is using my blender for cabbage slaw. I always lost fingernails and flesh on my grater. Now I put medium-size pieces of cabbage in the blender — then fill it with water — buzz a little, drain water off and repeat the process until I have enough slaw.

JULIA BRIGGS

DEAR HELOISE:

Is there anyway at all to get the black stuff off the bottom of an electric skillet? I have tried everything and nothing works. All my neighbors have the same trouble.

We will be waiting for some of our friends in this column to answer. L. B.

Anyone know? If so, write to us and tell us how you cleaned yours. Address mail to Heloise, c-o this paper. Letters do not have to be signed to appear.

HELOISE

DEAR HELOISE:

We just love sausage links for breakfast but I always hesitate to buy them as they mess up the stove so badly.

I recently found that if I pierce each link with a fork and then roll the links in flour before frying that they not only don't spatter but the flour seems to add flavor and puts a beautiful crust on them.

My cup of tea would not be complete without the daily chats through this column. I am English, you know.

ENGLANDER

DEAR HELOISE:

We had the most horrible old faded rug in our den that you have ever seen. We could not afford to have it dyed nor could we afford the price of a new one.

I took the rug out into the garage, rolled it out on the floor there, and cleaned it thoroughly with the vacuum. Next, I mixed five packages of all purpose dye according to the directions on the carton, except I used half as much water as called for. I then took my broom and dipped it in the pail of dye water and swept the rug. I swept in all directions, so as to spread the dye evenly into all of the rug fibers.

I left the rug in the garage for a week to make sure it had dried thoroughly before replacing it on my floor again. Each morning I would take the broom and sweep the rug again. This caused the nap to become fluffy. My rug is now rejuvenated — bright and colorful — and we are pleased with the results.

Monroe's Court Activity Light; Mostly Traffic

City court activity was light Friday in Monroe, with a brief docket before Judge W. M. Harper made up mainly of minor traffic offenses. Two fines running to $150 and costs or seven months in jail were meted out, however, for simple battery and selling liquor after hours.

Sentenced in the former case was Dorothy Marie Brown, address listed as the corner of Marx and Reed Streets, while 43 year old Negro woman, Johnnie Lee Hamilton, 505 Adams St., drew conviction on the liquor charge.

Also on the liquor count, Negro Thomas Gilbert, 49, 307 S. 11th St., drew a fine of $100 or 60 days. Conviction of carrying a concealed weapon against Joe D. Taylor, 26 year old Negro woman of 1221 DeSiard St., resulted in a $25 or 25 day fine.

Theft charges on Mrs. Robert T. Riddle, 810 Hilton St., were nolle prossed on payment of $10 court costs.

Forfeiting $15 bond in traffic court for speeding was Negro Andrew Tates, 1313 Ouachita Ave., while Thomas A. Davis, 811 New Natchitoches Road, West Monroe, forfeited bond of $25 for following too closely.

Bonds of $5 were forfeited by seven persons for running stop signs, as did three for running red lights; a fourth case on the latter offense resulted in a $5 or 5 day fine. A $25 bond was forfeited for driving without a valid state drivers license and a $25 or 25 day fine was handed down for driving with inoperative brakes.

Four Are Killed In Turkey Air Show Tragedy

ESKISEHIR, Turkey (AP) — An air tragedy that killed 4 persons and injured nearly 100 others marred anniversary celebrations Friday of Turkey's U.S.-trained and equipped air force. The occasion was officially billed as the 4[illegible] anniversary.

Turkish Air Force authorities would neither disclose the number of planes damaged on the ground nor the extent of the damage. But eye-witness reports earlier said several aircraft were seen in flames, including U.S.-built T33 trainers.

Spectators including several U.S. Air Force observers saw the doomed sabre jet fighter come in low, try to pull out and go into a loop before it crashed with terrific impact.

Charles Blaylock Suffers Wound

Charles Blaylock, 19, of 4320 DeSiard St., was recuperating Friday afternoon from the effects of an accidentally-inflicted gunshot wound in the right leg, investigating Monroe police said.

He was struck in the right thigh by a slug from his .22 cal. automatic rifle when it discharged accidentally as he struggled to unjam it.

Police quoted the Blaylock youth as telling them he had gone to a public rifle range at Selman Field with two friends when the incident occurred shortly before noon.

His condition was described as not serious; he was taken to the St. Francis Hospital.

COTTON

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK (AP) — Cotton futures closed 10 cents a bale lower to 15 cents higher Friday.

The market firmed at the start on trade and commission house buying. However, demand was not aggressive and prices later gave ground on liquidation.

There was some switching from July to October in near months.

Demand for spot cotton was light, dealers said.

BUSINESS HIGHLIGHTS

BOOST CHLORITE PRICE

MIDLAND, Mich. (UPI)— Dow Chemical Co. Friday announced a price boost of undisclosed size on calcium chlorite, effective July 1. The substance is used to control dust and melt ice and snow.

STUDY SHIPPING METHOD

NEW YORK (UPI)—W. R. Grace & Co. said Friday it is studying the possibility of shipping bulk quantities of anhydrous ammonia fertilizer as a liquid instead of as a gas through the use of ultra cold temperatures which change it from one form to the other. At present it has to be converted to solid form for long distance shipment.

COMPLETE GAS WELL

RENO, Nev. (UPI)—Oil Inc. today announced completion of a new gas well in Grande County, Utah, which flowed about 30 million cubic feet a day on tests. Spokesmen said the well appears to prove up an additional 2,000 acres of the 14,000-acre tract there in which the company has a 51 per cent interest.

GET TESTING CONTRACT

WAYNE, N.J. (UPI) — Associated Testing Laboratories received a year-long contract of undisclosed size from Electromechanical Research, Inc., Sarasota, Fla., for testing components of the Dyna-Soar "space glider" program.

GRAIN

CHICAGO (AP)—Wheat futures extended their unusual harvest time advance on the Board of Trade Friday with gains running to a cent a bushel but other grain lost further ground in the final minutes and finished weak. Soybeans closed in a mixed range with new crop months firm.

Brokers ascribed the major support for wheat to establishment and expansion of long positions. Offerings came principally from hedgers but dealers expressed belief there may have been a little profit cashing for the weekend. What was ⅜-1 cent a bushel higher at the close, July $2.14⅞-15; corn ½-¾ lower, July $1.14-14⅛; oats ⅛-⅝ lower, July 68¼-⅛; rye ¼-⅝ lower, July $1.29-28⅞; soybeans ⅛ lower to ½ higher, July $2.47⅜-½.

CHICAGO:

Corn — Lower; liquidation.

Oats —Off with corn.

Hogs — Steady to 25 cents higher; top $17.

LIVESTOCK

CHICAGO (AP) — Demand for butcher hogs on shipper accounts was good Friday and prices were steady to 25 cents a hundredweight higher.

The top price of $17, paid for about a hundred head of mixed No. 1 and 2 grades, was unchanged from Thursday's peak, however. Other 1s and 2s in the 190-220 lb range moved at $16.65 and up and the 1-3 grades at $16-16.75 for 190-230 pounders. Weights up to 280 lbs cleared at $14.75-16 and sows at $12.35-13.75.

No slaughter lamb sales were reported.

Mayor Requests Resident's Aid In Trash Pickup

Mayor J. Allan Norris Friday made three requests of West Monroe residents, which he said would enable the city to provide two garbage pickups each week through the summer months.

More frequent pickups, the mayor pointed out, would prevent fly and maggot infestation in the debris, as well as hold down unpleasant odors.

He asked citizens to:

Place garbage in 25-gallon containers with handles, rather than in the usual 50-gallon drums, allowing easier handling.

Man Receives Multiple Fines

Judge Robert Lottinger levied fines of $50 and court costs or 30 days for defamation; $15 and cost or 15 days for simple assault and $10 and costs or 10 days for disturbing the peace.

STARTS JULY 1

New President Arrives At Tech

Dr. Taylor will become head of the institution on July 1, succeeding Dr. R. L. Ropp, who will retire on June 30 as President of Tech, the post he has held for the last 13 years.

Part of Tech's welcome extended to the future president is establishing of temporary headquarters for Dr. Taylor across the corridor from the President's office in Keeny hall. The President - elect found the provisional quarters air conditioned and equipped with furniture. A telephone is to be installed in the room, which has been used as a gallery by the art department.

For the time being, Dr. Taylor will divide his time between Tech and Louisiana College, where he has resigned as Dean. He said he desired to help his successor at the Pineville College, Dr. Edward L. McMillan, in becoming acquainted with the Dean's duties there.

Dr. Taylor was accompanied to Tech Friday by Mrs. Taylor. They were entertained by President and Mrs. Ropp at president's home.

Dr. Taylor, a native of Gibsland, attended Tech for four semesters during the school years of 1940-41 and 1941-42. He then entered the navy and rose to the rank of Lieutenant Commander. Later, he received a bachelor's degree from the University of California, a master's degree in history at Claremont Graduate School and the PHD degree from Tulane University. He was a member of the staff of Louisiana College for 10 years.

Upon his return to Tech Friday, Dr. Taylor had no difficulty in locating the President's office, for it is in the same place that it was located when he was a student here. He noticed, however, many changes in the physical plant of the college, including the construction of approximately 20 major buildings.

HINTS FROM Heloise

By HELOISE CRUSE

DEAR READERS:

For those of you who have men's and boys' cotton white trousers with dirty pockets that will not come clean, I have just found that ammonia poured full strength on the pocket and lining and scrubbed with a vegetable brush works wonders.

I let mine sit about 20 minutes and then washed them in the machine. This removed all of the stains caused by silver (Ah, money!) and the accumulated dirt from hand perspiration.

Now, don't run and gather all of your husband's trousers and try them all at once. He might die of shock. I do suggest that you try one pair and see how you come out.

Dirty pockets have long been a complaint among readers of this column. Incidentally, boys' wash pants did extremely well. Why are boys so dirty?

HELOISE

DEAR HELOISE:

I wonder if everyone who owns a blender really uses it as an aid? I use mine for loads of chopping chores, especially for onions and green peppers.

I put a small amount in at a time and buzz a little, remove that and buzz more until I have the required amount for a recipe. This also applies to bread crumbs, soft or hard.

The best thing I have yet found is using my blender for cabbage slaw. I always lost fingernails and flesh on my grater. Now I put medium-size pieces of cabbage in the blender — then fill it with water — buzz a little, drain water off and repeat the process until I have enough slaw.

JULIA BRIGGS

DEAR HELOISE:

Is there anyway at all to get the black stuff off the bottom of an electric skillet? I have tried everything and nothing works. All my neighbors have the same trouble. We will be waiting for some of our friends in this column to answer. L. B.

Anyone know? If so, write to us and tell us how you cleaned yours. Address mail to Heloise, c-o this paper. Letters do not have to be signed to appear.

HELOISE

DEAR HELOISE:

We just love sausage links for breakfast but I always hesitate to buy them as they mess up the stove so badly.

I recently found that if I pierce each link with a fork and then roll the links in flour before frying that they not only don't spatter but the flour seems to add flavor and puts a beautiful crust on them.

My cup of tea would not be complete without the daily chats through this column. I am English, you know.

ENGLANDER

DEAR HELOISE:

We had the most horrible old faded rug in our den that you have ever seen. We could not afford to have it dyed nor could we afford the price of a new one.

I took the rug out into the garage, rolled it out on the floor there, and cleaned it thoroughly with the vacuum. Next, I mixed five packages of all purpose dye according to the directions on the carton, except I used half as much water as called for. I then took my broom and dipped it in the pail of dye water and swept the rug. I swept in all directions, so as to spread the dye evenly into all of the rug fibers.

I left the rug in the garage for a week to make sure it had dried thoroughly before replacing it on my floor again. Each morning I would take the broom and sweep the rug again. This caused the nap to become fluffy. My rug is now rejuvenated — bright and colorful — and we are pleased with the results.

Monroe's Court Activity Light; Mostly Traffic

City court activity was light Friday in Monroe, with a brief docket before Judge W. M. Harper made up mainly of minor traffic offenses. Two fines running to $350 and costs or seven months in jail were meted out, however, for simple battery and selling liquor after hours.

Sentenced in the former case was Dorothy Marie Brown, address listed as the corner of Marx and Reed Streets, while 43 year old Negro woman, Johnnie Lee Hamilton, 505 Adams St., drew conviction on the liquor charge.

Also on the liquor count, Negro Thomas Gilbert, 49, 307 S. 11th St., drew a fine of $100 or 60 days. Conviction of carrying a concealed weapon against Joe D. Taylor, 26 year old Negro woman of 1221 DeSiard St., resulted in a $25 or 25 day fine.

Theft charges on Mrs. Robert T. Riddle, 810 Hilton St., were nolle prossed on payment of $10 court costs.

Forfeiting $15 bond in traffic court for speeding was Negro Andrew Tates, 1313 Ouachita Ave., while Thomas A. Davis, 811 New Natchitoches Road, West Monroe, forfeited bond of $25 for following too closely.

Bonds of $5 were forfeited by seven persons for running stop signs, as did three for running red lights; a fourth case on the latter offense resulted in a $5 or 5 day fine. A $25 bond was forfeited for driving without a valid state drivers license and a $25 or 25 day fine was handed down for driving with inoperative brakes.

Four Are Killed In Turkey Air Show Tragedy

ESKISEHIR, Turkey (AP)—An air tragedy that killed 4 persons and injured nearly 100 others married anniversary celebrations Friday of Turkey's U.S.-trained and equipped air force. The occasion was officially billed as the [illegible]st anniversary.

A stunting F100 sabre jet crashed to the ground and exploded into flaming fragments during a commemoration air show here and set other aircraft parked nearby afire.

Turkish Air Force authorities would neither disclose the number of planes damaged on the ground nor the extent of the damage. But eye-witness reports earlier said several aircraft were seen in flames, including U.S.-built T33 trainers.

Spectators including several U.S. Air Force observers saw the doomed sabre jet fighter come in low, try to pull out and go into a loop before it crashed with terrific impact.

Charles Blaylock Suffers Wound

Charles Blaylock, 19, of 4320 DeSiard St., was recuperating Friday afternoon from the effects of an accidentally - inflicted gunshot wound in the right leg, investigating Monroe police said.

He was struck in the right thigh by a slug from his .22 cal. automatic rifle when it discharged accidentally as he struggled to unjam it.

Police quoted the Blaylock youth as telling them he had gone to a public rifle range at Selman Field with two friends when the incident occurred shortly before noon.

His condition was described as not serious; he was taken to the St. Francis Hospital.

WORLD REACTION

Eichmann's Fate Is Termed 'Just'

By HAL R. COOPER

LONDON (AP) —Adolf Eichmann went to a just fate when he was hanged by the State of Israel —that was the general comment of editorials and citizens questioned Friday at random in nations around the world. There were a few dissents.

The big Tokyo paper Asahi said "This sort of 'eye for an eye' revenge will cause a vicious cycle in history" and said the invitation to four newsmen to witness the execution made it seem like an open lynching.

The appeal for presidential clemency by the 56-year-old former Gestapo officer was turned down late Thursday and he went to his death just before midnight for his part in the extermination of six million Jews by Nazi Germany.

It is known that there is general relief in Bonn government circles that the Eichmann trial stirred up as little anti-German feeling abroad as it did.

Eichmann's widow, Vera, who was believed to be staying with relatives in Germany, could not be traced immediately. His trial attorney, Robert Servatius, was unavailable.

Eichmann's relatives in Austria pulled down a curtain of silence. Three of his brothers living in Linz could not be reached. One of them, Robert, a lawyer, had sent a clemency plea to Izhak Ben-Zvi, president of Israel.

He charged former Nazis are still in the West German government and demanded trials of "this murderer's associates who happen to be at the top of Bonn's ruling state ladder."

"Hanging is distasteful," said a postman. One Gaza refugee from Palestine said "It's no surprise that the Israelis kidnap and hang Eichmann in this way."

Pennsylvania Supreme Court Justice Michael A. Musmanno, however, commented: "One by one the Nazi rotten apples fall. The decision by President Ben Zvi to reject Eichmann's appeal for mercy which he gave to no one else is a resounding blow for humanity, justice and the dignity of mankind. The Liberty Bell has rung again."

"He deserved what happened to him," said postman Robert Muench in Frankfurt, Germany. "I'm satisfied that this terrible Eichmann story is now over."

Magda Himmel, a Viennese housewife, declared: "He had to die. There was no question about that."

"What could you expect?" asked a Paris secretary. "The least you can say was that it was a little his own fault, even though he said he followed orders."

Emma O'Leary, a London office clearner, said "Hanging was too good for him—they should have done to him what he did to all those people, all those women and babies."

George Clark, a London factory worker, entered one of the few British dissents. "They hanged him for someone else," he said. "What about the generals above him?"

"After all, six million Jews, what can you expect?" said a Paris messenger boy.

The Frankfurter Rundschau said a pre-execution public opinion smapling showed more than one out of three Germans thought Eichmann should be hanged.

A housekeeper in West Berlin, where Eichmann once had his offices for directing the roundup and transportation of Jews for extermination, said: "He got no better than he deserved."

"Eichmann certainly deserved no mercy. But I cannot approve of capital punishment. Eichmann had no right to do what he did to the Jews. But do the Jews have a right to kill Eichmann?"

ANIMALS HIKE DRUG SALES

The estimate, from the New York State Association of Public Health Veterinarians, is coupled with a report that each of the 19,00 vets nationwide is responsible, on the average, for the health of 375 horses, 7,785 cattle, 2,577 sheep, 4,583 hogs, 31,063 poultry, 2,083 dogs, and 1,166 cats.

WORLD REACTION

Eichmann's Fate Is Termed 'Just'

By HAL R. COOPER

LONDON (AP) —Adolf Eichmann went to a just fate when he was hanged by the State of Israel —that was the general comment of editorials and citizens questioned Friday at random in nations around the world. There were a few dissents.

The big Tokyo paper Asahi said "This sort of 'eye for an eye' revenge will cause a vicious cycle in history" and said the invitation to four newsmen to witness the execution made it seem like an open lynching.

The appeal for presidential clemency by the 56-year-old former Gestapo officer was turned down late Thursday and he went to his death just before midnight for his part in the extermination of six million Jews by Nazi Germany.

A West German government spokesman said West Germany would have no official comment on the hanging.

It is known that there is general relief in Bonn government circles that the Eichmann trial stirred up as little anti-German feeling abroad as it did.

Eichmann's widow, Vera, who was believed to be staying with relatives in Germany, could not be traced immediately. His trial attorney, Robert Servatius, was unavailable.

Eichmann's relatives in Austria pulled down a curtain of silence. Three of his brothers living in Linz could not be reached. One of them, Robert, a lawyer, had sent a clemency plea to Izhak Ben-Zvi, president of Israel.

Moscow radio commentators approved the execution. One of them, Viktor Babkin, used it as a springboard for an attack on the West German government.

He charged former Nazis are still in the West German government and demanded trials of "this murderer's associates who happen to be at the top of Bonn's ruling state ladder."

"Hanging is distasteful," said a postman. One Gaza refugee from Palestine said "It's no surprise that the Israelis kidnap and hang Eichmann in this way."

Pennslvania Supreme Court Justice Michael A. Musmanno, however, commented: "One by one the Nazi rotten apples fall. The decision by President Ben-Zvi to reject Eichmann's appeal for mercy which he gave to no one else is a resounding blow for humanity, justice and the dignity of mankind. TheLiberty Bell has run again."

"He deserved what happened to him," said postman Robert Muench in Frankfurt, Germany. "I'm satisfied that this terrible Eichmann story is now over."

Magda Himmel, a Viennese housewife, declared: "He had to die. There was no question about that."

"What could you expect?" asked a Paris secretary. "The least you can say was that it was a little his own fault, even though he said he followed orders."

Emma O'Leary, a London office clearner, said "Hanging was too good for him—they should have done to him what he did to all those people, all those women and babies."

George Clark, a London factory worker, entered one of the few British dissents. "They hanged him for someone else," he said. "What about the generals above him?"

"After all, six million Jews, what can you expect?" said a Paris messenger boy.

The Frankfurter Rundschau said a pre-execution public opinion smapling showed more than one out of three Germans thought Eichmann should be hanged.

A housekeeper in West Berlin, where Eichmann once had his offices for directing the roundup and transportation of Jews for extermination, said: "He got no better than he deserved."

"Eichmann certainly deserved no mercy. But I cannot approve of capital punishment. Eichmann had no right to do what he did to the Jews. But do the Jews have a right to kill Eichmann?"

ANIMALS HIKE DRUG SALES

The estimate, from the New York State Association of Public Health veterinarians, is coupled with a report that each of the 19,00 vets nationwide is responsible, on the average, for the health of 375 horses, 7,785 cattle, 2,577 sheep, 4,583 hogs, 31,063 poultry, 2,083 dogs, and 1,166 cats.

YOUR PROBLEMS

By Ann Landers

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Prom time is coming up. Please settle something for a bunch of teenagers who can't agree on a very important matter.

When a guy has a car and invites a buddy or two to double or triple date who gets picked up first and who gets taken home first? [illegible] especially because nobody wants to be taken home [illegible] consider it [illegible] of an insult.

You can't imagine how much trouble we've been having over this problem. Please print in your column exactly how it should be done. We will accept your word as law. TOOTH AND TOENAIL

DEAR TOENAIL: When all the kids live in the same part of town [illegible] simple. When they are scattered it can become a problem.

It's sensible to pick up and drop off kids in a logical manner — which means cutting down on mileage wherever possible.

One rule must be observed, however, regardless of distance. Every fellow must pick up and take his own date home.

Roughly it goes like this: The fellows are picked up first, then the driver's date, then the next closest gal, then the third gal.

On taking [illegible] home [illegible] who lives the farthest from the scene of the prom gets dropped first, next her date, then the second gal and [illegible].

DEAR ANN: [illegible]

[illegible] and dressed two children and drove them to the baby-sitters. I had to be at my job by 7:30 a.m.

I finished work at noon. My beloved was off at 2:00 p.m. He'd come home and get the car, go off to a bar and that's where HIS paycheck went. I had every Sunday off, to "fiddle around," as he called it. I washed, ironed, baked, did the yard work and tried to pay some attention to the children.

After too many years of being a dumbbell, I solved my problem by quitting my job. When my husband knew he no longer had a crutch to lean on he learned to walk by himself. We don't have a spare dime now, but who cares? I feel like A NEW PERSON.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I work in an office with approximately thirty girls. One of the girls is getting married soon. The bride-to-be sent one wedding invitation which was addressed to "ALL THE GIRLS IN THE OFFICE." The invitation was posted on the bulletin board.

Much has been said around the office as to whether or not this was in good taste. We divided into three camps: Those who think it was a new low in vulgarity, those who feel it was perfectly all right, and those who are undecided.

We all want to know what you think. SALLY

DEAR SALLY: A mass invitation to a wedding is no invitation at all. In my opinion it's in the same category with that tired, empty phrase, "Why don't you come over to see us sometime?" Each guest goes to a wedding as an individual. Therefore each guest should be accorded the courtesy of a separate invitation.

To learn the difference between a marriage that "settles down" and one that "gets dull," send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "What To Expect From Marriage," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Trooper Injured Answering Call To Area Wreck

Martin, who is hospitalized at Mercy Hospital at Vicksburg, Miss., was en route to a wreck when the car he was driving went out of control on a rain-slick highway and crashed into a bridge abuttment.

He was answering a call to an accident in which five school children had been injured slightly when a pickup truck collided with a school bus just east of Tendal, a small community in the western part of Madison Parish.

The five, identified as Helen Cook, Henry and Joe Shows, all of Tendal, and Diane Porter and [illegible] Netherly of Waverly, were treated for minor injuries.

Driver of the bus was identified as Hurdle Carter and driver of the pickup was identified as Ray Strickland of Winnsboro.

"I Hope They Pay Me THIS Time"

• HAVING TO call again and again for his money—and pay for the newspapers out of his own pocket in the meantime—soon dampens a carrier's enthusiasm for his first business venture.

THAT WON'T happen at your home, if you make sure that the money is ready for him each time. Just remember that he's in business for himself, eager to collect his accounts, pay his paper route bill, and enjoy the full profit from his efforts. He'll appreciate being paid promptly!

YOUR PROBLEMS

By Ann Landers

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Prom time is coming up so please settle something for a bunch of teenagers who can't agree on a very important matter.

When a guy has a car and invites a buddy or two to double or triple date who gets picked up first and who gets taken home first? This bugs the girls, especially, because nobody wants to be taken home first. They consider it some sort of an insult.

You can't imagine how much trouble we've been having over this problem. Please print in your column exactly how it should be done. We will accept your word as law.—TOOTH AND TOENAIL

DEAR TOENAIL: When all the kids live in the same part of town, it's simple. When they are scattered it can become a problem.

On taking kids home: The gal who lives the furthest from the scene of the prom gets dropped first, next her date, then the second gal and next her date.

DEAR ANN: I just read the letter from "Tired." She was well-rested compared with me. You said her husband should give her a hand by bathing the kids, helping with the dishes, etc. Yeah? Did you ever try to get a lazy bum off his back porch and loose from a can of beer?

I've been married 19 years to the same type and when I look back at how foolish I was I could kick myself. For a stretch of several years, I started my day at 3:00 a.m. — took my husband to work, came home, woke up, fed and dressed two children and drove them to the baby-sitters. I had to be at my job by 7:30 a.m.

I finished work at noon. My beloved was off at 2:00 p.m. He'd come home and get the car, go off to a bar and that's where HIS paycheck went. I had every Sunday off, to "fiddle around," as he called it. I washed, ironed, baked, did the yard work and tried to pay some attention to the children.
